Rev. J. D. Withrow, Jr., informed the Presbytery that he had been called to the pastorate of the Spring Hill group of churches in Granville Presbytery, and therefore requested that the pastoral relation between him and the Woodburn church be dissolved, and that he be granted a certificate of dismission to Granville Presbytery, in order that he might accept the call.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

Mr. Withrow advised the Presbytery that a duly organized congregational meeting was held, in which the congregation of the Woodburn church voted to concur in the pastor's request for the dissolution.

Upon motion, Presbytery dissolved the pastoral relation as desired, effective January 31st, and granted Mr. Withrow the certificate of dismissal to Granville Presbytery.

Upon motion, Presbytery dissolved the relation between Mr. Kennedy and the Chadbourn church, effective March 31st, 1942.

A call from the Whiteville First church was read, amending its original call and providing for full-time service of Mr. Kennedy. Upon motion, the same was declared to be in order.

Presbytery heard from several members present on subjects relating to its work.

After the reading and approval of the minutes, the Presbytery closed with prayer by Rev. C. W. Worth.

P. L. CLARK, Temporary Clerk.

Also from Mrs. Newton Robinson, President of Wilmington Presbyterial, conveying information as to the name of such trustee selected by her organization. Referred to the permanent committees on Educational Institutions and Nominations.

From Davidson college, and also from the Presbyterian Junior college. Referred to the permanent committee on Educational Institutions.

Presbytery and requesting its prayers for them in their service in our armed forces. The Presbytery was led in prayer in their behalf by Rev. Jas. R. Phipps.

Rev. C. H. Storey, D. D., offered report as chairman of the commission on the Minister and His Work, which was adopted as follows:

The commission on the Minister and His Work has had two formal meetings during the year and several informal meetings and conferences between members and pulpit committees seeking pastors. The chairman moderated two congregational meetings for the purpose of calling a pastor.

The following calls have been approved by the commission:

Rev. A. K. Dudley to the pastorate of Winter Park and Pearsall Memorial churches;

Rev. Carl B. Craig as stated supply to the Jacksonville and Antioch churches;

Rev. William Crowe, Jr., D. D., to the pastorate of the First Presbyterian church of Wilmington;

Rev. B. F. Ormand, Jr., to the pastorate of the Chadbourn church and as stated supply at Bladenboro;

Rev. J. A. Boyd to the pastorate of the Black River group of churches.

At a meeting held on November 18, 1941, Rev. R. C. Clontz, having complied with the conditions imposed by the commission, was granted permission to labor outside the bounds of the Presbytery.

At a meeting held this day (April 14th), the matter of the one year's leave of absence granted the pastors entering the army as chaplains was freely discussed. It was unanimously agreed that, while we desire under no circumstances to be unfair to these men, we face the fact that they are in the service for the duration of the war, which may in all probability continue several years. The commission deems it wise for these pastors to resign and leave the churches free to secure regular pastoral services. We suggest that Presbytery approve this finding and authorize proper steps to bring this about.

Rev. C. H. Storey, D. D., was reelected chairman of the commission, and Rev. M. C. Macqueen vice-chairman, that the quorum of the commission residing in the northern part of the Presbytery might advise with the pulpit committees in that section seeking pastors.

(Signed) C. H. STOREY, Chairman.

The commission was instructed to communicate with the ministers in the armed forces regarding the above action.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

3:00 p. m. Presbytery observed a special order in the matter of War Service.

A letter was read from Rev. G. A. Wilson, D. D., Director of Soldiers' Service in the Coastal Area, suggesting details for the organized work in the Presbytery. The same was referred to the standing committee on Bills and Overtures.

Rev. J. M. Alexander, D. D., member of Synod's Soldiers' Service committee, addressed Presbytery relative to the work that has been done in the Fort Bragg area and of the need for further service. The address carried many earnest suggestions, with details referred to the committee on Bills and Overtures and the permanent committee on Stewardship.

Rev. David O. Kendall, stationed temporarily at the Marine base at Jacksonville, also addressed the Presbytery regarding the significance of the war situation. He was given a vote of appreciation for his words.

Upon motion, Presbytery directed the Stated Clerk to write to the Emergency Service Commission of the Presbyterian church, U. S. A., Philadelphia, expressing its appreciation for the ministers sent down for service at the Marine base.

The commission on the Minister and His Work offered to the Presbytery, with its approval, a call from the Chadbourn church for the pastoral services of Rev. B. F. Ormand, Jr. The same was found to be in order and placed in his hands; and, upon his acceptance, the following commission was named to install him on May 10th, 1942:

Rev. C. W. Worth, to preach the sermon; Rev. J. R. Kennedy, to charge the pastor; Ruling Elder W. G. Prevatte, to charge the congregation. Alternates, Rev. J. R. Phipps and Ruling Elder J. R. Marks. A quorum to consist of any two ministers and one ruling elder.

The commission also presented a call from the First Presbyterian church of Wilmington for the pastoral services of Rev. William Crowe, Jr., D. D.; and the same was found to be in order and placed in his hands. Upon his acceptance, the following commission was named to install him:

Rev. C. H. Storey, D. D., chairman, and Revs. J. I. Knight, M. C. Macqueen, and A. D. P. Gilmour, D. D., and Ruling Elders W. H. Henderson and W. D. McCaig; with associate members, Rev. William Crowe, D. D., of the Presbytery of Alabama, and Rev. J. M. Wells, D. D., of the Presbytery of Harmony. Any two ministers of the Presbytery and a ruling elder to constitute a quorum. The parts to be taken and the time for the exercises to be left to the pleasure of the commission.

Report of the treasurer of benevolent funds, Mr. R. M. Sheppard, was read, showing a substantial increase in the contributions handled by him; with information that his accounts had been duly audited. The report was approved.

Rev. Andrew J. Howell, treasurer of the Presbytery's contingent fund, made report, showing a balance in bank of $769.33, with all obligations paid to date. The report was approved.

4:00 p. m. Presbytery observed a period in the interest of Religious Education, with information given by the chairman of the permanent committee on that subject, Rev. J. H. Whitmore, D. D. Following him, talks were made by the chairmen of sub-committees, viz.:

Rev. M. J. Murray as to vacation Bible schools;

Rev. M. C. Macqueen regarding young people's conferences to be held at Peace and Davidson colleges;

Rev. D. L. Jones on Adult Work;

Rev. J. W. Miller on Leadership Training;

Rev. J. R. Kennedy on Organization and Extension.

The report as a whole was approved, and the following recommendations offered by the chairman were adopted:

1. That our Presbytery pause to give thanks to God for the outpouring of His blessing upon our Church's program of Religious Education during the past twelve months, and earnestly plead for His leadership in the emergency days ahead.

2. That in this critical hour every session be reminded of the urgency of the priority of the claims of Christ for a consecrated and intelligent congregational leadership to replace men now in the service, and to complete fully the increasing local and national defense demands now being made upon Presbyterian men and women.

3. That every effort be put forth to maintain the high level of Presbyterian leadership already established, by seeing that our superintendents, leaders, elders, deacons, teachers, young people and others attend summer conferences and gatherings especially arranged for them during 1942, so that there may be no flagging of their interest or effectiveness in our Church's teaching program.

4. That men's groups and young people's groups be urged to consider especially the increasing need of their services in newly organized or congested industrial centers, camp areas, and defense localities where demands for constructive Christian leadership are so pressing.

5. That every congregation be asked to hold at least one Vacation Bible School this summer, making a supreme effort to find unchurched children who may be brought into a church relationship in these days of increasing spiritual peril.

6. That congregations be urged to pray for and cooperate fully with our Executive Committee of Religious Education as it tries to meet our emergency needs in these days of chaotic business changes, and that our people be asked to direct all business possible to this agency, remembering that all profits earned are turned back immediately into our Church's program of Christian teaching, and form the only source of income for this work.

7. That recognizing the growing number of church groups that must be helped with free materials or supplies at greatly reduced prices, every church write into its benevolence budget the full apportionment assigned by Presbytery to the Executive Committee of Religious Education and Publication, and that a substantial Rally Day offering be secured in connection with the Rally Day program October 4, 1942.

8. That this Presbytery take steps to enlist itself in the United Religious Education Advance and empower its committee of Religious Education to take such additional steps as may be necessary to keep our Presbytery in the forefront of this great Christian Movement.

The chairman, Dr. Whitmore, offered a supplemental report relative to the subject of the United Religious Education Advance, presenting the following recommendations, which were adopted:

1. That Presbytery give its endorsement to the Advance.

2. That Presbytery urge every pastor and session to enlist their congregation in the Advance.

3. That Presbytery designate its committee on Religious Education as the committee on the Advance for the Presbytery, and empower it to plan for promoting the Advance in the local churches immediately upon the release of material at the launching of the Advance at the meeting of the General Assembly.

4. That there be a popular meeting on the Advance in the next stated meeting of the Presbytery.

5. That a sub-committee on Bible in the public schools be set up.

Rev. J. R. Potts, chairman of the permanent committee on the Sabbath and Family Religion, presented the following report, which was adopted:

That we are a long way from the Sabbath of our fathers is evident to the most superficial observer. There was a joyfulness about their Sabbaths that belonged to no other day in the week. On Sundays they wore their best clothes and enjoyed their best dinners. On that day the sun seemed to shine a bit brighter and the birds to sing a bit sweeter. On that day the church bells as they called the people to worship had in their deep tone a note of healing as of celestial music.

Today all this is changed. For this once restful day is now set aside for our most hectic and exciting pleasures. It is a day of open theatres and shops and ball parks and swimming pools. It is a day of commercial amusement. It is a day when vast numbers of our fellows must not only work, but work under extra pressure. It is a day when our roads are congested with cars, when accidents are most numerous. The Sabbath is God's gift to man. Now, it is possible to refuse this gift of the Sabbath, and thereby allow all its values to be lost. The fact that God has given us this Sabbath does not mean that we have to accept it. For multitudes of us today, both within the church and without, the Sabbath is largely a lost gift.

Now, as in the language of the street, "How have we got that way?" This change has not come about because of any deeper appreciation on our part of the values that are spiritual. It is certainly not the result of a revival of vital religion. No more is it the result of a fuller investigation of the Scriptures. It is not the result of a deeper exploring of the mind of Christ. In truth this change has not come about under the leadership of the Church at all. The Church has rather been caught by the strong currents of the world, till church and unchurched have largely lost this once holy day out of their life. We have not so much thought our way to this change as we have drifted into it under the spell of the worship of the twin gods of pleasure and gold.

Do you not think, therefore, that it would be vastly wise for us who call ourselves Christians to stop taking our cue from the world and to seek the mind of Christ on this important matter?

Your committee recommends that our ministers preach frequently on the subject of Sabbath and Family Religion and that the elders in their visiting talk about it.

Rev. J. T. Echols, chairman of the permanent committee on Foreign Missions, made an informing report, which was approved and the following recommendations adopted:

1. That every effort be made during the year to inform the membership of our churches of the great new opportunities that confront us in our foreign fields and to encourage their full and enthusiastic support of the plans for enlargement and expansion that are under way in Africa, Brazil and Mexico.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

2. That the attention of all congregations be called to the Foreign Mission Conference at Montreat, August 13-19, and, particularly, that laymen be urged to attend the Laymen's Missionary Convention, August 14-16.

3. That the Presbytery affirm anew its unwavering faith in the Gospel of Jesus Christ as the one hope of the world, and that it strive through work and prayer to foster a more vital missionary conviction and participation among all the churches of Presbytery during the year ahead.

After prayer by Rev. W. P. M. Currie, recess was taken until the evening hour.

TUESDAY EVENING

8:00 p. m. Presbytery re-assembled and engaged in a special service in the interest of Presbytery's Home Missions. Rev. C. H. Storey, D. D., chairman, presided, and an opening prayer was offered by Rev. B. F. Ormand, Jr.

The chairman conducted exercises of worship, in connection with which prayer was offered by Rev. William Crowe, Jr., D. D.

Report of the permanent committee was presented by the chairman as follows:

In reviewing the work of another year we find much to be thankful for though we have yet many unsolved problems and face a number of challenging tasks. The military camps within our bounds and the war industries have created new communities with large numbers of people in need of religious privileges and training. Most pressing just now are the communities around the Marine base at Jacksonville, the airplane base at Cherry Point and the ship yards at Wilmington. In cooperation with the Synod's Soldier Service committee we are doing what we can to meet these needs. In cooperation with Synod's committee we have placed Rev. Carl B. Craig at Jacksonville to serve both the church and the marines. The Synodical Auxiliary has provided $5,000.00 for enlarging and improving the church plant at Jacksonville. This will be of great value to the work there, and we will complete this construction at the earliest possible date. Steps have also been taken to secure a manse for this field. We will need some kind of church building for the Marine Home project and the Cherry Point Home project, where the families of non-commissioned officers and others will live. Partially to meet the situation around Greenfield lake, Synod's Soldier Service committee has supplied a woman to give her full time in assisting Immanuel church to serve the non-commissioned officers' families and those of the ship yard workers. There is much to be done yet in this section. Other projects to meet these particular situations are under consideration.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

During the year three of our ministers have entered the army as chaplains. Their fields have not yet been supplied. Rev. Ben L. Rose resigned his pastorate at Chinquapin and Bethel churches. We had two students there through the summer and the pulpits have been supplied through the winter by seminary students. This is an important field and needs the full time of an able minister. Efforts have been made to secure a pastor but without success thus far.

Rev. R. H. Poole was granted a leave of absence from the church at Elizabethtown, and Rev. J. G. Morrison was granted a year's leave of absence from the Kenansville, Hallsville and Beulaville churches. Rev. W. M. Wicker serving these churches as stated supply has recently been called into the army. Rev. J. W. Withrow resigned his pastorate at Woodburn to accept work in Granville Presbytery, thereby creating another vacancy. Southport and New Hope have been vacant for the past year except for student supply during the summer. Plans are under way to supply these pulpits with regular pastors.

The First church at Whiteville called the Rev. J. R. Kennedy for his full time and we have secured Rev. B. F. Ormand, Jr., to serve the churches at Chadbourn and Bladenboro. Rev. J. Robt. Phipps, having been relieved of his work in Onslow county, will devote his full time to Pollocksville, Croatan and Cherry Point. It is hoped that a new field will develop around Havelock. The churches at Morehead City and Croatan will also be affected by the Cherry Point development. The chapel at Haws Run, in Onslow county, has been completed and is in use. Rev. Charles W. Worth has been serving the Lake Waccamaw group as stated supply for the past six months and is doing splendid work. A new floor and other improvements have been made at the White Plains church. The committee has also appropriated $600 toward a manse in the southern part of Brunswick county, with a view to securing a man to serve the Southport and New Hope churches and also do some pioneer work in that part of the county.

Financially the committee has had a good year. Due to the fact that several of our fields were vacant and did not use their full appropriation, we closed the year with a substantial balance. However, with all of our fields supplied, the resources of the committee will be taxed to the limit. Already we have two new men and hope soon to have two more. We could wisely use much larger sums in our Home Mission work if they were only available. Feeling that our salaries were much too low, especially in the face of higher costs of living, your committee is striving this year to bring our salaries to a minimum of $1,620. This can be done only with the cooperation of the churches, and it is quite possible that one or two will fall short of that amount.

During the year the bequest of $5,000.00 under the will of the late J. E. Kelly was received, less the sum of $533.33 attorney's fees in settling the estate. This was placed in the building fund and will be used for permanent construction and extension work.

Upon motion, Presbytery gave a rising vote of thanks to Dr. Storey for his able address, which was in furtherance of the home mission cause.

Ruling Elder Henry E. Faison, of the Graves Memorial church, presented to Presbytery an historical paper reciting interesting incidents and personal sketches connected with Wilmington Presbytery since its beginning in 1868, making special mention of Rev. Archibald McFadyen, pastor of old Brown Marsh in former years. He conveyed to the Presbytery a request that the same be forwarded to the Union Theological Seminary for filing in the library of that institution. Presbytery accepted the paper with thanks, and instructed the Stated Clerk to have copies made and forwarded to the Seminary and the Historical Foundation at Montreat.

In view of the seventy-fifth anniversary of Wilmington Presbytery, which will occur in the fall of 1943, Presbytery requested Rev. Andrew J. Howell, chairman of the committee on History, to arrange a program of celebration of that occasion.

After hearing announcements and a prayer by Rev. J. R. Potts, Presbytery adjourned for the day.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

In connection with the report of this committee, Presbytery heard an address by Dr. H. G. Bedinger, President of Flora Macdonald college, relative to the progress and needs of his institution. By request, a paper to be presented on the subject will be deferred until the fall meeting.

Presbytery took recess for ten minutes.

11:00 a. m. By appointment, Presbytery heard a sermon by Rev. J. R. Kennedy on the doctrinal subject of "The Perseverence of the Saints", based upon passages from the 10th chapter of John.

Rev. Jas. R. Phipps, chairman of the permanent committee on Women's Work, presented report, which was adopted as follows:

As always our women have come through with a splendid report for the year. The Presbyterial has now an enrollment of 2,819 which is an increase of 165 over last year. There is also another decided increase. The grand total to all causes this year was $15,670, which is an increase of $684 over last year. The amount per capita last year was $5.65. For this year closing it was raised to $6.00. This work has been most progressive under the efficient leadership of their President, Mrs. Angus Cromartie, who is now retiring after four years of service.

In consideration of this subject, Presbytery received a report by Mrs. Angus Cromartie, retiring President of Wilmington Presbyterial, which was accepted for record as follows:

Wilmington Presbyterial has just concluded a splendid session at St. Andrews church, Wilmington. Our guest speakers were Rev. Chas. W. Worth, Rev. Chas. L. Crane, D. D., Rev. W. I. Howell, Mrs. E. C. Heins, Jr., our Synodical President, and Mrs. E. L. Russell, Bible teacher.

From an active Executive Board of thirty-five members, thirty-one members were present. The attendance was good both days.

At this meeting of the Presbyterial, the By-Laws were changed, making the term of office for officers and cause secretaries three years with no re-election for more than one term consecutively.

A woman trustee for Flora Macdonald college was nominated and elected, subject to the approval of Presbytery.

During the past year our Birthday offering was again 100%. This is the eighth year we've had this honor. This year our Birthday gift was $649.00.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

Our six District Days of Prayer were held October 8-16. Rev. Chas. Worth was our Missionary speaker. He brought us first hand information from our station at Kiangyin.

Miss Sophia Peck Graham, a Missionary from Haichow, China, stirred our hearts with her Bible messages. Miss Graham was in the Graves Memorial church, Clinton, March 29th to April 5th, during the week of Spiritual Enrichment.

Mrs. S. H. Askew taught the Bible, the Epistles of Peter, in Elizabethtown church in the fall. While there she spoke to the colored Christians.

As a result of the attendance of one of our young business women at the Montreat Auxiliary Training School, the business women of the Presbyterial have organized, and a Business Woman's Chairman has been appointed.

Our women near our camp areas have been active in Christian work among the soldiers.

Wilmington Presbyterial raised a little more than its quota of the $5,000.00 pledged by Synodical to the Jacksonville Church fund.

Thirty of our young people attended the Davidson Conference; 108 attended the Peace Conference; several groups or caravans from the Presbytery's Council of Young People have visited local churches; four rallies have been held.

In our statistical report we find gains and losses: in Auxiliary membership we have gained, but lost in number of Auxiliaries.

In Daily Bible Readers we note a decrease, but in number studying the Bible in some class an increase. This though is a serious loss, a small decrease in Tithers and members having family prayers.

There is a substantial gain in our total gifts to benevolences, and an increase of $648.00 in our total gifts over last year.

For a statistical record of our work, I refer you to the Presbyterial Auxiliary Summary Report, which is in the hands of your Chairman on Woman's Work, Rev. Jas. R. Phipps.

The women of the Presbyterial thank you for a place on your docket.

By rising vote, the Presbytery expressed its thanks to Mrs. Cromartie and its appreciation of her efficient work as President of the Presbyterial for the last four years.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

2:30 p. m. Presbytery re-convened, and prayer was offered by Rev. J. W. Miller.

Rev. C. W. Worth, chairman of the standing committee on the Narrative, submitted the following report, which was adopted:

In looking over the Narrative reports from the churches for the past year, we are struck with the trend in church attendance, which is doubtless more or less general throughout the country.

In the smaller country churches, the attendance on the preaching services averages one half or more of the resident membership; while only a very few of the larger churches report any such proportion, even on their best attended services.

A total of about 450 family altars are reported for the entire Presbytery. This number may appear quite impressive, but there must be at least two thousand families represented in the total membership of the Presbytery. This means that a little more than one family in five has any regular worship with the family as the unit. This seems to us to be a very serious matter, and one which should challenge our attention and very definite effort.

During the past year thirteen churches reported no additions on profession of faith. This is a marked decrease from the previous year, and gives us cause for genuine gratitude to God.

The teaching of the catechisms in the Sunday School and homes seems to be steadily on the decrease. Whether this is the result of carelessness or of the changing emphases of pedagogy we cannot say.

The world, the flesh and the devil are still with us, but we are not discouraged, and there is much to give hope and enthusiasm.

Rev. Jas. R. Phipps, chairman of the standing committee on Leave of Absence, presented the following report, which was accepted:

Leaves were granted as follows:

Rev. K. C. Seawright, chairman of the permanent committee on the Bible Cause, made report, which was approved and the following recommendations adopted:

Conscious of humanity's sense of need for secure foundations, and believing that the Bible contains the one sufficient answer to the world's distress, we recommend:

1. That every minister urge a greater use of the Bible in the homes of our membership as a source of spiritual strength and inspiration.

2. That every member observe Universal Bible Sunday on December 13, 1942, preaching a special sermon in keeping with the day, and that a special offering be taken for the support of the American Bible Society.

He outlined the program of exercises for the week beginning October 18th, 1942.

Rev. Andrew J. Howell offered the following congratulations of the Presbytery, to be presented during the week of celebration by the Moderator, Dr. Wilson, viz.:

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF WILMINGTON.

The Presbytery of Wilmington extends its congratulations to the First Presbyterian church of Wilmington, which is to celebrate its anniversary with exercises beginning on October 18th. It appreciates the fact that the occasion is a memorable one, as it carries one's thoughts back to an early period of Presbyterianism in our section.

We learn that the church was formally recognized by an act of the Legislature of North Carolina in 1785, appointing trustees to hold its property, and that the congregation doubtless existed for many years previous to that date; also that the Presbytery of Fayetteville, our mother Presbytery, records the church's connection with it from 1817. Without going further into the historical phases of your celebration, we feel it to be a privilege to express our gratitude to God for a great church in our midst that has been of unusual and blessed influence and service in the work of the Kingdom committed to our Presbytery.

The First church has been "strong in the Lord and in the power of His might". It has ever shown a generous spirit of co-operation in our missionary undertakings; and, through its succession of able and consecrated pastors and ruling elders, its example in furthering the spiritual life of our people has been greatly blessed of God.

A mother of churches, a tower of help in Christian enterprises at home and abroad, a leader in wise counsels in the progress of the church of God, the First church has been a bulwark of strength in our Presbyterial concerns. May God grant His richest blessings in the future to this blessed and useful church.

ANDREW J. HOWELL, Stated Clerk.

Rev. Andrew J. Howell, treasurer of Presbytery's contingent fund, reported a considerable improvement in the payments by the churches of their assessments, there being at present in the bank a balance of $868.07. He also reported that the Auditing committee of the Presbytery, through Ruling Elder W. D. McCaig, chairman, had examined his accounts and recorded its approval of same.

3:15 p. m. Reports were heard from the commissioners to the last meeting of the General Assembly as follows: Verbally from Revs. J. H. Whitmore, D. D., and G. A. Wilson, D. D., and Ruling Elder Geo. L. Mitchell, and by letters from Ruling Elders C. S. Clark and C. B. Barrus. The diligence of the commissioners was commended.

Rev. S. G. Harness, chairman of the permanent committee on Stewardship, offered the following report:

The Stewardship Committee of Wilmington Presbytery submits the following report:

GIFTS

Gifts for the church year 1941-42 were as follows:

Benevolences	$ 40,058.00
Pastor's Salaries	40,759.00
Current Expenses	41,812.00
Congregational Missions	748.00
Building Expense	8,363.00
Miscellaneous	2,850.00
Total	$134,590.00

This amount was $1,165.00 less than the total amount given in the previous year. This is probably explained by the fact that several churches did not make complete reports. Benevolent contributions showed an increase of $1,494.00. The following forty-one churches' contributions to benevolences were greater than the askings of Presbytery for year 1941-42:

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

Acme	Faison	Immanuel
Pike	So. River	Pearsall Mem.
Bladenboro	Black River	Currie
Burgaw	Jacksonville	Pleasant View
Hopewell	Delgado	Teachey
Mt. Williams	Baker	Topsail
McClure Mem.	Antioch	Wallace

Ch. of the Cov.	Croatan	Westminster
Clarkton	Pink Hill	Wildwood
Graves Mem.	Pollocksville	Winter Park
Ashwood	Rocky Point	New Hope
Mt. Horeb	Mt. Zion

THE EVERY MEMBER CANVASS

The Every Member Canvass was taken in churches representing 78.40% of the membership of Presbytery. This compares unfavorably with a percentage of 88.17% in 1941 and 90.31% in 1940. Twenty seven churches did not take the E. M. C., or made no report of their canvass. Twenty of these churches were vacant at the time of the canvass, which partly accounts for the poor results of our canvass this year.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That the period of February 7 to March 7 be set aside by pastors, officers and all church leaders as the time for the study and presentation of the Christian principles of Stewardship and that all members be urged to willingly accept the practice of these principles; That the book, "Will A Man Rob God" by Ralph Cushman be commended for use as a text book for study groups, as a basis for a class or series of lectures by the pastor, and elective course for young people's and adult Sunday School classes or for any other use that the pastor and officers may choose.
2. That Sunday March 7, 1943, be designated as Every Member Canvass Sunday and that all churches be urged to make this day a culmination of the month's efforts, and that every member be challenged to meet his responsibility and opportunity as a steward. "Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful." 1 Cor. 4:2.
3. That Sunday March 28, 1943, be set as "Pay-Up Day", when all members are urged to complete the payment of all pledges made to Christ and the Church.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

4. That Presbytery approve the action of Synod in combining the appeal of the Home Mission Emergency Fund and the Synod's Defense Service Council and that we:
 - a. Accept the apportionment for our Presbytery of $6.000.
 - b. Apportion this sum to the churches on the basis of the 1942 benevolent askings.
 - c. Urge all churches and organizations to cooperate with the Home Mission committee and the Synod's Defense Service Council in its effort to raise this sum in full.
 - d. Remit all funds to Dr. E. E. Gillespie as treasurer who will apportion them on the basis of 75% to the Home Mission Emergency Fund and 25% to the Synod's Defense Service Council.
5. That our Benevolent Budget for the year 1942-43 be $40,250.00
6. That this amount be apportioned to the churches on the same basis as was previously adopted by Presbytery.

We present the following quotas for the churches of Wilmington Presbytery for the Emergency Home Mission and Defense Council Special Offering. Total amount asked $6.000.

We offer also a table of Approtionments for the benevolent askings of the churches for the year 1942-43. (Table given in appendix).

In consideration of the report, Presbytery heard an address on Stewardship by Rev. C. B. Craig. Upon motion, the report was duly adopted.

Ruling Elder C. G. Rose, of Fayetteville Presbytery, Moderator of the General Assembly, was introduced to Presbytery.

4:00 p. m. At the hour appointed for the Foreign Missions address, the absence of Rev. C. W. Worth was noted, and the Moderator called upon Rev. K. C. Seawright, a member of the permanent committee on that subject, to offer prayer in behalf of Mr. Worth in his distress for the illness of his wife and for her recovery if, in the grace of the Lord, that be His will.

In accordance with provision in the docket, a hearing was requested of ruling elders present as representatives of churches without pastors. Ruling Elder E. R. Powell, of Elizabethtown church, alone, was present and spoke of the continued decision of his church to retain its pastor, Rev. R. H. Poole, who is now serving as chaplain in the U. S. army.

Rev. James R. Phipps, chairman of the permanent committee on the Orphans' Home, made report, with recommendations, which was adopted as follows:

It is with gratitude to God that we are able to report another good year at the Presbyterian Orphans' Home. The contributions to the support of the home for the year was the greatest since 1927-28, amounting to a little over $1.05 per member.

It is interesting to note that the largest number of children received in the home during the past year came from Wilmington Presbytery. Therefore this Presbytery should be much interested and put forth its best efforts to aid in this work.

We would make the following recommendations:

(1). That as many churches as possible make a month by month contribution to the home.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

(2). That, in view of the many calls within and without the church, our churches do not forget the home at Thanksgiving, especially in view of the high cost of living that we are all experiencing in these days. This has affected private families; but the family at Barium Springs is much larger than others and faces a proportionate increase in cost.

(3). That we remember the home in our prayers, that it may be a Christian home, and that we may ever have Christian teachers to train the girls and boys there.

In view of the heavy rain of the day which was likely to interfere with the attendance at the evening service, Presbytery made request of Hon. Chas. G. Rose to deliver at this time the address on the United Christian Education Advance, anticipated for the evening. The address was heard with much appreciation, and Presbytery rose in a vote of thanks to him.

Order was taken to have the cause of the General Assembly's Home Mission Emergency Fund presented at the evening service at the conclusion of the report of the permanent committee on Religious Education.

After announcements and a prayer by the Moderator, the meeting recessed until the evening session.

TUESDAY EVENING.

7:30 p. m. Presbytery re-assembled and was led in prayer by Ruling Elder J. B. Huntington.

Rev. J. H. Whitmore, D. D., chairman, presented report of the permanent committee on Religious Education, as follows:

THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Your committee has held two regular meetings during the past year at both of which lunch was served in order to make possible a more extended period for the transaction of business. The annual meeting was held at the Church of the Covenant January 20th, with 14 members present, and a special meeting to make plans for the United Religious Education Advance September 3rd. also at the Church of the Covenant with 12 members present. Called meetings have been held in connection with the meetings of Presbytery.

Due to war conditions no special conferences have been attempted either in the Presbytery or the Synod. We have therefore to report only on the regular work. Let us turn first to a brief survey of the field.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

CHILDREN'S DIVISION:—Rev. M. J. Murray, chairman, reports as follows: With the help of local leaders and several young ladies furnished by Synod's committee on Religious Education, 34 Vacation Bible Schools were held. Undoubtedly others were held which have not been reported to me. The 34 reported had an enrollment of 1961 children and 249 helpers, making a total of 2210.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S DIVISION:—Rev M. C. Macqueen, chairman, reports that 2 council meetings and one retreat to plan and map out the work of the young people have been held. The retreat was held in the home of Dr. Evans at Wrightsville Beach. The first council meeting was held in Wilmington and the second at Clinton. The annual Young People's Conference was held at Peace College the last week of June with 113 delegates present and a staff of twenty. The spirit of the conference was exceptionally fine. On account of the transportation problem no Pioneer Conclave could be held this year.

Four district rallies are being held this month for which careful plans have been made.

ORGANIZATION AND EXTENSION:—Rev. J. R. Kennedy, chairman, reports that no new Sunday Schools have been organized nor outposts established this year. However steps are in progress towards the beginning of an outpost S. S. in Brunswick a unincorporated town four miles from Whiteville; this will be under the direction of the Westminster Church. In response to the request of certain residents of Tabor City the possibilities of establishing a work there is under consideration.

LEADERSHIP TRAINING:—Rev. J. W. Miller reports as follows: One standard Leadership School was held in Wilmington. Rose Hill and Wallace held a joint school in which Rev. J. O. Mann and his wife both taught; 25 credits were awarded. Mr. Mann also gave his course on the Family in the Graves Memorial Church, Clinton, with a splendid attendance.

BIBLE IN PUBLIC SCHOOL:—Dr. Wm. Crowe, chairman. The Bible is now being taught in the following schools: Wilmington, Clinton, Whiteville, Chadbourn and Jacksonville.

ADULT WORK:—Rev. D. L. Jones, chairman. A retreat for elders and deacons was held at Lake Waccamaw in which all the churches of that section of the Presbytery joined.

The matter of prime importance in the field of Religious Education at the present time is the United Religious Education Advance which has been in the planning for some years and was formerly launched at the meeting of the General Assembly in May. This movement was endorsed by this Presbytery at its spring meeting and your committee of R. E. charged with the duty of promoting it within its bounds. Presbytery further urged all churches through their pastors and sessions to enlist in the Advance.

Pursuant to these instructions your committee has endeavored to further this cause by all the means available. The chairman sent out a letter to all the pastors with suggestions for launching the Advance in the local church. Where churches were vacant members of the committee were appointed to visit them when desired to assist in any way possible in getting the work started. 27 churches have already reported that they are definitely setting up the Advance.

There are a number of facts which seem to indicate that the Advance is most timely and urgent; let me mention just one. The reports sent up to Presbytery last April show that there has been a decline in the Sunday School enrollment: this is true of our Presbytery, the Synod, and the entire Assembly. A comparison of the reports of 1942 with those of 1941 show the following decline: Wilmington Presbytery-201 (.029%), Synod of N. C.-3124 (.04%), Assembly-13,986 (.032%). The decline in Wilmington Presbytery has been less than that of the Synod or the Assembly but there is small comfort there. And since it has been shown that the spiritual birth rate in the church is in direct ratio to the S. S. enrollment this is a matter of the most serious import. Surely in the light of this every church should promote the Advance with all possible energy.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That every church put forth all effort to promote the Advance as a means to building up our S. S. enrollment and bringing the claims of the gospel to bear on more lives.
2. That a Young People's Conference be held next June at Peace College if the way be clear, all arrangements for which shall be in the hands of the committee on Young People's work.
3. That Presbytery appropriate the sum of $100.00 or such amount thereof as shall be needed for the use of this committee in its promotional work, the same to be paid out of the funds of the Home Missions' Committee.
4. That all churches be urged to give more attention to the need for Leadership Training and that the Workers' Conference be stressed as one of the best means to this end.
5. That every church be urged to hold a vacation Bible school next year.
6. That ministers be urged to look into the possibility of introducing the teaching of the Bible in the public schools in their respective communities. Dr. Wm. Crowe will be glad to render assistance in this wherever desired.
7. That ministers consider the matter of holding group conferences or retreats for the elders and deacons as a means of greatly increasing the efficiency of our church officers.
8. That all ministers and churches be urged to observe Young People's night on November 15, 1942.
9. That all churches and Sunday Schools be requested to take a special offering for Vacation Bible school work in our Synod on Sunday, April 18, 1943.
10. That all churches be urged to send to Synod's Religious committee 3.5% of all benevolent funds.

Pending the adoption of the report, Rev. J. R. Kennedy informed the Presbytery regarding the Presbyterian officers' retreat held at Lake Waccamaw last month, producing very satisfactory results, which brought forth the desire for a repetition next year.

Also, in the consideration of the committee's report, as to the United Religious Education Advance, an address was heard from Rev. Andrew J. Howell with reference to the need of a renewed interest in the study of the catechisms of the church. Remarks on this subject were also made by Dr. G. A. Wilson, Rev. C. C. Myers, Ruling Elder G. L. Mitchell, Rev. M. J. Murray, and Dr. C. H. Storey.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

The report of the committee was duly adopted.

Rev. C. H. Storey, D. D., addressed the Presbytery with reference to the program of the Home Mission Emergency Fund as projected by the General Assembly, with aid for the Synod's Defense Council. In connection therewith, Rev. G. A. Wilson, D. D., and Rev. J. H. Whitmore, D. D., spoke on the pressing opportunity for service offered in the military camps in the territory of the Presbytery, and with special reference to the great number of new residents near the shipbuilding plant at Wilmington.

Upon motion, Presbytery fixed the order at ten o'clock tomorrow morning for the hearing of information regarding the activities of the Defense Service Council of the Presbytery.

After announcements and a prayer by Rev. J. A. Boyd, Presbytery adjourned for the day.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 14.

9:00 a. m. Presbytery engaged in a period of worship conducted by Rev. B. F. Ormand, Jr., with remarks based upon the Sixth chapter of Ephesians.

Rev. William Crowe, Jr., D. D., was enrolled. He made announcement of the death on yesterday of Mrs. Charles W. Worth.

Dr. Crowe informed the Presbytery of the detention of Rev. A. K. Dudley on account of unavoidable circumstances, and brought a message from Rev. A. D. P. Gilmour, D. D., regretting his absence.

The Stated Clerk was requested to send a telegram of sympathy to Mr. Worth; and a prayer for his comfort was offered by Rev. J. Robt. Phipps.

An invitation from the Winter Park Presbyterian church to entertain Presbytery at its spring meeting in 1943 was referred to the standing committee on Time and Place of Next Meeting.

Upon motion of Rev. J. H. Whitmore, D. D., Rev. Andrew J. Howell was placed on the Honorably Retired roll of the Presbytery.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

10:00 a. m. Presbytery heard a report of the Defense Service Council. Rev. C. B. Craig delivered an address with reference to the possibilities of its work, especially at the marine base in Onslow county. Rev. G. A. Wilson, D. D., Director, also spoke regarding his work in connection with the army camps within our bounds and as to the general helpfulness of the war service efforts of the Council. The report was received with approval.

Rev. H. G. Bedinger, D. D., of Fayetteville Presbytery was introduced to Presbytery and invited to sit as a visiting brother.

10:45 a. m. Report of the permanent committee on Educational Institutions was made by Rev. J. Robert Phipps, chairman. In connection therewith Presbytery heard an address by Dr. Bedinger, President, in the interest of Flora Macdonald college.

Dr. Bedinger also presented the following paper relating to his institution, which was accepted for publication:

The year 1941-42 at Flora Macdonald College was very successful. The enrollment numbered 334 which was only ten less than the largest enrollment in a decade, this being 344 in 1939-40. The graduating class numbered 57, which was above the average. These young women were well prepared and have all secured positions teaching in public schools, in business, and in war work. Due to the shortage of teachers many requests for teachers had to be declined. The college is rendering a service, the value of which cannot be measured.

In addition to those who graduated a large class of commercial students finished the one and two year courses. Most of these are engaged in business and in war work.

The greatest contribution of the college to the life of the nation is in the homes of Flora Macdonald women who have married. The Christian home is still the foundation of the church and Christian civilization. A great many alumnae of Flora Macdonald have married during the past year. It is true that many of the men whom they married are in the armed service, but it is confidently expected that most of these will return after the war and establish their homes.

When college opened in September the enrollment was 276. Others will enter during the year; but even so the total enrollment will be much less than that of last year.

The college dormitory lacked four students of being filled. The day student group was reduced from 50 to 26, many of the local students having secured work, some of them with excellent pay.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

The charges were increased $25.00 per year for boarding students and $19.00 for day students. Even with this increase the smaller number of students will largely reduce the income and, with living conditions as they are, it will require close financing to balance the budget this year.

This situation illustrates the need of the college for relief from the burden of debt and the increase of the endowment and current support.

The faculty suffered the loss of eight valuable members. These have been replaced by well qualified teachers, but with great difficulty on account of the shortage of teachers generally and higher salaries paid at other institutions.

The Presbytery and the college are greatly indebted to the Flora Macdonald Debt Liquidation Association which during the year collected $12,000 for it. The Association is hoping to realize from pledges in hand and other sources at least this amount for payment of debt during the present year. They are also indebted to the Alumnae Association and other friends who have contributed to the endowment and scholarship fund.

The greatest need and problem of the college is financial, the payment of the debt and the increase of the endowment to the minimum requirement of the Southern Association.

The college is now looking forward with great hope to the proposed Christian Education Movement in the Presbyteries of the Synod in 1943. With the improved financial conditions and the increasing appreciation of the people for the Education Institutions, this effort should mean much to our Presbyterian colleges.

The report of the committee on Educational Institutions as a whole was approved.

11:15 a. m. By appointment, Rev. William Crowe, D. D., preached a doctrinal sermon of the subject of the "Sovereignty of God", based on the theme, "Jerusalem, a Drama in Three Acts", being an exposition of three connected passages in the prophecy of Isaiah, viz.: 2:1-6! 3:8-4; 4:2-6.

Rev. W. P. M. Currie and Ruling Elders H. E. Faison (alternate), Graves Memorial, and W. H. Kornegay, Mt. Olive, were enrolled.

Rev. J. R. Kennedy, chairman of the permanent committee on Social and Moral Welfare, offered the following report, which was adopted:

The Archbishop of Canterbury in a recent article on the "Church and the Social Crisis", states that "the primary duty of the church in the social field is to call her citizens to recognize that civic no less than individual action stands under the judgment of God; that they are responsible to him for it, and that it can truly prosper only if they submit social, as personal, life to the redeeming love of God in Christ". If this be true, then you and I and all Christian people of our country are directly responsible to God for the social evils of our country.

In this report, I would call attention to one of these social ills in particular-the evil of alcoholic drink, especially as it concerns the personnel of our armed forces.

Recently in an address in New York City, Dr. Stewart M. Robinson, chairman of the Committee on Chaplains of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., charges that "drink and vice are playing havoc among the officers and men in the armed forces." "Our government has done more than any other government in the world for the spiritual needs of the men. It has built seven hundred and fifty chapels in army camps throughout the nation. . . A Chapel went up wherever a barracks was built. What a testimonial to our leadership in the War!" Thus the nation makes a serious and very successful endeavor to meet the siritual needs of the men in the service. All the while, however, it permits these forces to be subjected to one of the most destructive influences to man's moral life that world has ever known.

Therefore, we recommend that the Presbytery through the Moderator and Stated Clerk bring this matter to the attention of our congressional representatives, imploring them to do something before it is too late to prevent America's defeat from within by this great curse of strong drink.

Also that we call upon our constituent membership to do all we can, each individually, by prayer, by personal conduct, by persuasion, by influence and political action to protect from the evils of drink our men in uniform.

Report on the Bible Cause was made by Rev. K. C. Seawright, chairman of the permanent committee on that subject, and the following recommendations were adopted:

1. That we accept Sunday, December 6, as Universal Bible Sunday.
2. That every minister present this cause to his congregation on December 6, or the nearest convenient Sunday.
3. That every minister urge a return on the part of Christians to a more faithful and diligent read of the Word of God.

Report of Presbytery's Home Missions committee was made by Rev. C. H. Storey, D. D., chairman. The same was received as information.

Rev. M. C. Macqueen, chairman of the standing committee on Bills and Overtures, made the following report, which was adopted:

In regard to the suggestion of Dr. B. R. Lacy that Presbytery take action to give our Presbyterian Chaplains in the armed forces evangelistic powers; we recommend that evangelistic powers be granted to our chaplains to enable them to receive members into the Presbyterian church and to administer the sacraments.

We recommend the approval by Wilmington Presbytery of the following amendments to the Book of Church Order as sent down by the General Assembly:

Amending Paragraph 122 (as amended by 1940 Assembly) by the addition of the following sentence after the end of the third sentence in first paragraph:

"All names submitted to the committee on call of a pastor from any source shall be submitted to the commission on the Minister and His Work with information as to the source of the suggestion, for their consideration and advice." (See page 92 of 1942 Assembly Minutes.)

The entire paragraph will then read as follows:

"Every church should be under the pastoral oversight of a minister and, when vacant, shall promptly proceed to elect a pastor in the following manner: The session shall call a Congregational meeting to convene at the regular place of worship to elect a Nominating Committee representative of the whole congregation, whose duty it shall be to nominate a minister to the congregation for election as pastor. Public notice of the time, place and purpose of the meeting shall be given at least one week prior to the time of the meeting. The Nominating Committee shall confer with Presbytery's Commission on the Minister and His Work as provided in paragraph 76-a. All names submitted to the committee on call of a pastor from any source shall be submitted to the Commission on the Minister and His Work with information as to the source of the suggestion, for their consideration and advice. When the Committee is ready to report it shall notify the session, which shall call a congregational meeting at the regular place of worship for the purpose of acting on the report of the Nominating Committee. Public notice of the time, place and purpose of the meeting shall be given at least one week prior to the time of the meeting. The same procedure shall be followed in the selection of an associate pastor."

Addition of Paragraph 303 which reads as follows: (see page 124 of Minutes)

"The status of a minister who has been divested of his office without censure and assigned to membership in a particular church shall be the same as that of any other member. If he should desire to re-enter the ministry he shall proceed by seeking to place himself under care of presbytery, which should ordinarily be the presbytery that has jurisdiction over the church of which he is a member. The procedure contained in the Book of Church Order concerning the reception of candidates shall apply in every particular in his case. Before receiving him the presbytery shall also make careful inquiry into his Christian character, his previous record as a minister and his motives for seeking to re-enter the ministry. If satisfied the presbytery may receive him and after thorough examination license him, and thereafter when he has received a call to a definite work may ordain him if it should seem wise to the presbytery. The requirements for licensure and ordination shall be those set forth in the Book of Church Order."

A supplementary report of the Stewardship committee was made through Rev. S. G. Harness, chairman, recommending the adoption of the new table of percentages sent down by the Synod for the distribution of benevolent contributions for the coming year; the same to be published in the minutes of this meeting, with April 1, 1943, shown as the effective date. The same duly adopted.

The committee on Nominations presented the following report through its chairman, Rev. J. R. Potts:

We recommend that: Rev. J. R. Kennedy be made chairman of the committee on Stewardship, succeeding Rev. S. G. Harness, removed, and that Rev. C. B. Craig be added to this committee.

That Rev. D. L. Jones be made chairman of the committee on Christian Education and Ministerial Relief, to succeed Rev. J. I. Knight, removed, and that Rev. William Crowe, Jr., D. D., and Rev. K. C. Seawright be added to this committee.

That Rev. M. J. Murray be made chairman of the committee on Nominations, succeeding Rev. J. R. Potts, whose term has expired, and that Rev. J. A. Boyd be added to this committee.

That Rev. M. C. Macqueen and Ruling Elder C. S. Clark be elected for another term on the commission on the Minister and His Work, and that Rev. D. L. Jones and Rev. G. A. Wilson, D. D., be added to the commission

The report was duly adopted.

Rev. J. R. Potts, chairman of the permanent committee on Synod's Home Missions, made report, which was received as information.

The standing committee on Time and Place of Next Meeting through, Rev. C. C. Myers, chairman, recommended the acceptance of the invitation of the Winter Park church for the spring meeting, 1943, and the invitation was duly accepted.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

The standing committee on the Records of Presbytery, through Rev. M. J. Murray, chairman, reported that the printed minutes of the spring meeting had been examined and found to be neatly and accurately published.

A supplementary report for the committee on Educational Institutions was made by Rev. J. Robt. Phipps, chairman, recommending, in response to the communication from Dr. H. G. Bedinger submitted to it, the appointment of a special committee in the Presbytery to further the interest of the Christian Education Movement. The report was approved, and, upon nomination of the committee, the following special committee was named for the purpose: Glasgow Hicks, chairman, Dr. J. E. Evans, Rev. C. H. Storey, D. D., Rev. M. C. Macqueen, Rev. J. R. Kennedy and W. D. Herring.

The committee also offered the following recommendation, which was adopted:

That Presbytery approve the action of the Synod of North Carolina in regard to the promotion of the Christian Education Movement by a united campaign, if the way be clear, in the churches of Wilmington Presbytery in 1943.

Rev. J. R. Dickens, chairman of the permanent committee on the Minutes of the General Assembly, made a report which was received.

Rev. Andrew J. Howell, chairman of the permanent committee on History, reported that, since the spring meeting, he had forwarded to the Historical Foundation at Montreat the following papers.

Copy of letter from Hon. Henry E. Faison, giving personal recollections of Rev. J. M. Sprunt, D. D.

Paper containing biographical sketches of former ministers of Wilmington Presbytery, written by Hon. H. E. Faison.

Sketch of Winter Park Presbyterian church by Rev. A. J. Howell.

Sketch of Pearsall Memorial Presbyterian church by Rev. A. J. Howell.

Also that he contemplated sending promptly to the Foundation the following papers written by him:

History of the First Presbyterian church, of Wilmington, from 1760.

History of Home Missions in Wilmington Presbytery.

Sketch of New Hope church, Brunswick county.

Sketch of Westminster church, Whiteville.

Sketch of Wilmington Presbytery.

The report was received as information.

Rev. S. G. Harness offered his resignation as pastor of Mt. Zion, Oak Plains and Teachey churches. Information as to congregational meetings, which took action concurring in the pastor's request for the dissolution of his relations with the churches was given by W. D. Herring of Mt. Zion, H. M. Wells of Teachey, and, by letter, by F. F. Newkirk of Oak Plains. These representatives also spoke of the affectionate appreciation they have of their pastor and their regret at his contemplated leaving. Members of Presbytery also voiced their high regard for Mr. Harness as a faithful and capable minister and Presbyterian.

Upon motion, Presbytery dissolved the pastoral relations as requested, effective October 31, 1942, and authorized a certificate of dismission for Mr. Harness to Lexington Presbytery, that he might accept a call to the pastorate of the Bethesda church of Rockbridge Baths, Va.

The Stated Clerk was requested to address a letter to the Presbytery of Lexington, commending Mr. Harness as a member greatly to be desired. Upon request, prayer was offered by Rev. W. P. M. Currie for God's continued blessings upon Mr. Harness in his new field of labor.

The Moderator appointed Rev. D. L. Jones to preach the doctrinal sermon at the spring meeting on the subject of "Repentance".

Upon motion, it was ordered that when Presbytery adjourn it be to meet in adjourned session in the First Presbyterian church, Wilmington, on December 21st at 11 a. m.

There was no report from the committee on Leave of Absence.

Rev. J. R. Kennedy, chairman of the committee on Resolution of Thanks, offered the following:

As members of the 146th stated session of Wilmington Presbytery, we desire to express our appreciation and thanks—

ADJOURNED MEETING

The Presbytery of Wilmington met in adjourned session at the First Presbyterian church, Wilmington, on Monday, December 21, 1942, at 11 a. m. The Moderator, Rev. G. A. Wilson, D. D., presided, and the meeting was constituted with prayer by him.

The following members were enrolled:

Ministers: G. A. Wilson, D. D., C. H. Storey, D. D., D. L. Jones, Andrew J. Howell, J. Ray Dickens, C. C. Myers, William Crowe, Jr., D. D., J. H. Whitmore, D. D., (8); Ruling Elders: Geo. S. Boylan, St. Andrews; Geo. L. Mitchell, Wilmington First (2).

A newspaper notice was read, giving information of the death of Rev. William Monroe Wicker, who was killed in action Nov. 8, 1942, while serving with the armed forces of the United States in northern Africa. Presbytery stood in his memory, and was led in prayer by Rev. William Crowe, Jr., D. D.

Upon motion, the Stated Clerk was directed to express to the family the condolence of the Presbytery, and Rev. M. J. Murray was requested to prepare for publication in the minutes a sketch of Mr. Wicker's life.

Rev. D. L. Jones, chairman of the permanent committee on Christian Education and Ministerial Relief, presented, in behalf of his committee, the following paper, which was adopted, the items contained therein to be considered in order, viz.:

Your committee on Christian Education and Ministerial Relief recommends:

1. That Mr. Jerry McMullan Newbold, Jr., be examined for reception as a candidate for the ministry; due inquiry having been made as to his character and fitness to be a candidate.
2. That Mr. William K. Cromartie's name be dropped from our list of candidates for the ministry, because he is inactive in the matter of necessary preparation for this service.

Mr. Newbold was present, and he was examined on the subjects given in the Book of Church Order. The examination was approved as satisfactory. Also several members of the session of the First Presbyterian church, of Wilmington, of which he is a member, were in attendance and spoke in words of high commendation of Mr. Newbold. The speakers were Rev. William Crowe, Jr., D. D., pastor, and Ruling Elders Geo. L. Mitchell, J. S. McKenzie and A. T. Summey.

The questions provided in the Book of Church Order were propounded to Mr. Newbold, and answered satisfactorily; and, upon motion, it was ordered that his name be enrolled on the Presbytery's list of candidates.

By appointment, Rev. C. H. Storey, D. D., delivered a charge to the candidate as to his preparation for the Gospel ministry, and the exercises closed with a prayer by Ruling Elder Geo. S. Boylan.

In accordance with the recommendation of the committee, the name of William K. Cromartie was dropped from the list of candidates.

Rev. J. Ray Dickens informed Presbytery that he had accepted a call to the Gilwood Presbyterian church of Concord Presbytery, and had tendered his resignation to the Pink Hill, Pleasant View and Smiths churches, and that it had been accepted by them.

The several churches were heard from through Deacon Earl Smith, of Pink Hill, and Ruling Elder Durham Grady, of the Pleasant View church, who gave information that the churches had held congregational meetings, in which vote was taken to concur in the pastor's request to Presbytery for a dissolution of the pastorate.

Upon motion, Presbytery dissolved the pastorate, as desired, effective January 1, 1943, and authorized a letter of dismissal for Mr. Dickens to Concord Presbytery. Words of approval were spoken relative to the very successful service rendered by him in the pastorate he is leaving.

Report of a commission of Presbytery was read and accepted for record as follows:

The commission appointed by Wilmington Presbytery to install Rev. J. A. Boyd pastor of the South River church met in the church on the afternoon of December 6th, 1942. The following members were present: Rev. M. C. Macqueen, Rev. M. J. Murray, and Elder J. H. Clark.

The meeting was opened with prayer by Rev. M. J. Murray and the commission was organized with Rev. M. C. Macqueen as chairman and Rev. M. J. Murray as clerk.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

The sermon for the occasion was preached by Rev. M. C. Macqueen on the text "By Faith," found in several verses in the eleventh chapter of Hebrews. After the sermon Mr. Macqueen propounded the constitutional questions; after which he declared the pastoral relations established. Rev. M. J. Murray delivered a charge to the pastor and Elder J. H. Clark delivered a charge to the congregation. After the benediction by the new pastor the congregation came forward and gave him the right hand of fellowship.

The commission having performed its duties, was dissolved with prayer by Rev. M. C. Macqueen.

M. J. MURRAY, Clerk.

Rev. G. A. Wilson, D. D., made report as to the progress made in raising funds for the Home Mission Emergency plan of the General Assembly.

Upon motion, the Sweet Home church of Shallotte, N. C., which has been inactive for many years, was dissolved, and a commission was appointed to have the surviving members transferred to other churches of their choice; the members of the commission being Revs. C. H. Storey, D. D., C. C. Myers, J. H. Whitmore, D. D., William Crowe, Jr., D. D., and Ruling Elders Eustace Norfleet and L. N. Boney.

The minutes were read and approved, and the meeting adjourned after prayer by Rev. J. Ray Dickens.

ANDREW J. HOWELL, Stated Clerk.

CALLED MEETING

The Presbytery of Wilmington met in called session in the Westminster Presbyterian church, Whiteville, N. C., on Monday, January 18, 1943, at 2:30 p. m. The following members were present:

Ministers: J. R. Phipps, J. R. Kennedy, B. F. Ormand, Jr., J. W. Miller, C. W. Worth.

Ruling Elders: E. H. Munroe, Clarkton; M. V. Hardie, Westminster.

Rev. Jas. R. Phipps, who was the last Moderator present, presided, and the meeting was constituted with prayer by Rev. J. R. Kennedy.

The acting Moderator requested Rev. C. W. Worth to take the chair; and there was presented the following call for the meeting, issued by the Moderator, Rev. G. A. Wilson, D. D., on January 7, viz.:

The constitutional requirements having been complied with, I hereby call a meeting of Wilmington Presbytery at the Westminster Presbyterian church in Whiteville, North Carolina, at 2:30 p. m. Monday, January 18th, for the following purposes:

1. To consider the request of Rev. James R. Phipps for the dissolution of the pastoral relation between him and the Westminster church.

2. To transact any business growing out of the above.

3. To act on any matters which may be presented by the Home Missions committee of the Presbytery.

The call was found to be in order, and the Presbytery proceeded to the business indicated.

Rev. James R. Phipps informed the Presbytery that he had resigned his pastorate of the Westminster church, in order that he might accept a call to the Thyatira and Back Creek churches in Concord Presbytery. He therefore offered his resignation to the Presbytery and requested that a letter of dismission be granted him to Concord Presbytery.

R. C. Carson, a ruling elder of the Westminster church, informed Presbytery that, at a congregational meeting held on January 10th, the church reluctantly concurred in the pastor's request for the dissolution. Remarks commending the work of Mr. Phipps were made by Revs. J. R. Kennedy and B. F. Ormand, Jr.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

Upon motion, Presbytery granted the request for the dissolution and directed a letter of dismissal be granted Mr. Phipps as desired. The Stated Clerk was also instructed to write a letter of commendation in behalf of the Presbytery for him as he goes to form his new connection.

Rev. G. A. Wilson, D. D., and Rev. Andrew J. Howell were at this time enrolled; and further remarks expressing appreciation of the Presbytery of Mr. Phipps's membership were made by Mr. Howell; and Dr. Wilson, now in the chair, made a statement relative to the duties of the commission on the Minister and His Work in regard to the calling of pastors for vacant churches.

The minutes were approved, and the meeting adjourned after prayer by Rev. James R. Phipps.

J. W. MILLER, Permanent Clerk.

ANDREW J. HOWELL, Stated Clerk.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

REGULAR MEETING

The Presbytery of Wilmington met in its regular spring session in the Winter Park Presbyterian church, Wilmington, N. C., on April 13th, 1943, at 11 a. m.

An opening sermon was preached by the retiring Moderator, Rev. G. A. Wilson, D. D., on the text, Deut. 11:10-12.

The sacrament of the Lord's Supper was then observed, with Revs. C. H. Storey, D. D., and J. W. Miller presiding. The following ruling elders of the Presbytery distributed the elements: H. Mc.N. Johnson, C. Monroe, J. N. Wells, F. F. Newkirk, J. H. Clark, F. L. Pearsall, E. C. Clark and W. C. Scoggins.

Presbytery entered into a memorial service for Rev. William Monroe Wicker, who was killed in action in North Africa November 8, 1942, as a member of the United States combat forces. After some introductory words, the Stated Clerk read a letter from his mother, Mrs. A. M. Wicker, of Charlotte, N. C., in response to a letter of sympathy from the Presbytery. Rev. M. J. Murray, in accordance with appointment, read the following memorial paper:

Rev. William Monroe Wicker

The many friends of Rev. William Monroe Wicker were shocked and saddened when news came that this fine young minister of the Gospel had been killed in North Africa on November 8, 1942 while in the service of his country. Wilmington Presbytery deeply mourns the loss of such a gifted minister and lovely Christian character. Our hearts go out in sincere sympathy to his loved ones—his wife and mother and sisters.

Monroe was truly a child of faith of earnest Christian parents. He was born in Charlotte, North Carolina, on December 30, 1916, the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Wicker. As an infant he was consecrated by them to the Lord, then in 1924 at the age of seven and a half years he became a communing member of the First Presbyterian church of Charlotte. All of his life he was an active Christian. He was intimately identified with the Sunday School, the young people's organization, and other phases of the life of his church. As he grew up he became especially interested in young people's work and served for two years as President of the Young People's League of the Synod of North Carolina.

In his college and seminary days, he was an excellent student and an able leader. At Davidson College, from which he graduated in 1938, he was elected a member of Omnicon Delta Kappa, an honorary society, membership in which is based on character, leadership, scholarship, and the promise of future usefulness. At Union Theological Seminary, from which he graduated in 1941, he was accorded the coveted Walter W. Moore fellowship, one of the highest honors a student of that institution can receive.

Monroe was received under the care of Mecklenburg Presbytery as a candidate for the ministry on July 24, 1934. He was dismissed to Wilmington Presbytery on July 17, 1941. He was licensed by Wilmington Presbytery as a probationer for the Gospel ministry on October 14, 1941 at Wallace, and was ordained as a minister of the Gospel on December 28, 1941, at Grove Church in Kenansville. Until he was called into the service of the United States army as a lieutenant, he supplied the pulpits of Grove, Hallsville and Beula-ville churches. During his brief ministry in these churches, by his excellent preaching, his faithfulness as a pastor, and his radiant Christian living, Monroe made a profound impression upon his people.

A short while before taking part in the North African campaign, he married the former Catherine Keiger of Winston-Salem. He is survived by her, his mother, and two sisters.

The early going of this young minister, so capable and promising, from a world that desperately needs such lives is one of the mysteries of divine providence. We can only bow in submission to God's will and believe that He has some greater work in heaven than in this world for Monroe to do.

As we think of him, we will always remember the tall, handsome figure of our friend, the friendly smile that continually lighted his face, the helpful words that ever fell from his lips, and the strong and true Christian character that marked his life.

"Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends."

The exercises closed with a prayer by B. E. Dotson, a fellow-student of the deceased.

The meeting opened for business, and was constituted with prayer by the Moderator.

The following members were enrolled:

Ministers: W. P. M. Currie, P. L. Clark, A. J. Howell, C. C. Myers, J. R. Phipps, J. H. Whitmore, D. D., J. W. Miller, F. S. Johnston, C. H. Storey, D. D., D. L. Jones, G. A. Wilson, D. D., J. R. 4:00 p. m. Presbytery heard a report of the permanent committee on History by Rev. Andrew J. Howell, chairman, urging the churches to prepare and send in sketches of their history, as a constructive, spiritual task.

By appointment, Dr. William Crowe, Jr., delivered an address on the subject of "The Purpose and Call of the Westminster Assembly", in observance of its 300th anniversary. The address contained much historical inspiration.

The report of the committee was received with approval.

Rev. G. A. Wilson, D. D., presented report as chairman of the permanent committee on Evangelism, which was adopted as follows:

Your committee has considered two letters from the chairman of the Assembly's committee on Evangelism.

One of these letters explains that the committee does not plan to employ an executive secretary and maintain a central office, but it does hope to secure a full-time field worker for at least one year, who will travel over the church and endeavor to stimulate evangelistic efforts in the Presbyteries and churches.

Your committee recommends:

1. That Wilmington Presbytery approve this plan.
2. That Wilmington Presbytery overture the General Assembly, asking that means be devised for placing the work of the Assembly's committee on Evangelism on a stable annual budget.

The other letter requests Presbytery to have a meeting of its Home Mission committee, its committee on Evangelism, and the President and the Secretary of Spiritual Life in the Presbyterial to study the spiritual birthrate of the churches of the Presbytery, and to take such action as may be appropriate for the promotion of evangelism within the Presbytery. The committee recommends that this joint meeting be held at the earliest suitable date at the call of the chairman of the committee on Evangelism.

The committee also recommends:

1. That Presbytery urge all its pastors to lay special emphasis on evangelism in their preaching with a view to bringing people to a definite decision for Christ in all departments of the church.
2. That the committee on Evangelism be instructed to arrange for evangelistic meetings in all vacant churches.

Upon motion, Presbytery invited Candidate Bernard Earl Dotson to preach a sermon at this time. The sermon, based upon Psalm 116:12, 13, was heard with appreciation.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

Rev. J. H. Whitmore, D. D., chairman of the permanent committee on Religious Education, made a verbal report for the committee. In connection therewith, Rev. M. J. Murray, chairman of the Children's Division, spoke on the subject of daily vacation Bible schools which may be held during the coming summer.

Ruling Elder H. McN. Johnson led in prayer in behalf of the work of the committee; and, upon motion, the report was approved.

By vote, Presbytery changed the hour of the evening meeting from 7:30 to 8 o'clock.

After announcements and a prayer by the Moderator, the Presbytery took recess until evening.

TUESDAY EVENING

8:00 p. m. Presbytery engaged in a special service in the interest of Presbytery's Home Missions. Rev. C. H. Storey, D. D., chairman of the committee, presided and conducted exercises of worship, during which a duet was rendered by young ladies of the Winter Park church and a prayer was offered by Rev. W. P. M. Currie.

Report of the committee was offered by the chairman as follows:

As we review the past year of Home Mission work in our Presbytery there are grounds for encouragement, grounds for heartache and there are unsolved problems pressing for solution. The congested conditions brought about by the influx of population in connection with the military camps and war industries have opened opportunities and created needs beyond the ability of our committee to meet. While much has been done we are all painfully conscious of the fact that much is yet to be done. Our most fruitful effort has been made in the area about Jacksonville. A year ago Rev. C. B. Craig took charge of this work. Through the generous gifts of the Synodical Auxiliary a $6,000.00 social center has been built as an annex to the Jacksonville church. In co-operation with Synod's Committee on Religious Education we have had for the past nine months Miss Lillian Johnson as church visitor and recreational leader. She has proven very helpful in the work and will continue indefinitely. The church has also expended some $1,500.00 in reconditioning their church building, a considerable number of new members have been received and we feel that they are entering upon a year of even more fruitful labor. They serve many of the men from the Marine Base and from Camp Davis as well as industrial workers brought into the community in connection with war work.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

A similar opportunity challenges at Cherry Point. In this area we have done comparatively little. Last summer we had the part time services of Mr. Robert Coit, a student from the Seminary. He conducted services each Sunday morning at Havelock in an abandoned church building which had been renovated. Through the winter months only a limited amount of work could be done here by Rev. Robert Phipps in addition to his regular work in that vicinity. We need a full time man for this area.

Another challenging need is presented in connection with the several Housing projects in the vicinity of the North Carolina Shipbuilding yards. Some progress is being made in this area, particularly in the Maffitt Home Development section. We have secured a lot, submitted plans and requested the necessary priorities to erect a building adjacent to a large Trailer Camp and the Maffitt Homes. Rev. Philip M. Corey of West Virginia has been secured for this work and will begin his labors about the first of May. Other projects are under consideration and will be developed as rapidly as the men and money can be obtained.

Our regular work likewise presents both encouraging achievements and perplexing problems. We have had several vacant fields only partially supplied with preaching services by visiting ministers and students from the Seminary. For two summers Mr. Gower Crosswell, Jr., has served the Chinquapin and Bethel churches and through the winter he has come down from Richmond for Sunday or sent another student. We hope to have a settled pastor there by early summer. Rev. J. R. Dickens resigned as pastor of the Pink Hill group on January 1st. It is still vacant. Several men have visited the field but as yet we have not found the right man for this important group of churches. For the past year Rev. S. B. M. Ghiselin has served as Stated Supply of the Woodburn and Acme churches. Arrangements were entered into with the First Presbyterian church of Wilmington by which Mr. Ghiselin has been giving part of his time to the Mission Chapels of the First church, they supplementing his salary. Mr. David Coblentz has continued to supply New Hope and Southport once or twice a month coming down from Richmond. By using several students this summer we hope to provide preaching services for all of our fields during the summer months.

Feeling that our salary level was entirely too low the Committee has been endeavoring to bring all of our Home Mission salaries to a minimum of $1,800.00. This is being done largely through the cooperation of the churches in increasing their local support. Nearly every group in the Presbytery has made some increase in the support of their pastor. Some of the increases are as follows: Lake Waccamaw $300; Jacksonville $600; Pollocksville $180; Morehead City $180; Chinquapin $180; Pink Hill group $180; Bladenboro $300. There may be others but only these have been reported. These increases will bring most of our salaries to the minimum of $1,800 and a manse.

We are happy to report that we closed the year with all obligations met and a balance of $642.24. This is some $300 less than we carried over last year and will probably be wiped out in the first quarter of the new year. In addition to this balance we have on hand $1,669.29 from the Home Mission Emergency Funds and we keep in the treasury a revolving fund of $1,000 which was borrowed from the Building Funds. This serves to prevent overdrafts during the lean months. The Emergency Funds are designated for the support of the worker at Maffitt Homes and the Church Visitor at Jacksonville. The Presbytery will have to supplement these funds by about $1,500.00. The Westminster church at Whiteville has established a flourishing mission at Brunswick and contemplates building as soon as possible. We shall probably have to render some assistance in this worthy project. The Committee has received during the year two large gifts to the Building Fund. The Belk-Williams Company gave us $2,000.00. $1,000.00 is designated for the building project at Maffitt Homes. The other is to be held until a definite project is approved by both the Committee and the donors. Mrs. Mary B. Parker has given us another $1,000.00 to be used in meeting some of the urgent needs at this critical time. This too will probably go into one of the Defense projects. We regret exceedingly to have any vacancies in our Home Mission fields but if all of the fields were supplied throughout the year the Committee would almost certainly face a deficit. There is an increase in the amount received from the churches this year. We earnestly hope this will continue and we shall be justified in opening new work. We are gratified to know that improvements are being made on some of our churches. The Pleasant View church added a steeple and some Sunday School rooms to its church greatly improving the appearance and usefulness of the building. King's Chapel at Haws Run has been completed and new pews added. Through the interest and generosity of one or two laymen a number of ministers who have been successful in evangelistic work will be available without expense for holding evangelistic services in our Presbytery. Your Committee will be glad to arrange for such special services.

We recommend that Presbytery approve the following appropriations for the ensuing year, subject to such revisions by the Committee as may be necessary and contingent upon the receipts of the Committee.

1. $125.00 per month for the support of our Superintendent.
2. $75.00 per month to assist the Pollocksville and Croatan churches in the support of their pastor, Rev. J. Robert Phipps.
3. $16.66 per month to the Jacksonville and Antioch churches to assist in the support of their pastor, Rev. Carl B. Craig.
4. $50.00 per month toward the support of Miss Lillian Johnson, church visitor at Jacksonville.
5. $50.00 per month to the Delgado, Topsail and McClure Memorial churches to assist in the support of their pastor, Rev. C. C. Myers.
6. $66.66 per month to the Rocky Point, Pike and Currie churches to assist in the support of their pastor, Rev. J. T. Echols.
7. $60.00 per month to the Pink Hill, Pleasant View, Smith and Hebron churches to assist in the support of their pastor.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

8. $50.00 per month to the Lake Waccamaw, Ashwood, White Plains and Elkton churches to assist in the support of their pastor, Rev. Charles W. Worth.

9. $60.00 per month to the Woodburn and Acme churches to assist in the support of their Stated Supply, Rev. S. B. M. Ghiselin.

10. $66.66 per month to the Webb Memorial and Wildwood churches to assist in the support of their pastor, Rev. K. C. Seawright.

11. $25.00 per month to the Chadbourn and Bladenboro churches to assist in the support of their pastor, Rev. B. F. Ormand, Jr.

12. $10.00 per month to the Stanford church to assist in the support of their stated supply, Rev. E. B. Carr.

13. $75.00 per month to the Chinquapin and Bethel churches to assist in the support of their pastor.

14. $62.50 per month to the New Hope and Southport churches to assist in the support of their supply pastor.

15. $208.33 per month for the support of Rev. Philip M. Corey, pastor of the Maffitt Homes Development.

16. $300.00 per year for the expenses of the committee.

17. $600.00 per year for student workers.

18. $890.20 per year for payments to Minister's Annuity fund.

These appropriations total $13,800.00 for the year which we submit as our working budget.

Pending action on the report, Presbytery heard an address by Rev. William Crowe, Jr., D. D., relative to the resources available in the Presbytery of Wilmington for developing a large, constructive work among the churches, and the obligation by heritage to engage in it.

Talks were also made on home mission subjects by Dr. G. A. Wilson, and Revs. C. B. Craig, M. J. Murray, B. F. Ormand, Jr., and J. S. Crowley.

The Moderator took the chair, and, upon motion, the report of the committee was duly adopted.

Upon motion, Presbytery also adopted a recommendation that the churches of the Presbytery be asked to take a special offering to provide for its home mission work on Sunday, July 4th.

The report of the treasurer of Home Mission funds, Ruling Elder E. Norfleet, was read by the chairman, and adopted as follows:

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 14TH

9:00 a. m. A period of worship was conducted by Rev. A. K. Dudley, based on the Second Psalm.

The minutes of Tuesday's sessions were read and approved.

Rev. C. W. Worth was enrolled. He informed the Presbytery of his having been accepted for a chaplaincy in the U. S. navy.

Rev. D. L. Jones, chairman of the permanent committee on Christian Education and Ministerial Relief, offered the following paper:

1. That aid be continued to Mrs. L. E. Wells by the Executive Committee of Ministerial Relief in the usual amount.

2. That Candidate B. E. Dotson be received by certificate from Abingdon Presbytery, and be examined for licensure for the Gospel ministry.

The paper was duly adopted.

The Stated Clerk informed the Presbytery that he had received a telegraphic certificate of dismissal of Mr. Dotson from Abingdon Presbytery, and the same was formally accepted by the Presbytery.

Mr. Jones, chairman, then presented the candidate as an applicant for licensure, and informed Presbytery that he had examined the several written parts of trial required by the Book of Church Order, and also that Mr. Dotson had diplomas certifying to his having covered the several necessary courses of academic studies. These several parts of trial were duly approved by the Presbytery, and, in addition, the sermon preached yesterday afternoon was accepted as satisfactory. Presbytery then entered into an examination of the candidate on Theology, the Sacraments and Church Government and the English Bible. Upon motion, these parts of trial were also approved, and the examination as a whole was sustained as satisfactory, and in accordance with the Book of Church Order.

Mr. Dotson was then licensed in form provided, and the exercises closed with prayer by Rev. D. L. Jones.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

The Presbytery makes record of the licensure as follows:

At Winter Park, Wilmington, North Carolina, the fourteenth day of April, 1943, the Presbytery of Wilmington, having received testimonials commending Bernard Earl Dotson, and evidence of his being a communicant of the church, of his good moral character, and of his having pursued suitable courses of study, proceeded to submit him to the prescribed tests for licensure, which were met to the approval of the Presbytery. On his satisfactorily answering the questions appointed to be put to applicants for licensure, Mr. Dotson was licensed by the Presbytery to preach the Gospel as a probationer for the ministry within the bounds of this Presbytery, or wherever he shall in an orderly way be invited to preach.

Calls from the Mt. Olive, Calypso and Baker churches for the pastoral services of Mr. Dotson were presented by the commission on the Minister and His Work, and, upon motion, were declared to be in order and placed in his hands. Upon his signifying his acceptance of them, the following commission was appointed by Presbytery to ordain him to the Gospel ministry and install him in the churches on Sunday, June 20th, 1943, viz.:

Revs. M. C. Macqueen, D. L. Jones and M. J. Murray, with Ruling Elders I. L. Faison, H. McN. Johnson, F. B. Johnson; Rev. J. R. Potts to be alternate for any one of the ministers who may not be able to attend.

Three ministers and a ruling elder shall constitute a quorum for the ordination, and two ministers and a ruling elder for an installation service.

The ordination and installation service to be held at 11 a. m. in the Mt. Olive church; the installation services in the afternoon in the Baker church, and in the evening in the Calypso church.

The following members were enrolled: Rev. M. C. Macqueen, and Ruling Elders F. B. Johnson (alternate), Graves Memorial, and Warren A. Smith, Warsaw.

The permanent committee on Educational Institutions made report, through Rev. J. Robt. Phipps, chairman, supplying information regarding certain colleges; and Rev. J. H. Whitmore, D. D., spoke in the interest of Peace Junior college, and Rev. C. H. Storey, D. D., regarding Flora Macdonald college. The report of the committee was approved.

11:00 a. m. Presbytery heard a doctrinal sermon, by appointment, by Rev. D. L. Jones on the subject of "Repentance", from the text Matt. 4:17.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

The Stated Clerk reported a letter from Rev. A. D. P. Gilmour, D. D., expressing regret for his inability to attend the meeting of Presbytery; and reference was also made to retired members, Revs. J. M. Plowden and J. E. L. Winecoff, and to Rev. H. C. Hammond, D. D., of impaired health. A prayer in behalf of these brethren was offered by Rev. William Crowe, Jr., D. D.

Rev. J. A. Boyd, chairman of the standing committee on the Records of Presbytery, offered the following report, which was adopted:

Your committee on the Records of Presbytery wish to state that the printed minutes of the fall session were examined and found to be in excellent shape. We commend our clerks for their faithful service.

Rev. J. H. Whitmore, D. D., chairman, made report for the standing committee on the Narrative, furnishing information as to various details of church activities, especially with reference to the comparative numbers of members received and names dropped from the rolls. The report was received as information and approved.

In the absence of the chairman of the permanent committee on Women's Work, Rev. J. Robt. Phipps presented to the Presbytery Mrs. Newton Robinson, President of the Presbyterial Auxiliary, who spoke with reference to the work of her organization during the past year. She said—

The annual meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of Wilmington Presbytery was held April 8th in the Clarkton Presbyterian church. The one-day meeting was deemed best, because of the present problems in food, servants and gasoline. Only the most essential business was transacted. The remainder of the day was given to prayer, worship and inspiration.

The reports show that the women of the Presbyterial have met the many changes that have called for fortitude and prayer. All the auxiliaries have helped to maintain the tie between the service men and the local churches. The auxiliaries adjacent to military camps have done a great deal of work for the service men.

For the second time, a week of Spiritual Enrichment was observed from March 28th to April 4th. This is a week of Bible study, meditation and prayer observed by individuals and groups; many of our women taking part in it.

Along with new features of our work, the fundamentals are still stressed, i. e., family altars, personal prayer, prayer bands, tithing, and every woman enlisted for service of Christ.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

All the causes of the church have been presented and supported; and there was an increase in gifts in nearly every cause. Much interest was manifested in the Home Mission Emergency fund campaign.

The auxiliaries of the churches of Wilmington reported a fine colored women's conference; and the World's Day of Prayer was observed in the Chestnut street (colored) Presbyterian church.

There are fourteen business women's circles reported, with a membership of 540. This is an increase of 75 members over last year.

The fall days of prayer were held as usual. These programs were well attended; and there was the same spirit of prayer and sharing one with another that always prevails. The devotional periods conducted by the local pastors brought a great blessing.

The women of the Presbyterian Auxiliary thank Presbytery for our place on its docket.

Mrs. Robinson presented data showing 46 auxiliaries in the Presbyterian with a total membership of 2,702. There were 1,461 women engaged in some service or study. Total contributions were $18,265.00.

Mrs. Robinson's report was received by the Presbytery for record with much appreciation of the work of the women.

Rev. J. R. Kennedy, chairman of the permanent committee on Stewardship, gave a report on that subject, and offered the following recommendations, which were adopted:

1. That Presbytery appropriate annually a sum not to exceed fifty dollars from its contingent fund for the expense of promoting stewardship.

2. That Presbytery accept the amount of $2,300 as its apportionment of the Defense Service Council fund, and that it be divided among the churches according to the appended list.

3. That, wherever these apportionments have not been included in the regular benevolent budget of the churches, Mothers' Day, May 9th, be designated as the time when special offerings shall be made for this cause; and that the churches be urged to raise their full quotas.

4. That the attention of Presbytery be called to the special offering for Presbytery's home missions on July 4th, and that all churches be urged to share in this object.

5. That we bear in mind the Home Mission Emergency fund during this the second year of the five-year campaign. Quotas for our churches will be given at the fall meeting of Presbytery.

In continuance of the report of the committee on Religious Education, Rev. M. C. Macqueen, chairman of the Young People's Division, spoke on his subject and announced the young people's conference to be held at Flora Macdonald college, Red Springs, on June 14th-19th, the age limit of which has been reduced to 14 years. His statement was accepted as information.

In connection therewith, Rev. B. F. Ormand, Jr., spoke of a successful plan of a local inter-denominational young people's conference which has been used in his locality.

Rev. C. H. Storey, D. D., chairman of the commission on the Minister and His Work, offered the following report, which was adopted:

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

Your commission operates in two divisions. Rev. M. C. Macqueen, Rev. D. L. Jones and Mr. M. V. Orr constitute a sub-committee to serve in the northern part of the Presbytery. The chairman, Dr. G. A. Wilson, and Mr. W. D. McCaig and Mr. C. S. Clark operate in the south and southeastern portion of the Presbytery. During the year we have cooperated with the pulpit committees of the Mt. Olive, Calypso and Baker churches; the Mt. Zion, Teachey and Oak Plains churches; the Pink Hill, Hebron, Smiths and Pleasant View churches, the Chinquapin and Bethel churches and the Westminster church at Whiteville.

Rev. C. H. Hutton has been approved as temporary supply for the Westminster church. Calls from the Mt. Olive, Calypso and Baker churches for the pastoral services of Mr. B. E. Dotson, graduate of Union Theological Seminary, have been found in order and will be placed in his hands as soon as he is licensed by the Presbytery. The commission has approved a call for the pastoral services of Mr. R. R. Gammon soon to graduate from Union Theological Seminary, by the Chinquapin and Bethel churches. This call will be handled at an adjourned meeting of Presbytery. A call from the church of Jacksonville for the pastoral services of Rev. C. B. Craig, their present stated supply, has been found in order and placed in his hands.

Your chairman attended the meeting of Synod's committee on the Minister and His Work at Greensboro in February. Earnest efforts are being made to more closely coordinate the work of the commissions in the several Presbyteries and to facilitate the ways and means of making changes in pastorates where such change is desirable.

The difficulties of travel these days makes it quite difficult for the full commission to visit and revisit the vacant churches in the Presbytery, but we have depended on one or two meetings with the pulpit committees and the commission ratifying their action.

We recommend the following appointments as stated supply until the fall meeting of Presbytery:

Rev. E. B. Carr at Stanford; Rev. C. B. Craig at Antioch; Rev. D. L. Jones at Bowden; Rev. J. W. Miller at Brown Marsh; Rev. C. C. Myers at McClure Memorial; Rev. B. F. Ormand at Bladenboro; Rev. J. R. Potts at Willard and Rockfish, and Rev. C. W. Worth at Lake Waccamaw, Ashwood, Elkton and White Plains until such time as he is called to active duty in the Navy; Rev. S. B. M. Ghiselin at Woodburn and Acme.

Dr. Storey, chairman, in behalf of his commission, presented a call from the Jacksonville church for the pastoral services of Rev. Carl B. Craig, which was declared to be in order; and the same was placed in his hands. Upon his expression of willingness to accept the call, the following commission was named by the Presbytery to install him as pastor:

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

Rev. G. A. Wilson, D. D., to preside and propound the constitutional questions; Rev. D. L. Jones to preach the sermon and charge the people; and Rev. J. Robt. Phipps to charge the pastor. Rev. K. C. Seawright was named alternate for any minister who may not be able to attend.

The following ruling elders to serve on the commission: H. C. Sadler, Warren A. Smith and J. D. Burton.

Two ministers and a ruling elder to constitute a quorum. The time of the exercises and any change in designation of parts to be taken are left to the pleasure of the commission.

On account of his anticipated war service, Rev. C. W. Worth requested permission to labor without the bounds of the Presbytery for an indefinite period.

The Presbytery heard nominations for commissioners to the General Assembly to be held at Montreat May 27th, 1943.

The permanent committee on Sessional Records, through Rev. J. R. Kennedy, acting chairman, presented the following report:

Your committee has examined the books coming into their hands, and have approved all except the following:

Graves Memorial—One set of minutes not signed.

Baker—Only one meeting during the year.

Acme—No record of representative to Presbytery in 1942. No sessional record in connection with closing of church year or approval of minutes.

Rockfish—No statistical report or narrative recorded.

Brown Marsh—Only one meeting during year.

White Plains—No ruling elder elected to Synod in 1942.

Lake Waccamaw—No ruling elder elected to Synod in 1942.

Elkton—No narrative.

Ashwood—No narrative.

Black River—No narrative.

Antioch—No narrative.

The following churches failed to send their sessional records to this meeting of Presbytery: Beth Car, Bethel, Beula-ville, Chinquapin, Currie, Hallsville, Hebron, New Hope, Oakdale, Pike, Pink Hill, Pleasant View, Rocky Point, Smiths, Southport, Stanford, (16).

Rev. K. C. Seawright, chairman of the permanent committee on the Minutes of Synod, reported that there are no items of special interest to Wilmington Presbytery that have not already been mentioned. The report was approved.

Recess was taken until the afternoon session.

ADJOURNED MEETING

The Presbytery of Wilmington met in adjourned session in St. Andrews Presbyterian church, Wilmington, on Monday, May 24th, 1943, at 11 a. m.

Rev. M. J. Murray, Moderator, presided, and the session was constituted with prayer by him.

The following members were enrolled:

Ministers: C. C. Myers, J. W. Miller, C. H. Storey, D. D., J. S. Crowley, C. B. Craig, D. L. Jones, M. J. Murray, Andrew J. Howell and J. H. Whitmore. D. D., (9);

Ruling Elder G. S. Boylan, St. Andrews.

Rev. Phillip M. Cory, of Kanawha Presbytery, was introduced and invited to sit as a visiting brother.

Rev. C. H. Storey, D. D., informed Presbytery that he had resigned as pastor of St. Andrews church; and he offered his resignation as a member of the Presbytery, and requested that he be granted a letter of dismission to the Presbytery of Fayetteville, in order that he might accept a call to the pastorate of the Bethesda Presbyterian church, of Aberdeen, N. C.

Ruling Elders G. S. Boylan and Eustace Norfleet, of St. Andrews church, furnished information that a congregational meeting of their church was held on May 2nd, 1943, at which time it was voted to concur in the pastor's request for a dissolution of the pastorate. A motion was duly made that the Presbytery grant the request of Dr. Storey. Pending action on same, remarks commendatory of Dr. Storey's faithful ministry in Wilmington and efficient work in the Presbytery were made by Revs. J. H. Whitmore, D. D., A. J. Howell, D. L. Jones, J. S. Crowley, C. C. Myers, J. W. Miller and M. J. Murray.

The desired resignation was accepted effective June 1st, 1943, and a letter of dismission to Fayetteville Presbytery authorized as requested.

Upon nomination of the Home Missions committee, Presbytery elected Rev. William Crowe, Jr., D. D., as chairman of that committee to replace Dr. Storey, resigned.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

Rev. J. H. Whitmore, D. D., chairman of a special committee named by the Home Missions committee, presented a paper which was accepted for record as follows:

The Home Missions committee of Wilmington Presbytery is suffering the loss of a very valuable leader, Rev. C. H. Storey, D. D., who has been its chairman for the past ten years. This is because of his anticipated removal to another Presbytery.

Dr. Storey has been a competent presiding officer and a wise guide in matters relating to the home missionary interests of the Presbytery. Possessing to an unusual degree a grasp of the general situation in this department of work, as well as the ability to make financial adjustments as the need arises, he has had the fullest confidence of the members of our committee, and has had a large part in outlining its activities. While we know his connection with the Presbytery, which he is resigning, will receive a due expression of appreciation, we are offering this special word of commendation from the Home Missions committee. This we do most cordially and lovingly.

Dr. Storey is held in the highest esteem by all of our members. He has been a close friend and fellow-worker with us, and has greatly endeared himself to us. He leaves with us a happy memory of our labors together. We commend him, therefore, to the brethren of Fayetteville Presbytery, who will find him to be the same useful servant of the Master that he has been in our midst. Our earnest prayers will follow him in his new connection.

J. HARRY WHITMORE,
A. J. HOWELL,
A. J. MACQUEEN, Committee.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

Rev. M. C. Macqueen was elected chairman of the commission on the Minister and His Work, to fill out Dr. Storey's term until the spring of 1944.

Dr. Storey, as chairman of the commission appointed on Dec. 21st, 1942, to arrange for the transfer of members of the Sweet Home church, of Shallotte, to other churches of their choice, offered a report which was in part as follows:

Your chairman, with Mr. E. Norfleet and Mr. Irwin Rourk, a son of the Sweet Home church, visited Shallotte, secured the sessional records of the church, and visited a number of the members and former members of the church. We found its building had been sold and moved away. (This on account of its having been so long unused.)

The records were rather incomplete, and, so far as we could discover, there are only seven living members. Letters were written to each of these at their last known addresses. Only one reply has been received. This stated that the party had already joined another church on re-statement.

The chairman added further detailed information as to the members, and presented for filing with other records of the Presbytery the book of minutes of the session.

The report was duly approved and the commission dissolved.

Rev. D. L. Jones, chairman of the permanent committee on Christian Education and Ministerial Relief, presented the following paper:

Your committee on Christian Education and Ministerial Relief recommends: That William David Halyburton, member of the Winter Park church, be examined with a view to reception as a candidate for the Gospel ministry.

The same was duly adopted, and Mr. Jones informed the Presbytery that his committee had conformed to all requirements as to investigation of candidates for the ministry, and had obtained satisfactory information as to Mr. Halyburton. The latter was then examined as to experimental religion and motives for seeking the Gospel ministry. The examination being approved as satisfactory, he was received as a candidate in accordance with the Book of Church Order. It was therefore ordered that his name be enrolled, and that he be directed to pursue his studies under the direction of the committee of Christian Education and Ministerial Relief.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

By request, Rev. Andrew J. Howell delivered a charge to the candidate, and the exercises closed with prayer by Rev. M. J. Murray, the Moderator.

Rev. D. L. Jones presented report of the commission appointed at the regular spring meeting to install Rev. C. B. Craig as pastor of the Jacksonville church, as follows:

The commission appointed at the spring meeting to install Rev. Carl B. Craig as pastor of the Jacksonville church, met in that church on May 16, 1943, at 10:45 a. m. and, after prayer, was organized with Rev. J. R. Phipps as chairman and Rev. D. L. Jones as secretary.

The commission conducted the morning worship service with the chairman presiding. Rev. D. L. Jones preached the sermon from the text, 2 Cor. 3:1-3. Rev. J. R. Phipps propounded the constitutional questions and delivered a charge to the pastor. Ruling Elder Warren A. Smith delivered a charge to the congregation. Ruling Elder H. C. Sadler was the other member of the commission present.

Mr. Craig was declared to be the regularly installed pastor of the church.

After service and the approval of the minutes, the commission adjourned with prayer.

D. L. JONES, Secretary.

It was ordered that, when Presbytery adjourn, it be to meet in adjourned session in the Church of the Covenant, Wilmington, on Monday, June 21st, 1943, at 3 p. m.

The minutes were read and approved.

The Presbytery adjourned after prayer by Dr. J. H. Whitmore, in accordance with the suggestion of Ruling Elder Boylan, with special petition for the Lord's blessing and guidance for Dr. C. H. Storey as he will leave for his new work in the church at Aberdeen, Fayetteville Presbytery.

J. W. MILLER, Permanent Clerk.

ANDREW J. HOWELL, Stated Clerk.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

ADJOURNED MEETING

According to adjournment of May 24th, the Presbytery of Wilmington met in adjourned session at the Church of the Covenant, Wilmington, June 21, 1943, at 3 p. m. Rev. M. J. Murray, the Moderator, presided, and the meeting was constituted with prayer by Rev. J. R. Potts.

Rev. D. L. Jones was named Temporary Clerk.

The following members were enrolled:

Ministers: M. J. Murray, A. J. Howell, C. C. Myers, J. S. Crowley, D. L. Jones, G. A. Wilson, D. D., J. R. Potts, J. H. Whitmore, D. D., A. K. Dudley, B. E. Dotson, (10); Ruling Elders: F. L. Pearsall, Church of the Covenant; G. S. Boylan, St. Andrews, (2).

A certificate of dismissal was presented for Richard Rhea Gammon, a candidate for the ministry, from the Presbytery of East Hanover to Wilmington Presbytery. The same was found to be in order and accepted by the Presbytery; and, upon motion, Mr. Gammon was received as a candidate.

Mr. Gammon made application to be licensed as a probationer for the Gospel ministry; and Presbytery proceeded to examine him in accordance with requirements of the Book of Church Order. Evidence of graduation from Davidson college and Union Theological seminary was accepted in lieu of examination on academic and theological subjects specified; and the Presbytery examined him as to the English Bible, theology, the sacraments and church government; all of which examinations were declared to be satisfactory. The chairman of Presbytery's committee on Christian Education, Rev. D. L. Jones, presented papers containing a thesis, an exegesis and a popular lecture, with statement that the same had been carefully examined and approved; and the papers were thereupon accepted as satisfactory parts of trial.

Mr. Gammon delivered a sermon from the text, Isaiah 2:1-5, and the members of Presbytery severally voiced approval of the same; and the examination as a whole was approved as satisfactory.

Thereupon Presbytery proceeded to license Mr. Gammon in form provided; and his name was ordered to be enrolled as a licentiate. It was directed that the following record be made of the licensure, viz.:

At the Church of the Covenant, Wilmington, N. C., the 21st day of June, 1943, the Presbytery of Wilmington, having received testimonials commending Richard Rhea Gammon, and evidence of his being a communicant of the church, of his good moral character, and of his having pursued suitable courses of study, proceeded to submit him to the prescribed tests for licensure, which were met to the approval of the Presbytery. On his satisfactorily answering the questions appointed to be put to applicants for licensure, Mr. Gammon was licensed by the Presbytery to preach the Gospel as a probationer for the ministry within the bounds of this Presbytery, or wherever he shall in an orderly way be invited to preach.

Presbytery was informed that calls for the pastoral services of Mr. Gammon had been made by the Chinquapin and Bethel churches; and the following commission was named to ordain and install him, if the way be clear, on a date, or dates, to be selected by it, not sooner than sixty days from this day, viz.:

Revs. M. J. Murray, M. C. Macqueen, G. A. Wilson, D. D., D. L. Jones and E. B. Carr, and Ruling Elders W. B. Ward, Walter Lanier, and Dr. Wilbert Jackson, with Rev. John H. McKinnon, Jr., of Fayetteville Presbytery, as associate member; a quorum of the commission to be a quorum of Presbytery.

The parts to be taken were left to the pleasure of the commission.

Certificates of dismissal were presented for the following: Rev. Philip M. Cory from the Presbytery of Kanawha, and Rev. F. M. Bain from the Presbytery of Fayetteville. The certificates were declared to be in order.

The two brethren being present, they were examined on subjects named in Art. 74 of the Book of Church Order; and the examination was accepted as satisfactory. Upon motion, it was ordered that their names be enrolled as members of the Presbytery upon their signing the usual obligation.

By motion, Presbytery directed Mr. Cory to labor under the direction of its Home Mission committee, his special field to be in the area of the war emergency homes near the shipyards at Wilmington.

This represents an increase of $4.28 over the previous year, and was the largest increase in the Synod. Total per capita gifts for the Assembly amount to $24.94.

III. DEFENSE SERVICE COUNCIL OFFERINGS:

The Presbytery's quota of $2,275 for this cause has not yet been met in full. $1,477 was received through the Mother's Day offerings, leaving an unpaid balance of $822.

IV. HOME MISSION EMERGENCY FUND (1942):

The quota of $6,000 for the Emergency Fund and Defense Service Council was raised in full according to reports from the various churches.

V. EVERY MEMBER CANVASS:

On the basis of reports received, the churches in the Presbytery having a canvass represent 82.18% of the membership of the Presbytery. This compares favorably with the percentage of 78.40% in 1942, but unfavorably with the 86.93% for the Assembly as a whole. There were twenty-three churches which did not report a canvass. These are: Stanford, Mt. Williams, Antioch, Pink Hill, Smiths, Hebron, Calypso, Brown Marsh, Grove, Hallsville, Beulaville, Beth Car, Oakdale, Black River, South River, Harmony, Chinquapin, Bethel, New Hope, Southport, Maple Hill, and Woodburn.

VI. RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That all ministers give careful study to the report of the Assembly's standing committee on Stewardship and Finance as found on pages 62-67 of the 1943 Assembly Minutes, sharing this study with their elders and deacons.
2. That Sunday, March 5th, 1944, be designated as Every-Member-Canvass Sunday in the Presbytery, and that every congregation be urged to raise in full the quota assigned for benevolences, as well as the budget for local expense.
3. That March 26, 1944, be observed as "Pay-Up-Day" when all members are expected to complete the payment of pledges made for the church year.
4. That churches be urged to accept the quotas recommended by the Presbytery, and to adhere strictly to the percentages adopted by the Presbytery in the distribution of benevolences among the several causes.
5. That Presbytery endorse the second step in the Home Mission Emergency campaign of raising $250,000, and $85,000 Self-Denial offering, a total of $335,000; and that the assignment of $4,782 to the Presbytery be accepted and apportioned among the churches. ($2,218 was added to this last amount by action of the Presbytery. See table.)
6. That our regular benevolent budget for the year 1944-45 be $53,121; and that this amount be apportioned to the churches on the same basis as was previously adopted by the Presbytery.

The Presbytery heard reports from the commissioners to the General Assembly of May, 1943: verbally from Revs. M. C. Macqueen and J. W. Miller and Ruling Elder H. T. Wilson; and by letter from Rev. B. L. Rose and Ruling Elder F. L. Pearsall. The reports were accepted and the diligence of the commissioners commended.

A brief recess was taken.

A program in observance of the seventy-fifth anniversary of the Presbytery was observed, with Rev. Andrew J. Howell, chairman of the permanent committee on History, presiding.

After singing of the hymn "I Love Thy Kingdom, Lord", and a prayer by Rev. P. L. Clark, Mr. Howell read the following historical sketch:

WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

Some of the Presbyterian churches of southeastern North Carolina were from the earliest years attached to the Presbytery of Orange, and later to the Presbytery of Fayetteville. The history and traditions, therefore, of those Presbyteries are cherished by the older churches of Wilmington Presbytery, which was set off from Fayetteville Presbytery. The two old mother Presbyteries are rich in the records of the earliest Presbyterian settlements of North Carolina; in a large part of which the Presbytery of Wilmington has a rightful place.

It is of particular interest to note that it was within the bounds of Wilmington Presbytery that the first Presbyterian church was established in North Carolina. This was the Goshen Grove (now Grove) church in Duplin county, which had its beginning in 1736 among the Scotch-Irish Presbyterians who settled there in that year. The first records of that church are not extant, but circumstantial evidence fixes the time as doubtless correct for establishment of the church. There is also evidence that the Scotch settlers who came through Wilmington established the Black River church in 1740. The Rockfish church dates its beginning in 1756, with the pioneer missionary, Rev. Hugh McAden, as its minister. The Presbyterians of Wilmington had some sort of co-operation in 1760, when the Rev. James Tate was employed as a teacher. He also engaged in pastoral work in the town and in the surrounding country.

Fayetteville Presbytery, which was formed in 1813, extended over a very large territory; and in the course of time it was seen that there was need for much missionary work in the counties surrounding Wilmington. The Presbytery considered how best to face the situation and provide for the work that was sorely needed. The regular churches in the Wilmington district were increasing in number, and there was a company of able ministers and ruling elders who were capable of forming and managing the affairs of a new Presbytery, which might have direct oversight of the spiritual interests of their neighborhood. Therefore, Fayetteville Presbytery, at a meeting held in Rockfish church, Duplin county, on November 17-20, 1868, adopted a petition to the Synod of North Carolina to set off the new Presbytery, to be known as Wilmington Presbytery.

The Synod met in the First Presbyterian church, Wilmington, on November 20, 1868, and granted the petition, and directed certain men to meet in Wilmington on November 21st to arrange the organization of the new Presbytery. The meeting was held at the home of Patrick Murphy, Esq., on North Fourth street near Market, and the organization was perfected.

The minutes of the meeting show the following members:

Ministers: H. A. Munroe, James Kelly, Colin Shaw, S. C. Alexander, D. B. Black, H. L. Singleton, B. F. Marable, Luther McKinnon, J. M. Sprunt and S. H. Isler; Ruling Elders: Dr. Neill Graham, J. C. Smith, James Garrison, J. W. Wright, B. F. Sanders, Dr. C. T. Murphy, J. H. Murphy, S. Player and W. K. Cromartie.

The following officers were elected: Rev. Colin Shaw, Moderator; Rev. Luther McKinnon, Stated Clerk; Ruling Elder J. C. Smith, Treasurer.

There were enrolled in the Presbytery ten ministers, three licentiates and 25 churches. Information as to the number of communicants is not now available. The first meeting was only for organization and consideration of the Presbytery's prospective work.

The next meeting was held in Clinton on April 1-3, 1869; and the minutes show that the Presbytery was full of zeal for entering upon its activities. A good missionary spirit was evident. Attention was given to the support of foreign missions, and a clear note was sounded for the work of home missions within the bounds of the Presbytery. The following resolution was passed:

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

"Resolved— That this Presbytery, in view of the great destitution that exists in it, enjoins upon its ministers to spend as much of their time as possible in evangelical labors, and pledges itself to support with whatever means there is in its power all who are successfully engaged in evangelical labors within its bounds."

At the next meeting, which was held in South River church, September, 1869, this record was made:

"The roll of ministers was called to ascertain if they had, in obedience to the injunction of Presbytery, spent as much of their time as possible in evangelical labors. The result showed that the injunction had been generally complied with."

Also at that meeting it was recorded that $750 was authorized to employ a missionary in the Presbytery "to labor in the eastern part for one year". Rev. H. B. Burr, of Baltimore Presbytery, was appointed to this work, and Rev. Archibald McFadyen was named as alternate.

The Presbytery endorsed the action of the General Assembly to raise the salary of every minister to $750 a year. This indicates the fact that ministers in former years were faithful to duty under stringent financial handicaps. Many of them, however, had small farms to supplement their living.

At the Clinton meeting the Presbytery considered the matter of urging the churches to adopt "the weekly system of contributions by the envelope plan". This carries its own comment as to the growth of financial strength during the years following.

Mr. Burr did not continue as home missionary for a long period, and was soon engaged in work in Wilmington, in the Second (now St. Andrews) church and at the Seamen's Bethel. Rev. S. C. Alexander was then chosen as evangelist for the Presbytery. He is said to have been an able minister and "a most ardent advocate of evangelistic work". He had already served as evangelist, of Fayetteville Presbytery, in this section since 1859. He was now to continue his labors until 1875, when he removed to Mecklenburg Presbytery. He was long gratefully remembered by the older people of the Presbytery, particularly in the congregations of Black River, South River and Topsail churches, in which he spent much time.

Other early members of the Presbytery also devoted much effort in constructive work within its bounds, and many of the Presbyterian churches of the present day owe their existence to their aggressive work, and around their names cluster many sacred memories. It is to be regretted, however, that several of the churches mentioned in former minutes of the Presbytery, especially in the extreme eastern section, no longer exist.

The first new church established by Wilmington Presbytery was at Whiteville, in 1869, and that church entertained Presbytery at its "third" meeting in April, 1870.

Thus Wilmington Presbytery was well on its way and growing.

We may now advance the brief sketch of the Presbytery to the beginning of its second quarter of a century.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

The statistical report to the Synod in the spring of 1893 showed that Wilmington Presbytery had forty-two churches, with an aggregate membership of 1602. It enrolled thirteen ministers, one licentiate, and seven candidates.

At that time there is noted a marked interest in foreign missions. The Synod had a special agent, Rev. T. R. Sampson, who labored to waken the churches to that cause. He devoted six weeks to Wilmington Presbytery, visiting 23 churches and delivering 28 addresses to them and 14 to women's societies. The 42 churches of the Presbytery reported contributions amounting to $3069 to that cause for the year. The women's foreign missionary organization, or "Union", in the Presbytery, which was organized in the First church, Wilmington, on March 2, 1888, reported that during the year before sixteen societies had made contributions to the salaries of missionaries.

The home missions work of the Presbytery also received special attention, although on a smaller scale. Contributions for that cause during the year amounted to about $925. This was used to supplement the salaries of pastors in home mission fields. At that time there was much interest taken in developing the opportunities in Brunswick county and in the then busy town of Acme. Churches were soon organized in that field, as well as in other parts of the Presbytery.

In the spring of 1918, which was the beginning of the next twenty-five years of the life of Wilmington Presbytery, there were enrolled twenty-one ministers and eleven candidates for the ministry. The churches numbered sixty-two, and there were 6,235 members. Notwithstanding the distraction of the World War, the churches reported that during the year just ended they had received 304 members on profession of faith and 280 on certificate. The Sunday schools had an enrollment of 4,469.

Missionary interest was large. To foreign missions was given the sum of $18,442 for the year, and to Presbytery's home missions $3,000 besides nearly $75,000 shown for this cause as contributions from the First church and St. Andrews church, Wilmington. This latter was for new church construction in the city, and mostly represented large gifts on the part of two ruling elders. Considerable gifts were continued by those elders.

During the year additional churches had been organized, to the great pleasure of the Presbytery. They were: Elkton, Beula-ville, Pink Hill and the Church of the Covenant. The fact is, this period was one of great spiritual advance and encouragement, and was blessed with fine results for the Presbytery. A spirit of evangelism prevailed, and the minutes show that practically every minister of the Presbytery was assigned to hold evangelistic meetings in churches designated for him. These meetings are still fresh in the memory of those who took part in them.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

At the fall meeting of the Presbytery, held in the Rockfish church, an impressive program was observed in celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of its organization. Hearty thanks were given for the Lord's guidance and help during the half-century of the work of the Presbytery. The celebration was appropriately held in that church, for it was there that steps were inaugurated for the establishment of Wilmington Presbytery.

Since this 1918 meeting, many changes have naturally occurred in the Presbytery; in the dominant subjects engaging its attention, in the scale of financial undertakings, to some extent in the type of leading ministers, in plans for enlargement, etc. These changes increase our opportunities for service, and broaden the fields that lie open before us.

This seventy-fifth anniversary occasion is fixed for the regular session of the Presbytery nearest the date of its organization, November 21st. It is of special interest to note that the meeting is held in the church where the Synod met and authorized the formation of the Presbytery. Rockfish church, of course, shares this interest.

Long ago the last original member of Wilmington Presbytery passed away, but it is interesting to know that the life span of many members of its churches cover the whole existence of the Presbytery. From their childhood to the mellow light of their sunset days they have fed their souls on the ministry of many a beloved pastor. The greater part of the ministers they have known have passed on to their reward. A large number of faithful Presbyters, or ruling elders, have also gone on, having left the touch of their consecrated hands upon head and heart and hand of those who remember them.

From the borders of the Presbytery twenty-two foreign missionaries have gone out. Thus its influence has been carried to many lands. And many of its ministers have been dismissed to enter places of prominent service in the activities of the church elsewhere. If the Presbytery can catch inspiration for work from the earnest and self-sacrificing labors of those who long since spent their lives and energies in developing the Presbyterian constituency of our part of North Carolina, its present members should be workers who need not be ashamed. There is still much work to be done.

The field is clearly laid out before us. The needed facilities are in our hands. The people are always ready to respond to efforts which are marked by evidence of the Lord's power to save and up-build. We have forty-two ministers, sixty-eight churches and 8,731 members, with an abundance of financial resources, a stirring historical background, and a challenge ever before us to strive for larger achievements. Opportunities for enlargement face every congregation in the Presbytery.

Let us cling to what we have as a sacred trust, and not relinquish our hold upon any church which has been established, however small it might be, but make of every one a bastion for a large assault upon the forces of indifference and the chilling air of worldliness and sin. Earnest men, with the Lord's help, build the church. They have the promise of the Lord to be with them, and that promise cannot fail.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

Rev. P. L. Clark read transcripts from the first records of the Presbytery; following which brief addresses as to the significance of the occasion and inspiration to be gathered for future work and growth were delivered by Rev. J. M. Wells, D. D., L. L.D., Rev. William Crowe, Jr., D. D., Rev. G. A. Wilson, D. D., and Rev. A. J. Howell.

The hour of commemoration closed with the singing of the hymn "O, God of Bethel By Whose Hand."

Rev. David W. Moody, of Lyons Presbytery, U. S. A., was introduced and invited to sit as a visiting brother.

After announcements and a prayer, recess was taken until the evening hour.

TUESDAY EVENING

A service of worship was held with special thought of the tercentennial of the Westminster Assembly. Rev. William Crowe, Jr., D. D., presided and prayer was made by Rev. Andrew J. Howell. Appropriate selections of music were offered.

The speaker of the evening, Dr. J. M. Wells, was presented by Mr. Howell. The address delivered by Dr. Wells was on the subject of "The Westminster Assembly and the Church of Today". It presented a stirring appeal for the modern church to be guided by the fundamental truths and enactments set forth by the Assembly.

After announcements by Dr. Crowe and a prayer, the special program concluded, and the Presbytery was called to order by the Moderator, Mr. Dudley.

Rev. G. A. Wilson, D. D., Superintendent of Home Missions, presented a petition signed by twenty-nine residents of Carolina Beach, requesting that they be organized as a Presbytery church. After hearing remarks on the subject, Presbytery, on motion, granted the request and authorized the appointment of a commission to effect the organization. (The commission was later announced.)

The following members were enrolled: Ruling Elders J. F. Davis, Bladenboro, and A. H. Marks, Acme. After prayer, the meeting adjourned for the day.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Your committee in making its report to Presbytery desires to record its deep sense of gratitude to God for His blessings upon this work. We note with satisfaction that the records show a slight increase in the Sunday School enrollment of Wilmington Presbytery for the past year although for the Synod and Assembly as a whole there was a decrease. Also in the matter of outpost Sunday Schools this Presbytery has led the Presbyteries of the Synod: four have been organized in the last six months making a total of fifteen within our bounds.

We are deeply concerned however that more has not been accomplished. In certain areas of our Presbytery the population has doubled and trebled presenting tremendous needs and opportunities. We feel that the adverse conditions of Sunday work, prohibition on travel, the absence of so many in the armed forces, conditions in the homes and the demoralizing conditions of war should be a challenge to all of us to put forth renewed efforts in this all important field of work.

The annual meeting of the committee was held at St. Andrews Presbyterian Church January 19th. with fourteen members present. This was a luncheon meeting affording ample time for a careful review of the work and the discussion of plans for the future.

Your committee also sponsored a retreat for the ministers for the purpose of making plans for the launching of the second year of the United Religious Education Advance. This was held at the Church of the Covenant July 13th, with between fifteen and twenty present. We believe this will have favorable bearing upon the work for the months to follow.

Your chairman attended the annual meeting of the Synod's committee of R. E. held at Montreat in May and also the conference of synodical and presbyterial chairman in this area of the church called to hear reports on the first year of the Advance and to lay plans for the second year; also meetings of subcommittees held at various times and places.

With this general introduction let us now turn to the work in detail as contained in the reports of the chairmen of the various divisions:

CHILDREN'S DIVISION:—Rev. M. J. Murray, Chairman. Thirty Vacation Bible schools have been reported for this year as having been held in the Presbytery. It is probable that other schools not reported have been held. The number of pastorless churches and the fact that no workers were provided this year by Synod's Committee accounts in part for the smaller number of schools held. In the thirty schools held there was an enrollment of 1675 children and 241 workers making a total of 1916 taking part.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

YOUNG PEOPLE'S DIVISION:— Rev. M. C. Macqueen, chairman. Two meetings of the Y. P. Council of the Presbytery have been held. The Synod's Davidson Conference could not be held on account of war conditions. The Presbytery's Conference usually held at Peace College was held this year at Flora Macdonald College in conjunction with Fayetteville Presbytery. 115 young people from Wilmington Presbytery attended this Conference.

ORGANIZATION AND EXTENSION:— Rev. J. R. Kennedy, chairman. Reports for the church year ending March 31st, 1943, show eleven outpost Sunday Schools with an enrollment of 709. Five of these are under the supervision of the First Church, Wilmington. The others are under the direction of the following churches: Rose Hill, Jacksonville. Wallace, Pleasant View, Westminster and St. Andrews. The Brunswick outpost under the supervision of Westminster Church was organized January, 1943, with an enrollment of 144, which is the largest enrollment reported. Since the beginning of the new church year there have been four new outposts organized in the Defense Areas. These are located at Cherry Point, New River, and two at Maffitt Village. Thus with outposts with possibly 1000 enrolled Wilmington Presbytery leads the entire Synod both in number of schools and enrollment. However with still approximately 50% of our population untouched by Religious Education there is need for larger and more rapid extension. Each session of the local churches should survey the surrounding territory to discover the possibility of beginning new work.

LEADERSHIP TRAINING:—Rev. J. W. Miller, chairman. Reports show that very few training classes have been held during the year and no leadership schools. Bladenboro held a class with an enrollment of six. Others are planning to have classes during the fall and winter.

ADULT WORK:—Rev. D. L. Jones, chairman. There is no special report from this department.

BIBLE IN PUBLIC SCHOOL:— Dr. Wm. Crowe, Jr., chairman. At present the Bible is being taught in the public schools of the following towns - Wilmington, Clinton, Whiteville, Chadbourn and Jacksonville.

We would call the attention of the Presbytery to the plans for the second year of the Advance. The first year was devoted largely to laying the foundation for a general advance along all lines in Christian teaching. It has been difficult to evaluate the results but the rather meager reports received seem to indicate that there has been a quickening of interest in this important work and a renewed sense of responsibility. In the Second Year of the Advance emphasis will be laid upon "Christian Teaching in the Home". This is a matter of very far reaching importance because the home is fundamental. It is hoped that every church will make a definite effort to bring its homes to a higher Christian standard.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That all churches join in the United Religious Education Advance and put the emphasis this year on developing the Christian home.
2. That a Young People's Conference be held next June, all arrangements for which shall be left to the subcommittee on Young People's Work.
3. That all churches be urged to stress the importance of Leadership Training and plan to hold classes wherever possible.
4. That every church be urged to hold a Vacation Bible School next year.
5. That ministers seek to introduce the teaching of the Bible into the public schools as a means of strengthening the moral standards of youth.
6. That ministers give attention to holding retreats for the elders and deacons to better fit them for their high responsibility.
7. That all churches be urged to observe Young People's night on November 14th., 1943.
8. That all Sunday Schools be requested to take a special offering for Vacation Bible School work in our Synod on Sunday, April 17th., 1944.
9. That all churches be urged to send in the full 3.5% of all benevolent funds to the Synod's Religious Education Committee; this is the proportion allotted to this cause.

Pending the adoption of the report, Rev. M. C. Macqueen, chairman of the Young People's Division, spoke with reference to subjects under the direction of his committee.

The Moderator announced the appointment of the following commission to organize the church authorized at Carolina Beach:

Revs. William Crowe, Jr., D. D., F. S. Johnston, A. J. Howell, G. A. Wilson, D. D., and J. H. Whitmore, D. D.; and Ruling Elders H. T. Wilson, J. K. Bannerman, G. L. Mitchell and Dr. J. E. Evans.

Rev. J. R. Kennedy offered the following overture to the General Assembly:

The Presbytery of Wilmington would respectfully overture the General Assembly at Montreat, N. C., in May, 1944, to arrange for a series of addresses in connection with the tercentenary celebration of the Westminster Assembly, to be delivered on the program of the Montreat summer conferences, and so spaced on the program as to reach the greatest number of people, and to be published as those in 1897.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

Upon motion, this was referred to the committee on Bills and Overtures.

11:00 a. m. By appointment, Rev. Carl B. Craig delivered a forceful sermon on the subject of "The Inspiration of the Scriptures" from the text, II Tim. 3:16.

Upon its conclusion, a motion suggested by Dr. J. M. Wells that Mr. Craig send to the Stated Clerk a copy of the sermon, to be transmitted for publication in one of our church journals, was adopted by a rising vote.

In the absence of the chairman, a report for the permanent committee on Educational Institutions was made by Rev. J. H. Whitmore, D. D. Pending the approval of the report, Presbytery heard an address in the interest of Flora Macdonald college by Rev. H. G. Bedinger, D. D., President. Information was furnished by Dr. Whitmore from communications received from the Assembly's Training school, Flora Macdonald college and Peace Junior college. The report was by vote approved.

Rev. G. A. Wilson, D. D., presented a map and information relative to the work for the benefit of our soldiers and marines within the bounds of the Synod of North Carolina.

The Stated Clerk read a letter from Rev. A. D. P. Gilmour, D. D., pastor emeritus of the First Presbyterian church, requesting a certificate of dismission to the Presbytery of Potomac. The same was authorized, with the request that the Stated Clerk direct a letter of sympathy for Dr. Gilmour in his impaired health, and conveying the good wishes of the Presbytery and its appreciation of his long connection with it.

Dr. William Crowe, Jr., chairman of Presbytery's Home Missions committee, made report containing the following recommendations:

1. That the Presbytery approve a projected plan for Presbyterian development in the bounds of the Presbytery which will involve an expenditure of $25,000 for the year beginning February 1, 1944; $20,000 of this to be used for meeting the needs of the increased population in the Wilmington area created by the war emergency, and $5,000 in other congested localities in the Presbytery.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

This recommendation includes the plan to put a $10,000 church building at Carolina Beach and to engage five women visitors at $1,500 each per year and a city missionary at $2,500. The carrying out of this plan is contingent upon the willingness of the Assembly's Emergency Fund committee to grant from $10,000 to $15,000 for this work and upon the ability of the Presbytery to get the remainder of the funds necessary.

2. That the Presbytery approve the Assembly's Emergency Fund quota of $4,782 assigned to the Presbytery; and that $2,218 be added to the quota, the additional sum to be used by the Presbytery in carrying out the plan described in the first recommendation; and that the entire $7,000 be asked of the churches in a single appeal in November and allocated by the Stewardship committee.

The recommendations were adopted.

After hearing announcements, Presbytery recessed for luncheon, to re-assemble at 2 p. m.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

2:00 p. m. Presbytery reconvened and was led in prayer by Rev. J. R. Kennedy and Rev. C. B. Craig.

Rev. William Crowe, Jr., D. D., chairman, continued the report of his committee, making special reference to the projected raising of $7,000 for the war emergency fund, as adopted at the morning session; the contributions for this object to be sent to the Presbytery's treasurer of benevolences, Mr. R. M. Sheppard. The Chairman also made an appeal to the churches to endeavor to reclaim for active membership many who have been placed on the retired rolls; and also, in preaching, that our ministers lay stress upon our Presbyterian standards of belief. The report as a whole was accepted.

Rev. M. C. Macqueen, chairman of the standing committee on Bills and Overtures, made report recommending approval by the Presbytery of the following enactments sent down by the General Assembly of May, 1943:

Proposed Amendments to the Confession of Faith and Catechisms,

Proposed Amendments to the Book of Church Order,

Proposed Revision of the Book of Church Order; and also the adoption of the suggested overture to the General Assembly with reference to a program in the interest of the centennial of the Westminster Assembly to be offered at the Montreat conferences during the summer of 1944.

The report of the committee was duly adopted.

Upon motion, the Presbytery gave approval to a suggested plan for a conference of elders and deacons to be held in connection with the spring meeting of 1944. Revs. William Crowe, Jr., D. D., D. L. Jones and B. F. Ormand, Jr., were named to serve as a committee of arrangements for the conference.

Presbytery noted the absence of a large number of ruling elders, especially the representatives who left after the first day's session. Therefore, by vote, the Stated

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

Clerk was requested to direct a letter prior to the spring meeting urging the attendance of representatives of the churches and the importance of remaining throughout the sessions. It was also requested that the retiring Moderator, at the beginning of the meeting, stress the desire of the Presbytery that this interest be shown.

CANDIDATES FOR THE MINISTRY

Edward J. Humphrey, Daniel D. Rhodes, William Lee Paden, Jr., Malcolm Chester McIver, Jr., Scott York Pharr, Daniel Burke Kerr, Robert Willis Pope, Jerry M. Newbold, (8).

CALLED MEETING

The Presbytery of Wilmington met in called session at the Church of the Covenant, Wilmington, N. C., at 3:30 p. m. Sunday, January 30, 1944, with the Moderator, Rev. A. K. Dudley, in the chair.

The meeting was constituted with prayer by Rev. J. H. Whitmore, D. D., and the following members were enrolled:

Ministers: J. H. Whitmore, D. D., A. J. Howell, William Crowe, Jr., D. D., G. A. Wilson, D. D., J. R. Kennedy, A. K. Dudley, (6); Ruling Elders: D. C. Whitted, Wilmington First; G. S. Boylan, St. Andrews; G. G. Murray, Winter Park; W. P. Sprunt, Church of Covenant, (4).

Wilmington, N. C., January 17, 1944.

The constitutional requirements having been met, Wilmington Presbytery is hereby called to meet in Wilmington, N. C., at the Church of the Covenant January 30, 1944, at 3:30 p. m. Purposes of the meeting as follows:

1. To receive and arrange for the installation of new ministers.
2. To examine for licensure and ordination candidate David Worth Sprunt as an evangelist, preparatory to immediate naval chaplaincy.
3. To attend to any business that the Home Missions committee may have to present.

Rev. John Knox Bowling, D. D., of the Presbytery of Mangum, was introduced and invited to sit as a visiting brother.

Dr. Bowling presented a certificate from the Presbytery of Mangum dismissing him to the Presbytery of Wilmington. The same was found in order and received, pending the required examination. The examination being had and declared to be satisfactory, he was received as a member of Wilmington Presbytery and his name ordered to be enrolled upon his signing the usual obligation.

A letter was received from the Stated Clerk of Mangum Presbytery, commending Dr. Bowling, after eleven years of useful service in that Presbytery, to the Presbytery of Wilmington.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

Rev. A. K. Dudley, on behalf of the commission on the Minister and His Work, presented a call from St. Andrews church, Wilmington, for the pastoral services of Dr. Bowling, and the same was found in order and placed in his hands. Upon his signifying his acceptance of the call, the following commission was appointed to install him at 5 p. m. Sunday, February 20, 1944, viz.:

Revs. J. H. Whitmore, D. D., G. A. Wilson, D. D., William Crowe, Jr., D. D., and J. L. Fairly, D. D., with Ruling Elders G. S. Boylan and F. L. Pearsall. Associate members, former pastors of the church—Revs. J. E. Purcell, D. D., C. H. Storey, D. D., and F. W. Lewis, D. D. Any two ministers and one ruling elder of the commission to constitute a quorum. Parts to be taken were left to the pleasure of the commission.

Candidate David Worth Sprunt was present as an applicant for licensure and ordination, and the Presbytery proceeded to examine him in accordance with the requirements of the Book of Church Order.

Evidence of graduation from Davidson college and Union Theological seminary was accepted in lieu of examination on certain academic and theological subjects specified; and various other parts of trial were submitted to the candidate and severally accepted as satisfactory.

In connection therewith, Presbytery voted approval of the following papers offered by Mr. Sprunt: a thesis, an exegesis, a popular lecture and a sermon. As to the sermon, Mr. Sprunt was requested to deliver same at a service of public worship to be held in the Church of the Covenant at 5 p. m. today.

The examination as a whole was, by vote, approved.

Mr. Sprunt, having expressed his desire and purpose to serve as a chaplain in the U. S. navy, the Presbytery, upon motion, accepted the examination for licensure as sufficient for ordination as an evangelist, with a view to his laboring within the bounds of this Presbytery or wherever he may be assigned to serve; and appointed the hour of worship heretofore mentioned for the ordination exercises.

Recess was taken after prayer by Rev. G. A. Wilson, D. D.

5 p. m. The hour having arrived, a service of divine worship was conducted by the pastor of the church, Rev.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

J. H. Whitmore, D. D., who made remarks relative to Mr. Sprunt's heritage of faith and service from a family of outstanding Christian usefulness. Reference was also made to the proceedings of the Presbytery preparatory to the ordination. Rev. J. K. Bowling, D. D., offered prayer.

Mr. Sprunt, as requested by the Presbytery, delivered a sermon on Christian service based upon a passage from the book of Ezekiel. Upon motion, Presbytery voted further hearty approval of the same, and proceeded to the exercises of ordination.

The required questions were propounded to the candidate by the Moderator, Mr. Dudley, and were answered affirmatively. Mr. Sprunt thereupon knelt, and, with the laying on of the hands of the Presbytery, he was, with prayer offered by Rev. Andrew J. Howell, solemnly set apart to the Gospel ministry. The members of Presbytery gave him the right hand of fellowship.

A helpful charge was delivered to the new minister by Rev. J. K. Bowling, D. D.

Upon motion, the Presbytery gave Mr. Sprunt the desired authority to labor as an evangelist within the bounds of this Presbytery, or wherever duty in our armed forces might call him.

After the reading and approval of the minutes and prayer, the meeting adjourned.

ANDREW J. HOWELL, Stated Clerk.

This, however, is a date shown in connection with the beginning of a "Union" of another Presbytery. Our date should be May 30, 1888.

He informed Presbytery that the congregations of the two churches had held regular congregational meetings and voted to concur with him in requesting the dissolution. It was ordered that, when Presbytery adjourns, it be to meet in adjourned session in the Church of the Covenant, Wilmington, on Tuesday, May 30th, 1944, at 11 a. m.

Rev. J. R. Phipps, on behalf of the permanent committee on Woman's Work, stated that there was no regular report to make; but the following informing report from Mrs. Newton Robinson, president of the Presbyterian Auxiliary, was accepted for record, viz.:

WOMAN'S WORK OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY 1943-1944

The reports asked for by the Woman's Work committee for this year were very brief. A few facts can be given to help indicate the type of work for this year. The number of members reported 2,687—a decrease of 15. The total gifts $20,495.00—an increase of $2,230.00. The Kiangyin fund was well supported. This fund was placed with the Foreign Missions committee to be used for establishing new work after the war.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

$282.00 was given to help furnish the Jacksonville recreation hall. About one third of the auxiliaries contributed. A large number of the auxiliaries support similar work in their local churches. A large amount of defense service work is done by the churches adjacent to camps. The Wilmington churches do an outstanding work along this line. 5,000 testaments were given to men on boats by the auxiliaries of Wilmington.

The auxiliaries were 100% in gifts to the birthday objective, this the 10th year.

The women give their loyal support to the Home Mission Emergency fund campaign each year. They help see that their church's quota is raised.

The spiritual development of the women is indicated by these known facts;

- Increase in number using Day By Day

- More intercessory prayers

- More group praying

- More inter-denominational cooperation

- More race cooperation, helping negro women with literature, delegates to conference, and Daily Vacation Bible school

- More interest in spiritual things evidenced by attendance at Montreat ATS, days of prayer, and Presbyterial

- More auxiliaries working for Bible in public schools.

The hardships that women are undergoing on account of the war, due to transportation, long hours of work, etc., have a tendency to hinder their service. On the other hand, this has a tendency to bind all hearts together in feeling their need of spiritual help.

(MRS. NEWTON) MARY L. ROBINSON,
Presbyterial President.

Upon motion by Rev. B. F. MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

Rev. P. M. Cory, chairman of the standing committee on Resolution of Thanks, presented the following paper, which was adopted by a standing vote:

To the Members of the Warsaw Presbyterian Church:

We are grateful to God for the spirit of hospitable love and service which He has given this church and developed so richly during its sixty years of growth in grace and the knowledge of Him.

It has been a rare privilege to hold our Presbytery in your beautiful sanctuary; to visit in your gracious homes, and to enjoy the fine fellowship your church has provided us. To your pastor, your women, and your officers for having thought so thoroughly of all our needs and pleasure, and provided so amply and hospitably, we give our sincere gratitude.

We wish to thank each of you of Warsaw for making our stay in your beautiful town so enjoyable. We shall be looking forward with eager anticipation to our next opportunity of coming back to your midst.

Yours in His service,

PHILIP M. CORY, Chairman,
RICHARD R. GAMMON,
W. D. HERRING.

Ruling Elders: J. B. Huntington, Church of the Covenant; O. H. Shoemaker, St. Andrews; Melzar Pearsall, Pearsall Memorial; D. M. McIntosh, Wilmington First, (4).

The Moderator's call for the meeting was read as follows:

The constitutional requirements having been met, I hereby call a meeting of Wilmington Presbytery to be held at St. Andrews Presbyterian church, Wilmington, N. C., at 12:00 o'clock noon Saturday, May 20th, 1944, for the following purpose—

To act on petition for the merger of St. Andrews Presbyterian Church and the Church of the Covenant, of Wilmington, N. C.

To act on the requests of Dr. J. H. Whitmore and Dr. John Knox Bowling for the dissolution of their pastoral relationship with these two churches.

To act on any other matters arising out of the two foregoing items

(Signed) J. A. Boyd,

Moderator of Wilmington Presbytery.

May 10th, 1944.

Upon motion, the call was found to be in order, and the Moderator declared that the meeting was ready for business.

Dr. Bowling presented the following members of a joint committee named by the sessions of St. Andrews church and the Church of the Covenant to present the indicated business, viz.; W. P. Sprunt, Dr. J. E. Evans, L. E. Hall, (of the Church of the Covenant), and O. H. Shoemaker and J. K. Bannerman, (of St. Andrews church). By vote, these gentlemen were given the privileges of the floor.

Mr. Sprunt read a petition signed by the above joint committee (together with F. L. King, also a member but not present), in behalf of the sessions and congregations of the two churches, requesting the proposed merger, and furnishing information regarding the arrangements made as to the present pastors, who had offered their resignations to their congregations.

The Moderator offered a prayer for Divine guidance in the handling of the matters involved.

Rev. F. S. Johnston offered a motion that a decision regarding the proposed merger, and questions associated therewith, be postponed until the adjourned meeting of Presbytery to be held on May 30th, 1944; and that a committee be named by the Presbytery to make a study of the situation and report at said meeting. After a general discussion of the subject, the motion prevailed.

Meantime, E. Norfleet, a ruling elder of St. Andrews church, was accorded the privileges of the floor, and presented a petition with signatures of 182 members of that church, requesting that Presbytery do not take steps to dissolve their church. This incidental presentation also drew forth some discussion.

Presbytery, in due course, on nomination by Rev. F. S. Johnston, appointed the following committee to study the subject further and present a report at the adjourned meeting, viz., Rev. M. C. Macqueen, Rev. A. K. Dudley, Rev. William Crowe, Jr., D.D., Rev. P. L. Clark, Dr. Wilbert Jackson, Melzar Pearsall and Harry Wettig.

As to the resignation of the two pastors concerned, it was decided by general consent that this second object in the call for the meeting be held in abeyance until the subject of the proposed merger is again considered on May 30th.

The meeting adjourned after prayer; the minutes to be presented at the forthcoming adjourned meeting.

J. W. MILLER, Permanent Clerk.

ANDREW J. HOWELL, Stated Clerk.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

A communication was read from Ruling Elder J. B. Huntington, chairman of the special committee appointed at the spring meeting to arrange for another conference next spring for the Elders and Deacons of the Presbytery. The letter requested that the conference be held instead at the fall meeting in the evening of the first day, and that the same be designated as "Officers' Hour". The request was approved as an order of Presbytery for the docket.

Rev. J. K. Bowling, D.D., introduced members of the joint committee representing St. Andrews church and the Church of the Covenant appointed to prosecute the subject of the proposed merger of these two churches. Upon motion, these gentlemen were granted the privileges of the floor.

Rev. D. L. Jones, chairman of the permanent committee on Christian Education and Ministerial Relief, presented James Albert Jerritt, a member of Grove Presbyterian church, Kenansville, N. C., who made application to be received as a candidate for the Gospel ministry. Mr. Jones furnished information as to the young man's credentials and his own personal examination of him as to his fitness for the ministry. Mr. Jerritt was also examined by the Presbytery as to his religious experience and his motives for seeking the Gospel ministry. The examination as a whole being approved as satisfactory, Presbytery voted to receive him as a candidate. The constitutional questions were propounded by the Moderator, who also led in prayer for the young man.

Upon motion, it was ordered that Mr. Jerritt's name be enrolled on the Presbytery's list of candidates.

Rev. Wade C. Smith, of St. Johns Presbytery, was introduced to the Presbytery and invited to sit as a visiting brother.

The special committee appointed at the called meeting of May 20th, to study the subject of the proposed merger of St Andrews church and the Church of the Covenant, presented, through Rev. M. C. Macqueen, chairman, a written report suggesting a postponement of decision regarding the proposed merger.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

A motion to adopt same was made and seconded, and a general discussion of the subject followed.

A substitute motion was offered by Rev. G. A. Wilson, D.D., with amendment suggested by Rev. A. K. Dudley; the same being as follows:

That Presbytery unite St. Andrews church and the Church of the Covenant on the plan approved by the two congregations in congregational meetings; and that the united churches be directed to appoint a committee to plan a Presbyterian work in the northern section of the city to co-operate with a committee from the Presbytery on this business; and that members of the minority that voted in the St. Andrews congregational meeting be represented on this committee.

The motion prevailed by a majority vote.

Upon request, Dr. Wilson offered a prayer for the Lord's blessing upon the action taken by the Presbytery in this matter.

Rev. J. H. Whitmore, D.D., pastor of the Church of the Covenant, and Rev. J. K. Bowling, D.D., pastor of St. Andrews church, offered their resignations as pastors, to become effective on May 31st, 1944. Information was furnished that the congregations at duly constituted meetings, had voted to concur with their pastors in requesting the Presbytery to dissolve the respective pastoral relations.

Rev. A. J. Howell made remarks as to the fine and useful record made by Dr. Whitmore during his pastorate of more than seventeen years and of his valued service in the Presbytery and in the civil life of Wilmington. Remarks were also made by Revs. J. A. Boyd, G. A. Wilson, D. D., C. B. Craig, A. K. Dudley, P, L, Clark and F. S. Johnston. Dr. Bowling's brief pastorate also received friendly commendations.

Presbytery granted the desired dissolution, expressing its appreciation of the two members by rising vote.

Upon request of Dr. Bowling, Presbytery authorized a letter of dismission for him to the Presbytery of Mangum*.

Recess was taken until 2: 30 p. m.

Later changed to Dallas.*

AFTERNOON SESSION

Presbytery re-convened and was led in prayer by Rev. A. K. Dudley.

Rev. D. L. Jones, chairman of the committee on Christian Education and Ministerial Relief, presented candidates Malcolm Chester McIver, Jr., and Daniel Durham Rhodes as applicants for licensure for the Gospel ministry; and Presbytery proceeded to examine them in accordance with the Book of Church Order.

Written papers required, (which had been duly examined), viz:; theses, exegeses and popular lectures, were accepted as satisfactory parts of trial, upon recommendation of the committee; and evidence was offered as to the graduation of the two men from college in lieu of the examination on specified academic studies, and of graduation from the Louisville Theological Seminary in lieu of examination on other branches mentioned in the Book of Church Order.

The two candidates were subjected to examination on theology, and on the sacraments and church government; and the examinations were severally accepted as satisfactory.

Presbytery heard sermons preached by the candidates as follows: By Mr. McIver on the text, Matt. 4;1-11, and by Mr. Rhodes on the text, II Cor. 4;7. The members of Presbytery each spoke in appropriate words of approval of the sermons and commending the young men to a useful Christian Ministry.

Upon motion, the examination as a whole was sustained as satisfactory; and, in accordance with the wishes of the young men, action was taken as follows:

Presbytery licensed in due form Malcolm Chester McIver, Jr., the Moderator propounding the constitutional questions and offering a prayer in his behalf.

The record of the licensure is made as follows:

At Wilmington, N. C., the thirtieth day of May, 1944, the Presbytery of Wilmington, having received testimonials commending Malcolm Chester McIver, Jr., and evidence of his being a communicant of the church, of his good moral character, and of his having pursued suitable courses of study, proceeded to submit him to the prescribed tests for licensure, which were met to the approval of the Presbytery. On his satisfactorily answering the questions appointed to be put to applicants for licensure, Mr. McIver was licensed by the Presbytery to preach the Gospel as a probationer for the ministry within the bounds of this Presbytery, or wherever he shall in an orderly way be invited to preach.

At Mr. McIver's request, he was granted a letter of dismission as a licentiate to the Presbytery of Tuscaloosa, within the bounds of which he has been called to labor.

Mr. Rhodes expressed a desire to be ordained as an evangelist, and Presbytery approved of his examination for licensure as sufficient for his ordination. He having been called to a definite work in Wilmington Presbytery, the Presbytery took steps to ordain him as desired. The Moderator propounded the constitutional questions, and the candidate knelt; and, with the laying on of the hands of the Presbytery, he was ordained with prayer offered by Rev. Andrew J. Howell.

Presbytery assigned Mr. Rhodes to labor as an evangelist within the bounds of Wilmington Presbytery or wherever duty may call him to serve. A charge was delivered to him, by request, by Rev. J. H. Whitmore, D.D.

Rev. William Crowe, Jr., D.D., chairman of Presbytery's Home Missions committee, offered the following report of his committee, which was adopted:

ANNUAL REPORT

April 1, 1943 to March 31, 1944

The Home Mission Committee has had unusual opportunities for service in the Master's cause during the past year for which we are grateful. The records indicate that the work of the Churches committed to our care is in a wholesome condition, that new work of a most important character has been begun in two localities and other developments are now materializing for further advances. The Committee asks the prayers of the Presbytery to the end that the blessings of God may rest upon us as we take up our responsibilities for another year.

The following fields were being aided at the beginning of the year: Lake Waccamaw, Ashwood, White Plains and Elkton, with Rev. C. W. Worth as Pastor. Chadbourn and Bladenboro, with Rev. B. F. MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

Rev. K. C. Seawright as Pastor. Rocky Point, Pike and Currie, with Rev. J. T. Echols as Pastor. Delgado, Topsail and McClure Memorial, with Rev. C. C. Myers as Pastor. Woodburn and Acme, with Rev. S. B. M. Ghiselin as Stated Supply. Stanford, with Rev. E. B. Carr as Stated Supply. Rockfish and Willard were grouped with the Penderlea Community Church and served by Rev. J. R. Potts as Stated Supply without cost to the Committee.

The following fields had no ministers but were within the group of Churches normally aided by the Committee:

Chinquapin and Bethel were vacant, supplied by students. Southport and New Hope were vacant, supplied by students. Maple Hill was vacant, supplied on fifth Sundays by Rev. P. L. Clark. Pink Hill, Pleasant View, Smith's and Hebron were vacant.

Early in the year, the Lake Waccamaw Group became vacant by the resignation of Rev. C. W. Worth, and Woodburn and Acme, by the resignation of Rev. S. B. M. Ghiselin.

The following ministers were secured:

Rev. P. M. Cory for the work at Maffitt Village. Rev. R. R. Gammon for the Chinquapin Group. Rev. C. R. Blain, D.D., for the Lake Waccamaw Group. Rev. N. P. Farrior for the Pink Hill Group. Rev. L. F. Cowan for Woodburn. Woodburn went on a full-time basis and arrangements were made for Dr. C. R. Blain to supply Acme.

The year began with a minimum salary of $1620.00 and manse. During the year the salaries of all ministers serving Churches under this Committee were increased to minimum of $1800. and manse, with the exception of the Rocky Point, Pike and Currie group, whose minister is supported in part by secular employment. These increased minimum salaries were achieved through the interest of the Churches under the leadership of the Superintendent and the Committee assumed no additional obligations. On the contrary, several Churches have assumed a larger share in the support of their respective ministers than they had formerly had and Committee funds have been released for other causes.

Appropriations have been made for the year 1944-45 as follows:

Lake Waccamaw, Ashwood, White Plains, Elkton, Acme, Rev. C. R. Blain, D.D., appropriation, $700, including $240 for travel.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

The Cape Fear Church was organized in April 1944 with Rev. P. M. Cory as Pastor. Appropriation $1000.

The Carolina Beach Church was organized in November 1943.

The Superintendent was appropriated $1500 for part time salary and the use of the Manse.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

The Committee recommends that Presbytery notify the Churches in the Elizabethtown and the Kenansville Groups that the pastoral relationships with the respective Ministers should be dissolved, according to the instructions of the General Assembly as recorded on page 167 of the Minutes of 1942, article "d".

Request was presented from Rev. K. C. Seawright that the pastoral relations between him and the George Webb Memorial and Wildwood churches be dissolved; and Rev. G. A. Wilson, D.D., gave information as to the concurrence of the two congregations in the pastor's request for the dissolution. Upon motion, the dissolution was made, and Mr. Seawright was granted the powers of an evangelist in preparation for his service in the United States navy.

Rev. J. H. Whitmore, D.D., asked that he be allowed to labor without the bounds of the Presbytery until the fall meeting, if called upon so to serve. The permission was granted.

Information was given as to the illness of Mrs. William Crowe, Jr., and prayer for her recovery and the comfort of her family was offered by Rev. J. K. Bowling, D.D. The Stated Clerk was requested to convey to Dr. Crowe the prayerful and sympathetic interest of the Presbytery.

The minutes were read and approved; and, after prayer by Rev. C. C. Myers, the meeting adjourned.

The call for the meeting, dated June 10th, 1944, was read as follows:

The constitutional requirements having been met, I hereby call a meeting of Wilmington Presbytery to be held at Winter Park Presbyterian church, Wilmington, N. C., June 20th, 1944, at 2:30 p. m. for the following purposes:

1. To act on the resignation of the Rev. A. K. Dudley as pastor of Pearsall Memorial Presbyterian church, to take effect June 30th, 1944, upon approval of Presbytery.

2. To act on the call of the Winter Park Presbyterian church for the full-time services of the Rev. A. K. Dudley as pastor.

The call was, upon motion, declared to be in order, and the Presbytery proceeded to the business indicated.

Rev. A. K. Dudley informed Presbytery that he had offered his resignation as pastor of the Pearsall Memorial church on Sunday, June 4th, and had requested the congregation to concur with him in asking Presbytery to dissolve the pastoral relationship between him and that church. Ruling Elder Pearsall informed Presbytery that a regularly constituted congregational meeting was held on that date, and that the congregation voted to concur in the pastor's request.

Upon motion, Presbytery accepted the resignation, and dissolved the pastorate, effective June 30th, as desired.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

Information was also furnished by Ruling Elder Hobbs that the congregation of the Winter Park church, at a duly constituted congregational meeting, voted to extend to Rev. A. K. Dudley a call for his full-time service as pastor. A formal call to that effect was read, found in order, placed in Mr. Dudley's hands, and accepted by him.

Upon motion, the call of the Winter Park church, was accordingly approved by the Presbytery.

Some matters of general interest were mentioned by members of the Presbytery, but no action thereon was taken.

The business of the meeting having been accomplished, a prayer was offered by Dr. J. H. Whitmore, in which a special petition was included for the recovery of Mrs. William Crowe, Jr., who is seriously ill in New York city, and the Presbytery adjourned.

The Presbytery of Wilmington met in called session in Immanuel Presbyterian church, Wilmington, on July 28th, 1944, at 3 p. m. The meeting was called to order by the Moderator, Rev. J. A. Boyd, and was led in prayer by Rev. P. M. Cory.

The following members were enrolled:

The call for the meeting, for the purpose of dissolving the pastoral relationship between Rev. F. S. Johnston and Immanuel church, and of handling any business connected therewith, was read and found in order; the call being signed by Rev. A. K. Dudley, the last preceding Moderator, in the absence from the Presbytery of the Moderator and the Stated Clerk.

Mr. Johnston made request that the Presbytery dissolve the pastoral relationship as desired, in order that he might accept a call issued to him by the Paw Creek Presbyterian church, of Mecklenburg Presbytery. Ruling Elder Wolfe informed the Presbytery that the congregation of Immanuel church, at a duly constituted meeting, had voted reluctantly to concur in their pastor's request for the dissolution.

Motion was offered that the dissolution be made, effective July 31st, 1944, and that Mr. Johnston be granted a certificate of dismissal to the Presbytery of Mecklenburg to allow him to accept the call extended to him. Pending action on the motion, remarks expressing appreciation of the pleasant and helpful association with him during his membership of twenty-one years in the Presbytery and ten years pastorate of Immanuel church, were made by Revs. A. K. Dudley, P. M. Cory, J. A. Boyd, A. J. Howell and G. A. Wilson, D.D., and Ruling Elder Huntington. A friendly letter from Rev. J. S. Crowley, former pastor of the Immanuel church, was also read. The motion carried and the Stated Clerk was requested

CALLED MEETING

The Presbytery of Wilmington met in called session in the Wallace Presbyterian church, Wallace, N. C., on Monday, August 7th, 1944 at 3 p. m. The Moderator, Rev. J. A. Boyd, called the meeting to order, and an opening prayer was offered by Rev. A. K. Dudley.

The following members were enrolled:

Ministers: J. A. Boyd, C. C. Myers, D. L. Jones, J. W. Miller, M. C. Macqueen, P. L. Clark, A. K. Dudley, M. J. Murray, W. P. M. Currie, J. R. Kennedy, (10); Ruling Elders: W. I. Hall, Oak Plains; Warren A. Smith, Warsaw; E. W. Faries, Wallace, (3).

The Moderator's call for the meeting, dated July 26th, 1944, was read as follows:

The constitutional requirements having been met, I hereby call a special meeting of Wilmington Presbytery at Wallace church Monday, Aug. 7th, at 3 p. m., to attend to the following business:

To receive and act upon a recommendation from the Board of Trustees of Flora Macdonald college, suggesting an overture to the Synod of North Carolina touching Synodical control of educational institutions and matters connected therewith;

To receive and act upon a request from Mr. William C. McClammy to be received under care of Presbytery as a candidate for the ministry.

(Signed) J. A. BOYD, Moderator.

The call was found to be in order, and the meeting proceeded to business.

Rev. D. L. Jones, chairman of the permanent committee on Christian Education and Ministerial Relief, introduced William Charles McClammy, a member of the First Presbyterian church of Wilmington, N. C., with request that he be received as a candidate for the Gospel ministry. Mr. Jones stated that all necessary preliminary requirements had been complied with by the young man, and that his application had been approved by the committee. Presbytery then submitted to him the examination required by the Book of Church Order, and the examination was, by vote, accepted as satisfactory. The Moderator propounded the constitutional questions, and delivered a brief charge to the candidate concerning his preparation for the work of the ministry. Rev. P. L. Clark offered a prayer for divine blessing upon him.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

Upon motion, Presbytery directed that Mr. McClammy's name be added to its list of candidates.

Rev. H. G. Bedinger, D.D., of Fayetteville Presbytery, was introduced to the Presbytery and invited to sit as a visiting brother.

The matter of the proposed overture to the Synod of North Carolina was considered; and the following was duly adopted:

To the Synod of North Carolina:

The Presbytery of Wilmington has considered the resolution adopted at the fall meeting of the Synod of North Carolina, 1943, relating to a proposal to bring all the educational institutions now under the control of our Presbyteries and the Synod under a general Synodical control; and has reached the conclusion that we do not see our way clear to endorse this project.

We naturally have a special interest in those institutions in whose ownership and control we have a share, since they are patronized more largely by the people of our section of the State; yet we consistently encourage and take part in the support of the other institutions included in the organized plan of the Synod. We see no reason to alter this arrangement.

Therefore, we respectfully overture the Synod not to enter into any project that might be indicated by the resolution of 1943.

Also we overture the Synod to rescind the action of 1943 regarding Synodical control of educational institutions.

Wilmington Presbytery reaffirms its control and ownership, jointly with others, of Flora Macdonald college.

The minutes of the meeting were read and approved; and the meeting adjourned after prayer by the Moderator.

J. W. MILLER, Permanent Clerk.

REGULAR SESSION

The Presbytery of Wilmington met in regular fall session in the Lake Waccamaw Presbyterian church on Tuesday, October 10th, at 11 a. m.

The Moderator, Rev. J. A. Boyd, called the meeting to order and offered the opening prayer. A sermon was preached by him, based on passages from the 17th chapter of Matthew.

A communion service was conducted with Revs. William Crowe, Jr., D.D., and Marion J. Murray presiding. The elements were served by Ruling Elders of the Presbytery— Messrs. H. T. Wilson, W. J. Burney, J. R. Maxwell and W. R. Smith.

A memorial period for the late Rev. James M. Plowden was observed, and the following sketch of his life was read by Rev. Andrew J. Howell:

JAMES McCALLUM PLOWDEN

James McCallum Plowden ended his long and useful life as a minister of the Kingdom on August 19, 1944. He would have been eighty-seven years old on August 24th. Although he had been in impaired health for many years, his fatal illness covered not many days. In spite of his depleted strength, he retained his unusual mental ability until the last.

The Gospel of Jesus Christ had been the central theme of his daily thought; and other concerns of life were considered as to their bearing upon it. For many of his later years he was very seldom seen in attendance at Presbytery or Synod, but his interest in their business never failed, and he valued his association with his fellow members. He served forty-two years in active pastorates, in addition to the many occasional services he conducted. There remain now his record and his memory.

Mr. Plowden was born in Manning, South Carolina, on August 24, 1857, and there he spent his boyhood as a well-trained youth and a lover of the out-of-doors. His father was John Covert Plowden and his mother Caroline Ann McCallum (Plowden). They were Christian parents. In the War Between the States the boy James saw his manly young father walk away from home to join the Confederate army, from which he was never to return. This scene made a great impression upon the boy's mind, and he always spoke of it as a tender memory.

He attended a preparatory school at Lenoir, North Carolina, where he formed some life-time friendships; and his higher education was received at Davidson and Adger colleges, from 1878 to 1882. As a candidate for the ministry he attended Columbia

Theological Seminary from 1882 to 1885, when he received his B. D. degree. There were at Columbia preachers and scholars whom he greatly admired, and who influenced his life very deeply. He often spoke in ardent terms of the stirring eloquence of the learned Reverend Doctor J. L. Girardeau. He was licensed in 1885 and ordained in 1886 by Harmony Presbytery.

In April, 1887, Mr. Plowden married Miss Margaret Louise Rodgers, of "Meadow Dale", near Monterey, Virginia. She was his devoted help-meet until her passing in 1934.

His first pastorate was in the Lynchburg, Fair Hope and Beulah churches, South Carolina, for four years. Then he was called to the Edgefield, Johnson and Trenton churches, where he served three and a half years. After that he had a brief pastorate of one year in the Sibley church of Augusta, Georgia; going from there to Eatonton and Monticello churches, Georgia, for five years. He then became pastor of Loch Willow and Union churches in Lexington Presbytery, (Virginia), where he remained for eight years. From Virginia he was called to become evangelist of Wilmington Presbytery, within whose bounds he served faithfully and well for six years, holding evangelistic meetings and conducting regular services in many churches, particularly in the mission chapels of the First Presbyterian church, Wilmington. He resided first in Goldsboro in 1908, moving the next year to Wilmington.

In 1914, because of failing health, he gave up his work in Wilmington Presbytery and moved with his family to a home he acquired near Richmond, Virginia. While there he preached occasionally in nearby churches; and in 1916, his health having improved, he became stated supply in the Chester Presbyterian church, East Hanover Presbytery. This service he rendered for seven years. He was then called to the pastorate of the church at Timmonsville, South Carolina, in Pee Dee Presbytery; friends there having recalled his ability as a preacher while residing formerly in that State. He remained at Timmonsville about three and a half years, until his health again became impaired, so that it was evident that he could not continue as pastor of the church.

It was then, providentially, that a way was made clear for him to return with his family to Wilmington, where a comfortable home was arranged for them. This was done through the influence of the session of the First Presbyterian church. In Wilmington he was to pass the remainder of his long life with friends who appreciated him and showed a constant interest in him.

Despite the fact that he had several periods of illness, Mr. Plowden was yet able to accept many requests to preach in the pulpits of Wilmington and in churches of the surrounding country. Several times he preached in the First church and in St. Andrews church, and more or less regularly in the suburban churches of Bethany and Myrtle Grove, as well as in the Woodburn and New Hope churches of Brunswick county.

He was honorably retired by Wilmington Presbytery in 1929; but he still continued to preach during the next twelve years, until a very serious impairment of his sight developed and interfered with his pulpit services. Yet his heart was in his calling as a minister of the Word.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

Mr. Plowden loved the preaching of the Gospel, and was always resourceful in drawing lessons from the Scriptures. His thought was original, and his lessons often unique. He was sometimes moved with a flush of emotion and spoke forth words with the fervor of true eloquence. By nature he was warm-hearted and friendly. He was endowed with a touch of humor, and sometimes, even in earnest sermons, there would flash forth an amusing turn in his remarks. He was a good narrator of his personal experiences, and he enjoyed, along with his listeners, the recital of incidents in which the point of humor was against himself. But he excelled as a faithful preacher of the Gospel. His sermons always bore the unmistakable flavor of his thorough confidence in the Divine origin of the Scriptures. He was intensely orthodox and conservative in study and worship. His evangelistic gifts were a strong element in his preaching, and many souls were brought into the Kingdom by him.

His sunset days were spent in the loving and solicitous care of his children. Incidents of his passing were suggestive of an immediate entrance into the realm of eternal glory. He seemed to catch the light of it. So James McCallum Plowden finished a long journey of unclouded faith. Funeral services were conducted for him in the Kenan chapel of the First Presbyterian church in the late afternoon of August 21, 1944, by Rev. William Crowe, Jr., D.D., and Rev. Andrew J. Howell.

The family that survives him consists of three daughters and two sons, with four grandchildren. Wilmington Presbytery and the Synod of North Carolina have reason to be grateful for their long and helpful association with him.

Remarks appreciative of the life and usefulness of Mr. Plowden were made by Revs. J. S. Crowley and C. C. Myers.

The following members of Presbytery were enrolled:

Ministers: P. L. Clark, A. J. Howell, J. W. Miller, J. S. Crowley, S. C. Farrior, D. L. Jones, G. A. Wilson, D.D., M. C. Macqueen, J. G. Morrison, J. R. Kennedy, M. J. Murray, B. F. Ormand, C. B. Upon motion of Dr. William Crowe, Jr., Presbytery directed that the report of the special committee appointed in the matter of the merger of St. Andrews church and the Church of the Covenant, which was not read by the Stated Clerk in the minutes of the meeting of May 30th, be not published.

The absence for several years of the pastors of Grove and Elizabethtown churches, for service in the U. S. Army, was brought to the attention of the Presbytery; and the matter was referred to the commission on the Minister and His Work with request that action be taken by it conformable to the enactments by the General Assembly of 1942, page 167, and 1944, page 185.

Rev. J. R. Kennedy, chairman of the permanent committee on Stewardship, presented a report, which was adopted with recommendations as follows:

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

The Stewardship committee submits the following report to the Presbytery of Wilmington:

- I. There has been a gratifying increase in benevolent contributions over the gifts of the previous year. We give below a table of comparison for the past three years of all gifts:

	1941-42	1942-43	1943-44
Contributions to:
Benevolences	$ 40,806	$ 51,461	$ 63,914
Pastors' Salaries	40,759	45,083	49,902
Current Expenses	41,812	50,844	67,861
Building Expenses	8,363	21,269	17,660
Miscellaneous	2,850	4,395	4,481
Totals	$134,590	$173,052	$203,818

Thus total contributions increased in two years 51%, and over the previous year 17%. Benevolences increased in two years 57% and over the previous year 24%. Pastors' salaries increased in two years 23%, and over the previous year 11%.

II. PER CAPITA CONTRIBUTIONS:

To benevolences from $5.89 in 1942-43 to $7.69 in 1943-44. To current expenses from $13.93 in 1942-43 to $15.22 in 1943-44. Total contributions from $19.82 in 1942-43 to $22.91 in 1943-44. Wilmington Presbytery ranks 67th among the Presbyteries of the Assembly in per capita gifts. Within the Synod of N. C. we have the lowest per capita gift rating. The average for the Assembly is $27.92 per member, and for the Synod of North Carolina $27.35.

- III. Twenty of our churches did not report having an every-member canvass.
- IV. The Defense Service Council offering amounted to $1,400. The quota for the Presbytery was $2,264.
- V. The quota of $4,782 for the Home Mission Emergency Fund was raised in full. Of the Presbytery's asking of $2,218 in connection with this fund for use within the Presbytery, $1,918 was secured, a total of $6,700. -
- VI. Our budget for benevolences last year was $53,121. The minutes of the General Assembly show our gifts for 1943-44 to be $63,914, or $10,793 in excess of the budget. Your committee is recommending a budget of $65,192, an increase of $1,278, which is 2% over our gifts of the previous year.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That the theme of the every-member-canvass for the year 1945 be "In Partnership with Christ", and that every church be urged to have a canvass.
2. That every-member-canvass day, March 4, 1945, be a day of dedication of life, as well as a day of dedication of money.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

6. That the apportionments to the churches be as follows: (See table).
7. That the Presbytery endorse the third step in the Home Mission Emergency campaign of raising $250,000 and $85,000 self-denial offering, a total of $335,000, and that the assignment of $4,782 be accepted by the Presbytery; also that the sum of $2,218 be added to this, making a total of $7,000. This latter to be used within the bounds of the Presbytery in our home mission work. Gifts for this fund shall be sent to the central Treasurer of the Presbytery. This amount to be apportioned to the churches (See table).
8. That the recommendations of the last General Assembly relative to the matter of Stewardship as found on pages 71 and 72 of the Minutes of the 1944 Assembly be given careful attention by all pastors and church officers.
9. That the Presbytery accept the quota of $2,264 for the Defense Service Council; that the distribution of same be made among the churches as follows: (See table). The churches are requested to take this offering on Mother's Day, 1945, or to include the apportionment in the budgets.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

Rev. D. L. Jones, chairman of the permanent committee on Christian Education and Ministerial Relief, offered the following report, which was adopted:

Our committee recommends:

1. That John Aaron Bender be examined with a view to being received as a candidate for the Gospel ministry.
2. That the name of William Lee Paden, Jr., at his request, be dropped from the Presbytery's list of candidates for the ministry.

Mr. Jones presented to the Presbytery Mr. Bender, who is a member of the Myrtle Grove congregation of the First Presbyterian church, Wilmington, and stated that all required preliminary steps had been taken by his committee in furtherance of the young man's application to be received as a candidate, and that the committee recommended that he be received. Mr. Bender was examined as to his experience of religion and his motives for seeking the Gospel ministry. This examination was, upon motion, accepted as satisfactory, and the Moderator propounded to him the constitutional questions, and delivered to him a suitable charge; closing the exercises with a prayer for God's blessing upon the candidate. Upon motion, it was directed that Mr. Bender's name be enrolled on the Presbytery's list of candidates.

A petition was presented by John Hall, ruling elder of the First Presbyterian church, signed by 27 members of the congregation of the Myrtle Grove chapel and others, requesting that they be organized as a regular Presbyterian church. The petition was accepted and approved, and the following commission was named to effect the organization, viz., Revs. M. J. Murray, A. J. Howell and William Crowe, Jr., D.D., and Ruling Elders A. F. Nichol and John Hall. The time of the exercises and the parts to be taken were left to the pleasure of the commission; any two ministers and one ruling elder to constitute a quorum.

4 p. m. Presbytery observed a special order in the interest of Foreign Missions, with Rev. B. F. Ormand, chairman of the permanent committee on that subject, presiding. The chairman made a verbal report and presented the following recommendations:

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

1. That every church in the Presbytery be urged to observe the Foreign Mission season by prayer and study of the general topic, "Southeast Asia"; and that each church be encouraged to conduct a school of missions, laying particular stress upon the instruction of children.

2. That every minister keep before his congregation, especially the young people, the dire need of more missionaries and encourage them to enter that fruitful field of service.

3. That elders and deacons be encouraged to reach their goal of $10 for each officer.

Pending consideration of the recommendations, an informing address on the general outlook of missionary efforts in the southwest Pacific area was delivered by Rev. S. C. Farrior, a member of Wilmington Presbytery, who has served many years in the China mission field.

The committee's report was approved and the recommendations adopted. A vote of appreciation was given Mr. Farrior for his address.

Miss Ada McMurphy, of our missionary force in Korea, was introduced to the Presbytery.

In behalf of the former general chairman of Religious Education in the Presbytery, Dr. J. H. Whitmore, Rev. M. C. Macqueen read the following report of the committee:

Your committee in offering its annual report would first of all record its sense of gratitude to God for His continued blessings on this work. There is great spiritual need on every hand, and the work of Religious Education is imperative, and yet is most difficult because of conditions.

In addition to the general conditions produced by war there was the added hindrance this year of the polio epidemic. But in spite of these adverse circumstances God has given evidence of His favor in definite accomplishments, especially in the work among the children and young people and in the establishment of outposts. Reports from the several divisions are as follows:

CHILDREN'S DIVISION:—Rev. M. J. Murray, chairman. Reports have been received from twenty-five Vacation Bible schools held in Wilmington Presbytery during the summer of 1944. These reports indicate an enrollment of 1356 children and 200 workers, making a total enrollment of 1556. Very likely other schools were held which have not been reported. Our enrollment and attendance this year was undoubtedly affected by the polio epidemic in our state.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

The two young ladies provided by Synod's committee, rendered very fine and capable service in the schools conducted by them. We are grateful to Synod's committee for providing them.

Your chairman received in January a contribution for our work from the Elizabethtown Sunday school amounting to $7.50. He spent for postage and telephone calls $5.21. He has on hand a total balance of $36.70.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S DIVISION:—Rev. M. C. Macqueen, chairman. The Young People's work has been going along according to schedule. We had our Spring Rally at Clinton in April with 225 delegates besides adult advisors and ministers present. The outstanding feature was an address by Rev. Samuel Vander Meer.

The Young People's conference was held at Peace college the first week of July with 108 delegates and 22 faculty members and councilors. The spirit and work of the conference was satisfactory in every way.

Miss Margaret Hopper has been elected the new Adult Advisor to succeed Miss Isabella Cox, who had rendered such splendid service for a number of years. Plans are now being made for the Fall Rally which is to be held October 15th in the afternoon and evening at Warsaw. A splendid retreat for the Presbytery's Council was held the second weekend of September at Wrigtsville Beach. All places on the Council are filled and it is working very splendidly under the leadership of Monica Jackson, President.

About forty delegates attended the Pioneer conference held at Peace college in conjunction with Orange Presbytery. This is the first time we have had any kind of a conference for Pioneers and the interest shown clearly indicates that there is a need for this. Rev. Ben Ormand did outstanding work in connection with this Pioneer conference.

The financial statement for the Young People's Division is shown later.

SUNDAY SCHOOL EXTENSION:—Rev. James R. Kennedy reports that real progress has been made in this field during the past year. Miss Sarah Little, extension Sunday School worker for the Synod came into the Presbytery during June and established two new Sunday schools in the Wilmington Area. Both of these schools give promise of some permanent Presbyterian work. Any pastor or church desiring the service of this full time worker in surveying needy fields and in getting a new Sunday school under-way will please contact the chairman or Rev. J. O. Mann.

This brings the total number of outposts in the Presbytery to fourteen. The last to be established is in Colonial Village, Wilmington, under the sponsorship of the Winter Park church. Other churches sponsoring outposts are: First Church and St. Andrews-Covenant, of Wilmington, Mt. Zion, Jacksonville, Wallace, Pleasant View, Westminster and Cape Fear. Other churches in the Presbytery are urged to consider this as a possible way of expansion of our church work.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

CONFERENCES:—We recommend that a Pioneer conference be held from June 4th to 11th, 1945, at Lake Singletary, about twelve miles from Elizabethtown; and that every pastor inform his young people of the conference to be held this fall.

The following report was added:

The sub-committee on Bible in the Public Schools reports that interest in this movement is increasing in the Presbytery. At this time systematic Bible teaching is being done in localities as follows: Whiteville, Chadbourn, Mt. Olive, Clinton and Wilmington.

The committee calls attention to the fact that two plans for carrying on this work are now in operation in the Presbytery, both of which are feasible for many other communities within our bounds. In Chadbourn the teaching is done by several ministers of local churches without cost to the community. In the other places named in the report, teachers are employed on the same basis as other teachers on the faculty, but are paid from private subscriptions.

Wherever the Bible is being taught in the public schools local citizens feel that it is one of the best causes they support, and money for the expense is usually easy to raise. Teaching the Bible in the public schools offers a better opportunity for Biblical instruction than any other means open to the church. (William Crowe, Jr., Chairman).

The report was adopted as a whole.

A financial statement was received from the committee as follows:

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

Rev. M. C. Macqueen read the following report of the committee on Nomination, which was adopted:

The committee on Nominations has carefully considered the Directory of the Presbytery and suggests names on various committees to take the places of several ministers who have been transferred to other Presbyteries or have entered the chaplaincy of the U. S. forces. A few other adjustments have been made in the membership of several committees.

(2) That five per cent be taken from the budget benevolences of the Presbytery to supply the necessary additional funds to support the office.

(3) That the following committee of laymen be appointed to raise $3000 per year from individuals in the Presbytery to be used for local Home Mission advancement and to balance the amount taken from budget benevolences: James H. Clark, Dr. Wilbert Jackson, K. C. Council and W. M. Dickson.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

The Stated Clerk read a request from Rev. R. R. Gammon that he be granted a letter of dismissal to Fayetteville Presbytery. The letter was authorized.

Dr. William Crowe, Jr., made further remarks relative to the projected employment of an Executive Secretary for the Presbytery, which was considered at last night's session.

10:30 a. m. In the absence of the chairman, Presbytery heard a report from the committee on Educational Institutions from Rev. Andrew J. Howell. Dr. W. C. Pressly, President of Peace Junior college, was introduced and addressed the Presbytery with reference to his institution. The report of the committee was received.

11 a. m. By appointment, Rev. J. W. Miller delivered a sermon on the efficacy of the preaching of the Gospel, based on 1 Cor. 1:21.

Rev. Andrew J. Howell, treasurer of the contingent fund, made report, which was adopted as follows:

Wilmington Presbytery has in bank on October 9, 1944, a balance of $974.87, which will doubtless be adequate to meet all present necessary expenditures. However, attention is called to the further increase in the assessment of the Synod of 1/4c per member (in addition to the increase of 1/2c made last year), and of the assessment of the 1944 General Assembly of $800.82, as against $611.17 paid last spring. Notwithstanding this, we should have a balance on hand of a few hundred dollars accumulated through the years, largely on account of churches which had been delinquent having met their assessments. This may be drawn on in the future for useful purposes.

I trust that all of our churches will realize the importance of paying their assessments as they become due.

ANDREW J. HOWELL, Treasurer.

Expressions of appreciation were made in behalf of R. M. Sheppard, Presbytery's treasurer of benevolent funds; and, upon motion by Dr. G. A. Wilson, an amount up to $50 per annum was voted to defray the expenses of his office. In extending this offer, the Stated Clerk was requested to express to Mr. Sheppard the thanks of the Presbytery for his efficient services.

A communication was read from the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, with a supply of circulars containing proposed amendments of the Book of Church Order. The subject was referred to the standing committee on Bills and Overtures, with direction that it continue as an ad interim committee to report at the next spring meeting .

Rev. Andrew J. Howell made request that he be relieved of his duties as Stated Clerk, after his service of nearly eighteen years in that office. Upon motion, his request was granted, effective on or before Dec. 31st, 1944.

Rev. J. W. Miller also offered his resignation as Permanent Clerk to be likewise effective. The same was accepted.

The appointment of their successors was deferred, pending action by the special committee named for the handling of the proposed office of Executive Secretary, and an anticipated adjourned meeting of Presbytery.

A petition signed by 52 members of the congregation of the Bethany chapel of the First Presbyterian church, that they be set off as a self-supporting church, was presented. Upon motion the same was duly accepted and approved, and the following commission was appointed to effect the organization, to be known as the Bethany church, viz.: Revs. A. J. Howell, M. J. Murray, William Crowe, Jr., D.D, with Ruling Elders J. S. McKenzie, A. F. Nichol and John Hall; any two ministers and one ruling elder to constitute a quorum. The time of the exercises and the parts to be taken were left to the pleasure of the commission.

Reference was made by Rev. William Crowe, Jr., D.D., trustee of Peace Junior college, to the project of that institution to raise funds to liquidate an accumulated debt of about $20,000, and to a statement made by President W. C. Pressly that a suggested apportionment of $1500 for that object be accepted by Wilmington Presbytery. Upon motion, Presbytery approved the plan; and various allotments were mentioned for several churches of the Presbytery toward the raising of the desired sum of $1500.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

In view of the large delegation present from the congregation of the Bethany chapel, Presbytery expressed its appreciation of the steps taken by them toward their organization as a regular church.

Earnest commendation was also voiced for the First Presbyterian church of Wilmington for the missionary spirit evinced by it through the years, which has resulted in the establishment of many regular churches at various points in the area about Wilmington. To this, Presbytery gave expression by a rising vote.

Rev. C. B. Craig, chairman of Presbytery's Defense Service Council, made report, which was received, with a reference to figures appearing in its interest in the report of the Stewardship committee.

Upon motion, Presbytery adopted the following paper:

In consideration of the desire of the elders and deacons expressed last night, the Presbytery shall set up a permanent committee on "Laymen's Hour" to function at every fall meeting, and recommend the following names to the committee on Nominations for that committee:

E. F. Davis (chairman), John W. Hall, P. S. Dunn, R. V. Wells, Rev. J. R. Kennedy.

Rev. C. B. Craig, chairman of the permanent committee on the Minutes of the General Assembly, made report with reference to several matters of interest. The same was approved. These matters were commended to the ad interim committee on Bills and Overtures.

Rev. J. R. Kennedy, chairman of the permanent committee on Social and Moral Welfare, read a report which was received as information.

After announcements and a prayer by Rev. G. A. Wilson, D.D., recess was taken for luncheon.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

2:30 p. m. The meeting was called to order and prayer was offered by Rev. C. C. Myers.

The standing judicial committee through Rev. P. L. Clark, chairman, reported that no matters were referred to it.

Attention was called to the subject of an evangelistic program for the Presbytery, and the same was referred to the permanent committee on Evangelism, with request that arrangements be made for holding evangelistic services in as many churches of the Presbytery as possible this fall and in the coming spring. For this plan the following ministers present volunteered their services:

Revs. J. A. Boyd, C. R. Blain, D.D., C. C. Myers, F. M. Bain, J. R. Kennedy, M. J. Murray, D. L. Jones, B. F. Ormand (in spring), P. M. Cory (in spring), N. P. Farrior (in spring).

Rev. J. A. Boyd presented the following resolution, which was duly adopted:

The members of Wilmington Presbytery call the attention of our Congressmen of this section, Messrs. J. B. Clark and G. A. Barden, and Senator J. W. Bailey to the following resolution:

That, whereas we believe in the separation of church and state, and whereas the Catholic church has a representative from the Vatican in Washington, we petition our congressmen and senator to see to it that the Protestant churches have a just proportion of men appointed to prominent posts such as Ambassadors to the countries of the world and other important positions.

Commissioners to the General Assembly of May, 1944, made report of their attendance and interest. Communications were from Ruling Elders E. F. Davis and Dr.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

DeWitt D. Clark, and verbal reports were given by Revs. M. J. Murray, B. F. Ormand and J. R. Kennedy. The diligence of the commissioners, by motion, was commended.

(Signed) B. E. Dotson, P. M. Cory, John Hall.

Rev. B. F. Ormand offered the following motion:

1. Foreign Missions.
2. Assembly's Home Missions.
3. Christian Education and Ministerial Relief.
4. Bible Cause.
5. Social and Moral Welfare.
6. Sabbath Observance.

8. Assembly's Training School.

The motion was adopted with the provision that the plan be made effective after the next spring meeting.

The standing committee on Time and Place of Next Meeting, through Rev. J. A. Boyd, chairman, informed the Presbytery that no invitations had been extended for the spring meeting.

Upon motion, it was ordered that, when Presbytery adjourns, it be to meet in adjourned session in the Wallace Presbyterian church on Tuesday, November 21st, 1944, at 2 p. m.

Rev. C. R. Gleason, chairman of the committee on Resolution of Thanks, presented the following report:

Our committee wishes to express our sincere appreciation to Rev. S. C. Farrior for his splendid missionary address, which was most interesting and inspiring. He reminded us of our great indebtedness to the early missionaries in Europe, and reviewed the results of missionary work in the islands of the Pacific as revealed particularly to our American people in these last years.

Mr. Kennedy also presented a petition signed by 26 persons residing in Tabor City requesting that Presbytery organize the proposed church, and stated that additional names were expected for the list of members. Upon motion, Presbytery accepted and approved the petition, and appointed the following commission to effect the organization, viz.: Revs. J. W. Miller, C. R. Blain, D.D., and B. F. "Christian Family Week" is observed, stressing Christian living at home, the family pew and family worship. This spring the women have helped with the "Victory Crusade."

All the spiritual items reported show slight increases. A few new prayer groups and personal witnessing groups have been added.

The pastors have a great opportunity in leading the women in personal witnessing, outpost Sunday school work and in the joy of sharing money with God.

With interest, prayer and gifts the women have supported the entire program of our church, including among other items the Defense Service Council, Home Mission Emergency fund, the Religious Education Advance, the Foreign Mission season, Barium Springs orphanage, Synod's educational institutions, Negro work, interdenominational work, the "Joy Gift" season, etc. The women have even championed the raising of pastors' salaries to meet war prices.

We appreciate and enjoy our place of service with you on Presbytery's committees of Religious Education and Home Missions, and the board of trustees of Flora Macdonald college. We thank you for all of your helpful cooperation. God does bless this women's work and it grows. Each year it embraces deeper and broader fields.

This growing work I am happy to give to my very capable and spiritually-minded successor, Mrs. J. M. Gregg.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

Mrs. Robinson introduced the new President of the Auxiliary, Mrs. J. M. Gregg.

The Presbytery rose in a vote of appreciation for the interesting report which was read.

Rev. M. C. Macqueen, chairman of the commission on the Minister and His Work, made report which was accepted for record as follows:

Since the fall meeting of Presbytery we have cooperated in every way possible with the pulpit committees of vacant churches, and in all other matters brought to our attention.

We recommend the assignment of the following as Stated Supply until the spring meeting 1946: Rev. C. B. Craig at Antioch, Rev. D. L. Jones at Bowden, Rev. J. W. Miller at Brown Marsh and Mt. Horeb, Rev. C. C. Myers at McClure Memorial, Rev. B. F. Ormand at Bladenboro, Rev. J. R. Kennedy at Tabor City, Dr. C. R. Blain at Acme, Elkton and White Plains, Rev. N. P. Farrior at Hebron and Harper-Southerland, and Rev. P. L. Clark at Maple Hill.

We recommend as temporary supply Chaplain F. M. Thompson (retired) at Pearsall Memorial, and candidates Ray Spivey in the Elizabethtown group, Allen Craft in Kenansville group, D. Burke Kerr at Rockfish and Willard, and J. M. Newbold at Southport and New Hope.

We have found to be in order the call of the Immanuel church for Rev. W. H. Allison, and recommend that Presbytery take favorable action thereon.

The George Webb Memorial church has extended a call to Rev. J. V. Axtell, of Addison, N. Y. Mr. Axtell has accepted it, and we are looking forward to his coming to our Presbytery by May 1st.

Our commission, after investigation and prayerful thought, recommends that Wilmington Presbytery instruct our Stated Clerk to write to the pastors of the Grove and Elizabethtown groups, who have been serving as chaplains in the U. S. army for several years, and request them to ask Presbytery to dissolve their pastoral relations with those churches; calling their attention to the action taken by our General Assembly of 1942, page 167, and 1944, page 185. We would have these chaplains to feel that, in spite of the loyalty and devotion which will doubtless be expressed by their churches, and regardless of reluctance that might be felt to accept their resignation, it would be to the best interest of the Lord's kingdom that they insist that the churches join them in requesting the Presbytery to dissolve the relations.

We furthermore recommend that the churches of the Presbytery send to our commission a list of available elders and deacons who are capable and willing to conduct services in our vacant fields, the list to be sent to the chairman of the commission as soon as possible, in order that the names may be presented to the churches.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

The call for the pastoral services of Rev. W. H. Allison from Immanuel church was declared to be in order and placed in his hands. Upon his signifying his acceptance, the following commission was named to install him: Rev. A. K. Dudley, Rev. William Crowe, Jr., D.D., Rev. P. L. Clark, and Ruling Elders George L. Mitchell and Norman L. Mintz; two ministers and one ruling elder to constitute a quorum. The time and parts of the exercises were left to the pleasure of the commission.

Rev. C. C. Myers, chairman of the permanent committee on Sessional Records, presented the following report:

The committee has examined the sessional records submitted and notes the following exceptions:

Meetings not opened and closed with prayer—Baker, Smiths, Ashwood.

Not having required number of meetings during year—Brown Marsh, South River, Smiths, White Plains.

Reports to Presbytery not recorded—Westminster, Cape Fear.

Minutes not sufficiently recorded (and name of church not in book)—Cape Fear.

Books not sent to Presbytery—Beth Car, Bethel, Beulaville, Chinquapin, Currie, Hallsville, Maple Hill, New Hope, Oakdale, Pike, Southport.

The report was approved.

The standing committee on the Records of Presbytery through Rev. F. M. Bain, chairman, offered the following report:

Your committee has examined the published minutes of the Presbytery, and find them excellently kept. We feel that the clerks of the Presbytery should be commended for their fine work. We recommend that these printed minutes be made the official copy of the Presbytery.

In accordance with the suggestion of the commission on the Minister and His Work (page 20), the following church officers have volunteered to hold services in vacant churches:

E. W. Faires, Wallace
J. R. Blanchard, Wallace
Clifton J. Knowles, Wallace
E. L. Derrick, Chadbourn
Dr. A. H. Kerr, Kerr
H. McN. Johnson, Willard

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

The report was adopted by rising vote in expression of the appreciation of Presbytery for the excellent publication of the minutes.

The committee on Nominations made reference to the steps taken at the meeting last fall regarding a proposed general chairman for the Assembly's causes. Action thereon was, upon motion, postponed until the fall meeting 1945.

The Presbytery heard nominations for commissioners to the coming General Assembly.

After prayer by Rev. C. B. Craig, recess was taken for luncheon.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

Rev. N. P. Farrior, chairman of the standing committee on Bills and Overtures, made report approving the suggestion made by the Moderator of the Synod of North Carolina that five members of the Presbytery be designated if need should appear for curtailment of the number attending Synod. Further consideration of this subject was deferred until the next adjourned meeting of Presbytery.

In regard to the communication from the session of the First church, Wilmington, as to desired lessening of the number of calls for special contributions, it was stated that the last General Assembly gave much consideration to this subject and the next Assembly would doubtless try to remedy the situation.

Mr. Farrior also made reference to a communication in hand concerning the Presbyterian radio program, and offered, for his committee, the following paper:

We note with satisfaction the growing support of our radio program, and direct the attention of the Presbytery and the churches to this field of usefulness in the furtherance of the Gospel.

The report of the committee was approved.

Rev. C. B. Craig, chairman of the permanent committee on the Bible Cause, made verbal report, urging contributions to the American Bible Society to aid in their extensive efforts to place Bibles and Testaments in the hands of our service men. The report was approved.

Mr. Craig, also, as chairman of the standing committee on Time and Place of Next Meeting, reported that an invitation for the next fall meeting was extended by the church of Elizabethtown. The invitation was, upon motion, accepted.

Rev. B. E. Dotson, chairman of the standing committee on the Narrative, presented a report showing the following details gathered from the reports from the churches:

The church attendance ranges from 40% to 50% of the membership. The attendance at communion services is generally about 10% or more higher than the average.

Parents seem to have been generally faithful in presenting their children for baptism. It is significant to note how many reports indicate that the observance of the family altar and the practice of tithing are not known. Some churches, however, show an impressive number of family altars. 489 are reported altogether.

The reports show 325 persons received on profession of faith and 361 by letter.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

Eleven churches report efforts having been made to secure recruits for the Gospel ministry.

Most churches report an indefinite degree of worldly conformity. The same is also true with regard to the matter of Sabbath observance.

The report was adopted.

Rev. B. F. Ormand, chairman of the standing committee on Leave of Absence, made the following report:

The following ruling elders asked to be excused after Tuesday night's and Wednesday morning's sessions: R. C. Carson, L. L. Flowers, J. T. Barden, Sr., C. L. Braddy, J. R. Maxwell, D. M. Calhoun, D. A. Blue. Dr. William Crowe, Jr., was excused after Tuesday evening, and Dr. C. R. Blain after Wednesday morning.

The report was adopted.

Rev. J. R. Kennedy, chairman of the permanent committee on Stewardship, offered report which was received.

Mr. Kennedy also, as chairman of the permanent committee on Social and Moral Welfare, made report which was received. In connection therewith, it was suggested that the churches pray earnestly for the coming conference of representatives of the United Nations in San Francisco on April 25, 1945, that God would guide them safely toward a wholesome peace.

Upon motion, Presbytery ordered that, upon its adjournment today, it be to meet in adjourned session in Wallace on Tuesday, May 29, 1945, at 2 p. m.

Rev. Cary R. Blain, D.D., chairman of the committee on Resolution of Thanks, presented the following paper, which was adopted by a rising vote:

The Presbytery of Wilmington expresses its genuine appreciation of the kind hospitality extended by the pastor, officers and people of the Chadbourn church. The many courtesies shown us, the opening of their homes to us, the fine meals served, the generous contributions of the Columbus Trading Company, the facilities offered at the American Legion hut, the opportunities provided for pleasant social contacts, have all made our stay most happy. We also express our appreciation of the excellent music furnished by Mrs. Algie Sutton, Mr. J. W. Washburn and the choir.

We leave with a warm-hearted prayer for God's blessing upon the church and all its people, and for a happy consummation of their efforts to construct a new church building.

Rev. B. E. Dotson was appointed by the Moderator to preach the doctrinal sermon at the fall meeting.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

Upon the final roll call, the following members answered to their names:

Ministers: P. L. Clark, A. J. Howell, C. C. Myers, J. R. Phipps, J. W. Miller, D. L. Jones, M. C. Macqueen, J. R. Kennedy, M. J. Murray, B. F. Ormand, C. B. Craig, A. K. Dudley, J. A. Boyd, B. E. Dotson, P. M. Cory, F. M. Bain, N. P. Farrior, C. R. Gleason, L. F. Cowan, (19); Ruling Elders: W. A. Smith, P. S. Cromartie, J. F. Davis, W. I. Hall, D. G. Alderman, W. T. Hines, H. McN. Johnson, J. M. Wells, E. W. Faires, F. S. Wilson, H. A. Parker, W. D. Thompson, A. M. Lewis, (13).

The minutes of today's sessions were read and approved.

After the singing of a hymn and a prayer by the Moderator, Mr. Kennedy, the meeting adjourned to meet in adjourned session at Wallace, N. C., on May 29th, 1945, and in regular fall session at Elizabethtown, N. C., on Tuesday, October 16th, 1945.

ADJOURNED MEETING

According to adjournment at the regular spring session, the Presbytery of Wilmington met in the Wallace Presbyterian church on Tuesday, May 29th, 1945, at 2 p. m.

The Moderator, Rev. J. R. Kennedy, was in the chair, and the meeting was constituted with prayer by Rev. W. P. M. Currie.

The following members were enrolled:

Ministers: W. P. M. Currie, A. J. Howell, J. W. Miller, D. L. Jones, J. R. Potts, M. C. MacQueen, J. R. Kennedy, M. J. Murray, B. F. Ormand, C. B. Craig, P. M. Cory, F. M. Bain, C. R. Gleason, (13).

Ruling Elders: W. I. Hall, Oak Plains. S. C. Carr, Wallace, (2).

The Stated Clerk read a letter from Candidate R. B. Spivey, who has been supplying the Elizabethtown group of churches for about three years. The Presbytery expressed appreciation of the good work that has been done during this period, and referred the letter to the commission on the Minister and His Work.

Communications from Chaplains R. H. Poole and J. G. Morrison were also referred to that commission for proper consideration.

Information was furnished Presbytery that Rev. William Crowe, Jr., D.D., chairman of Presbytery's Home Missions committee, had requested Deacon W. M. Dickson and Ruling Elder J. S. MacKenzie, of the First church, Wilmington, to visit the town of Southport and make investigation of the attitude of the congregation of the Presbyterian church there regarding the sale of its manse in 1936, about which there seemed to be some dissatisfaction.

Mr. Dickson was introduced to Presbytery and stated that the two officers had looked into the matter as desired and found a deep concern with reference to much needed repairs and improvements of the church building. He said that a suggestion was made to them that, if the Presbytery would make a present donation to the church of $600.00, which is one half of the proceeds from the sale of the manse, everything would be satisfactory to the officers of the church; it being understood that this money would be used for the work needed on the church.

Mr. Dickson also stated that he and Mr. MacKenzie gave a tentative assurance that, when the church was ready to acquire a new manse, the remaining $600.00 of the sale price would be turned over to the church toward the needed funds.

Upon motion, Presbytery expressed appreciation to Messrs. Dickson and MacKenzie for the helpful services rendered by them, and also requested the Home Missions committee to pay to the Southport congregation the $600 indicated for the work on the church building.

(For information relative to the sale of the Southport manse, see minutes of Presbytery for October, 1935, and April, 1936.)

The Presbytery also commended the Southport church for the renewed interest shown by the membership under the leadership of Candidate Jerry M. Newbold, temporary supply.

Ruling Elder W. I. Hall, of the Oak Plains church, informed Presbytery of the steps taken to provide an addition to the church building for the needs of its Sunday school. He inquired whether a contribution might be available from the funds of the Presbytery's Home Missions committee to help in the matter. Presbytery referred the subject to the pastor and congregation of the Oak Plains church for the initial handling of the request.

Rev. M. J. Murray, chairman of Presbytery's permanent committee on Religious Education, made the following nominations for membership on his committee: Rev. B. E. Dotson, Ruling Elder D. M. Calhoun and Miss Margaret Hopper to be added to the Young People's Division; all other chairmen of sub-committees to be re-elected.

Upon motion, Presbytery requested the Stated Clerk to express its sympathetic interest to Rev. E. B. Carr in the passing of Mrs. Carr and to Dr. William Crowe, Jr., in the illness of Mrs. Crowe. By request of the Moderator, Rev. M. J. Murray offered prayer for the two brethren in their distress.

Upon motion, it was ordered that Presbytery adjourn to meet in further adjourned session in the First Presbyterian church, Wilmington, on Tuesday, June 26th, at 2 p. m.

The minutes were read and approved.

The meeting adjourned with the benediction offered by the Moderator, Mr. Kennedy.

J. W. MILLER, Permanent Clerk.

ANDREW J. HOWELL, Stated Clerk.

ADJOURNED MEETING

The Presbytery of Wilmington met in a second adjourned session in the First Presbyterian church, Wilmington, on Tuesday, June 26th 1945, at 2 p. m.

Rev. J. A. Boyd, the last Moderator present, presided, and an opening prayer was offered by Rev. J. R. Potts.

The following members were in attendance:

Ministers: M. C. MacQueen, J. R. Potts, A. J. Howell, William Crowe, Jr., D.D., J. A. Boyd, P. M. Cory, C. C. Myers, D. L. Jones, M. J. Murray, L. F. Cowan, (10).

Ruling Elders: D. C. Whitted, Wilmington First; A. M. Lewis, Webb Memorial; E. A. Bender, Myrtle Grove, (3).

The following ministers were introduced to Presbytery: Rev. J. Vaughn Axtell, of Steuben-Elmira Presbytery, U. S. A., and Rev. (Chaplain) Frank M. Thompson, U. S. Army, retired.

A report of the commission appointed at the regular spring meeting to organize the Harper-Southerland church was accepted for record as follows:

The commission appointed by Presbytery to organize the Harper-Southerland church met in the church on April 19, 1945, at 8:30 p. m. Those present were Rev B. E. Dotson, chairman, Rev. D. L. Jones, Rev. F. M. Bain, and Ruling Elders L. J. Simmons and Durham Grady.

The commission was organized with prayer, and Rev. F. M. Bain was elected clerk. Mr. Bain preached a sermon on the text, Eph. 1:22, 23.

Rev. B. E. Dotson explained to the congregation the required procedure in accordance with the Book of Church Order for organizing a church.

Testimonials were presented for 51 persons who wished to unite with the church as charter members. Elder Grady propounded the covenant to them; and they gave an affirmative answer. The chairman then declared that the church had been organized according to the Word of God and the faith and order of the Presbyterian church in the United States.

The church then proceeded, with Rev. D. L. Jones presiding, to the election of officers. Three elders were chosen, namely, Harvey Harper, Johnnie Harper and Nick Smith. Three deacons were also elected, namely, Coy Smith, J. B. Southerland and Willie

A communication was read from Rev. N. N. Fleming, Stated Clerk of Orange Presbytery, requesting Wilmington Presbytery to send a representative to a meeting of his Presbytery to be held in Hawfields church on September 5, 1945, in celebration of the 175th anniversary of Orange Presbytery; the representative to bring greetings from Wilmington Presbytery. Upon motion, Rev. Andrew J. Howell was elected for this purpose, with Rev. J. A. Boyd alternate.

Information was furnished Presbytery of the death of the mother of Rev. P. L. Clark in Burgaw several days ago. The Stated Clerk was requested to write a letter to Mr. Clark conveying the sympathy and brotherly feeling of the Presbytery in his bereavement.

A certificate of dismissal for Rev. J. Vaughan Axtell from the Steuben-Elmira Presbytery, U. S. A., to Wilmington Presbytery was read and found in order. Motion was made that Mr. Axtell be received as a member of Wilmington Presbytery, pending the examination required by the Book of Church Order. The various parts of the examination were submitted to him and accepted as satisfactory; and the questions required (Ch 15, Par. 74) were submitted and answered affirmatively. Upon motion, therefore, it was ordered that the name of Mr. Axtell be enrolled upon his signing the usual obligation.

(It was noted that Mr. Axtell has been assigned as Stated Supply of Webb Memorial and Wildwood churches by the commission on the Minister and His Work.)

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

Chaplain (Colonel) Frank M. Thompson, retired, was presented by Rev. William Crowe, Jr., D. D., who recited his favorable acquaintance with Chaplain Thompson since early last fall, and of Chaplain Thompson's desire to be received as a member of Wilmington Presbytery.

Presbytery thereupon received from Chaplain Thompson evidence of his being a member in good standing of the Methodist Conference of Baltimore, and of his continued connection therewith through 28 years of chaplaincy in the army. The chaplain also furnished information as to his graduation from Allegheny college in 1906 with the degree of A. B. and from Boston University School of Religion with the degree of S. T. B.

Presbytery proceeded to examine Chaplain Thompson on the subjects specified in Par. 74, Ch. 15, Book of Church Order; and, upon approval of the several parts of the examination and a satisfactory response to the questions required to be submitted to him, Chaplain Thompson was accepted as a member of Wilmington Presbytery, and his name ordered to be enrolled upon his signing the required obligation.

Upon motion, Chaplain Thompson was commended to the commission on the Minister and His Work for assignment to duty as occasion might arise.

Candidate Daniel Burke Kerr was present and made request that he be examined for licensure to preach the Gospel.

Rev. D. L. Jones, chairman of the committee on Christian Education and Ministerial Relief, stated that his committee had approved papers submitted by the candidate, viz., a thesis, an exegesis and a popular lecture; and the same were accepted as satisfactory by the Presbytery. Evidence of graduation from Davidson college and Union Theological seminary was also accepted in lieu of examination on various specified subjects of education.

Presbytery examined the candidate as to the other required subjects named in Par. 112, Book of Church Order, and heard a sermon by him. Upon motion, the examination, as to the several parts and as a whole, was accepted as satisfactory.

Mr. Kerr was thereupon duly licensed as a probationer for the Gospel ministry in form provided; and the exercises closed with prayer and words of encouragement by the Moderator.

The Presbytery records the licensure as follows:

At the First Presbyterian church, Wilmington, N. C., the 26th day of June, 1945, the Presbytery of Wilmington, having received testimonials commending Daniel Burke Kerr, and evidence of his being a communicant of the church, of his good moral character, and of his having pursued suitable courses of study, proceeded to submit him to the prescribed tests for licensure, which were met to the approval of the Presbytery. On his satisfactorily answering the questions appointed to be put to applicants for licensure, Daniel Burke Kerr was licensed by the Presbytery to preach the Gospel as a probationer for the ministry within the bounds of this Presbytery, or wherever he shall in an orderly way be invited to preach.

Candidate John D. MacLeod informed Presbytery that he had been advised by the Stated Clerk of Fayetteville Presbytery that a letter transferring him as a candidate to the Presbytery of Wilmington had been issued. The statement was accepted by the Presbytery; and, upon his request, steps were taken looking to his ordination to the ministry.

(The letter has since been received. Stated Clerk).

Required papers were submitted by him, viz., thesis, exegesis and a popular lecture; and the Presbytery was informed by Rev. D. L. Jones, chairman of the committee on Christian Education and Ministerial Relief, that the same had been duly examined and approved. Presbytery thereupon, upon motion, duly accepted them as satisfactory parts of trial. Evidence, also, of graduation from Davidson college and Union Theological seminary was accepted in lieu of examination on academic and theological subjects named in the Book of Church Order. Examination on other named subjects was submitted to to the candidate, and his responses were accepted as satisfactory. The examination as a whole was then voted to be satisfactory.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

In view of the urgent need for his prospective services, and upon expression of his desire for same, Presbytery accepted the examination of Mr. MacLeod for licensure as satisfactory for his ordination, and appointed a commission to continue the proceedings, including the hearing of a sermon by him, and ordain him as a minister of the Gospel to serve as an evangelist. The commission named is as follows:

Rev. William Crowe, Jr., D.D., to preside, Chaplain F. M. Thompson to charge the minister, Rev. Andrew J. Howell to charge the people; and Ruling Elders John Hall and A. F. Nichol. The exercises to be held in the Myrtle Grove church on Sunday evening, July 1st, at 8 p. m.

The minutes were read and approved, and the meeting closed with prayer by Rev. J. R. Potts.

Howell, who was named by the Presbytery to convey its greetings to Orange Presbytery at the celebration of its 175th anniversary, reported that he was unable to attend (as was also Rev. J. A. Boyd, alternate). Presbytery, however, accepted for record the following written message prepared by Mr. Howell to be read by him on that occasion, viz.:

GREETINGS FROM WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

to the

PRESBYTERY OF ORANGE

September 5th, (1770), 1945.

The Presbytery of Wilmington enters heartily into the good wishes extended to the Presbytery of Orange on its 175th anniversary. A century and three quarters of constant and faithful service deserves cordial greetings; for it means a great contribution to the Christian faith in North Carolina and elsewhere. It has supplied a strong element in the development of the Presbyterian church in our midst.

Wilmington Presbytery is glad that it has grown out of the fine succession of Presbyteries from Hanover Presbytery in colonial days and continuing through the Presbyteries of Orange and Fayetteville. From the last we were set off in 1868. We know that from the earliest days your Presbytery had a care for Presbyterianism in our southeastern district, in which numerous Scotch and Scotch-Irish settlers found their homes. Although these often encountered all but insurmountable difficulties in establishing churches of their denomination in the new land, they clung to a good and hopeful type of Scotch Presbyterianism; and they have left their marks throughout our bounds. The obstacles in their way were largely ecclesiastical.

You appreciated the labors of Rev. James Tate and Rev. William Bingham, who held to their membership in their Presbytery in Ireland, and other early ministers, mostly from Scotland, who enlisted with Orange Presbytery to work in our section. These all gave their strength and loyalty to the spreading Presbyterian influence which made its way through practically all of eastern North Carolina.

There were also Hugh McAden, James Campbell and others whom you inherited from Hanover Presbytery, and who established some of our oldest churches. The records of all these are with Orange Presbytery, but we feel they are our very own, although we share them also with our mother Presbytery of Fayetteville. We esteem highly the memory and traditions of their ministry.

Your Presbytery met several times in what is now the territory of Wilmington Presbytery. No doubt the minutes of several of these meetings were destroyed in the loss by fire of your early records. There was at least one called meeting to be held in the town of Wilmington itself.

We treasure especially the history of the labors of Rev. Robert Tate, who came as a missionary to our district in 1796 upon his licensure by your Presbytery in the Hawfields church at the age of 21. He died at the patriarchal age of ninety years in 1865, beloved and honored in many of our congregations. There were many other ministers of post-Revolutionary days who were members of Orange Presbytery, and who laid the foundations for many of our churches.

The reasons for our affectionate interest in our old parental Presbytery of Orange are legion, and we are grateful that we, along with Fayetteville and Concord, your daughter Presbyteries, have a clear interest in your earliest history and your faithful service through all the succeeding years. You have a fine heritage in Pattillo, Caldwell, Craighead, Campbell, Alexander, Cresswell, the Balches and their contemporaries, whose names stand for the fervent early interest which yet gives inspiration to us. We glory in the achievements of those who sowed the good seed that has brought forth such a great harvest in our Presbyterian church in North Carolina. You enlisted noble pioneers who builded wisely for those who might follow them. We are thankful for their labors, and we appreciate our descent from Orange Presbytery.

May God enrich your hearts greatly today, as you pause at this another blessed Ebenezer and face the honors and privileges that await you in the future.

By direction of the Presbytery of Wilmington.

A communication was read from Dr. J. R. Cunningham, President of Davidson college, addressed to Rev. J. Robt. Phipps, giving assurance of careful oversight of certain social affairs of the student body.

Recess was taken for luncheon after the hearing of announcements and a prayer by Rev. B. F. Ormand.

were sustained as satisfactory; and he was accepted as a member of Wilmington Presbytery, to be enrolled upon his signing the usual obligation.

The commission also presented a call for the pastoral services of Dr. Witherspoon from the St. Andrews-Covenant church, Wilmington. The same was found to be in order, and it was placed in his hands.

The Presbytery, by rising vote, extended a welcome to Dr. Witherspoon as a member.

Rev. J. R. Potts presented a petition signed by 65 persons of the Penderlea community asking to be organized into a Presbyterian church. After favorable remarks from two of the signers and members of Presbytery, the petition was granted, and the following commission was appointed to effect the organization: Revs. J. R. Potts, M. J. Murray and J. G. Morrison, with Ruling Elders C. O. Bollinger and E. W. Faires; any two ministers and one ruling elder to constitute a quorum. The time of the exercises and parts to be taken were left to the pleasure of the commission.

The Presbytery stood as an expression of appreciation of the fruitful labors of Rev. J. R. Potts in developing the work leading to the organization of a promising church.

Rev. B. F. Ormand took the chair at the request of the Moderator.

Upon motion of Rev. C. B. Craig, Presbytery took order that it would hold four meetings a year instead of the spring and fall meetings only. The matter was referred to the standing committee on Bills and Overtures for further suggestions.

The permanent committee on Social and Moral Welfare, through Rev. C. C. Myers, chairman, reported that no matters had been presented to them for consideration.

Rev. C. B. Craig, chairman of the permanent committee on the Bible Cause, offered the following report, which was adopted:

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

We all recognize the importance of this work at home and abroad, and we urge that each of our pastors earnestly present the Bible Cause on the Universal Bible Sunday, December 2nd.

The observance last year of the nation-wide Bible reading period from Thanksgiving until Christmas was very fruitful and widely observed. We trust it will be again successful.

The budget support of the Bible Cause is only .5%. Therefore, many churches and Sunday Schools are pleased to supplement the contributions given to it.

Upon motion, Rev. B. F. Ormand was added to the committee on Nominations, to fill a vacancy.

Rev. C. C. Myers, chairman, made report regarding the subject of Synod's Home Missions. It was received as information.

After a prayer by Rev. W. H. Allison, recess was taken for several minutes until the next regular order.

4 p. m. Rev. B. F. Ormand, chairman, presented the cause of Foreign Missions. A prayer was offered by Rev. N. P. Farrior, and the chairman presented the following recommendations:

1. Once again we would call the Presbytery's attention to the acute and critical shortage in personnel. Last year the Assembly sent out the call for 100 new missionaries. During the year fifteen new missionaries were sent out, but there was a loss of thirteen by retirement and death, hence a net gain of only two. All types of workers are needed: evangelists, teachers, doctors, nurses, industrial men, business managers, office workers, dietitians. and the like.

We therefore recommend that the Presbytery issue a summons in the name of Christ to the youth of our church, to the students in our colleges and seminaries, to our younger ministers and laymen, and plead for their prayerful confronting of the call of the Master to the fields abroad. Furthermore, realizing that most missionaries make their decision early in life, we would have the Presbytery lay upon the hearts of parents and Sunday School teachers their responsibility for creating a missionary passion in the hearts of the children of our church.

2. That the churches in the Presbytery take a special offering for the Far East's Re-occupational Fund, with the elders and deacons taking the lead in this campaign.

3. That every church in the Presbytery, with its organizations, be asked to observe January 27-February 3, 1946, as the Week of

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

Prayer and Self-denial for Foreign Missions, and all sessions be urged to arrange for supplemental offerings in the churches.

4. That our churches cooperate with other Protestant denominations in the study of the great continent of Africa in the heart of which for more than fifty years we have labored. Africa has been skyrocketed into the lime-light by the atomic bomb; for the Congo is one of the two known sources of uranium, the metal used in its construction. Books and materials for all groups and ages are available.

The report was accepted and the recommendations adopted.

The chairman presented Rev. D. Lee Williamson, one of our member-missionaries to Brazil, who delivered a very instructive and impressive address on the general religious situation there and his own part in Protestant missionary efforts. At his conclusion prayer was offered by Rev. W. F. Junkin, Jr.

Rev. P. M. Cory made request that Presbytery grant him a certificate of dismissal to the Presbytery of Winchester, from which he received a call; the dismissal involving the dissolution of his relationship as stated supply in the Cape Fear Presbyterian church. His request was granted. In connection therewith, words of appreciation were spoken by Ruling Elder A. F. Queen, of the Cape Fear church, and other members of Presbytery for the excellent work done by Mr. Cory. The effective date of the dissolution was named as November 1st.

Presbytery gave a rising vote of thanks in expression of its appreciation of Mr. Cory's fruitful services in his field. The Stated Clerk was also directed to send a letter of commendation of him to Winchester Presbytery.

Rev. William Crowe, Jr., D.D., chairman of Presbytery's Home Missions committee, made mention of matters connected with the work of his committee, and stated that it was expected that Rev. L. A. Taylor, the newly elected Executive Secretary of the Presbytery, would arrive for his duties within the next week. The engagement of Mr. Taylor was effected by the special committee appointed for selecting the Secretary.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

The standing committee on Bills and Overtures, through Rev. N. P. Farrior, chairman, presented the following report:

1. That for four stated meetings of Wilmington Presbytery during the year, instead of the spring and fall stated meetings indicated in the manual of the Presbytery, one meeting be held on Tuesday after the second Sunday each in January, April, July and October.

2. That the committee recommends that the salary of the Stated Clerk and Treasurer of Presbytery be $200 a year, instead of the present $125. (This matter has not come to the attention of the committee through formal channels, but it has been suggested to the Presbytery more than once, and we take this occasion to present it as a formal recommendation).

The report was adopted, and the Presbytery appointed Revs. Andrew J. Howell, J. W. Miller and B. F. Ormand as a special committee to arrange details and a docket for the new order of meetings. It was also ordered that the increased salary of the Stated Clerk and Treasurer be retroactive to April 1, 1945.

After announcements and a prayer by Rev. W. H. Allison, recess was taken until the evening session.

TUESDAY EVENING

7:30 p. m. "Laymen's Hour" was observed according to the docket. Ruling Elder R. V. Wells member of the Presbytery's committee on that subject, presided, and Ruling Elder J. B. Huntington led in prayer.

Rev. W. F. Junkin, Jr., according to the docket, delivered a stirring address on the subject of his experience for more than three years as a prisoner of the Japanese in the Philippines, and in anticipation of his engaging in missionary work in China in the near future.

Ruling Elder Huntington made report as chairman of Presbytery's permanent committee on Evangelism, including the following recommendations:

1. That the program of visitation evangelism be given special emphasis by our churches as supplemental to any other method used.
2. That Presbytery endorse the plan of using the "laboratory method" to study and carry through a week of visitation evangelism. inviting Dr. H. H. Thompson, the Assembly's chairman on Evangelism, to visit our Presbytery for the indicated period of preparation.
3. That Presbytery adopt a goal of one profession of faith for every ten members of the church.
4. That each minister and ruling elder in the Presbytery endeavor to speak to one unchurched soul each week.
5. That we engage in a season of prayer for the cause of Evangelism.

The report was approved and the recommendations adopted.

Rev. M. C. MacQueen offered prayer for the Lord's blessing on the work of Evangelism.

Deacon W. M. Boice, chairman of the permanent committee on Stewardship, made report, which was adopted as follows:

- I. Total benevolent contributions for the year 1944-45 amounted to $80,622.00, representing an overpayment on the budget of $53,000.00.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

Upon motion, the special order on the docket for tomorrow morning at 10:30 was changed to enable the permanent committee on Religious Education to present Miss Sarah Little, who will speak in the interest of Sunday School Extension; and fixing the time for the report on Educational Institutions at 12 m.

After hearing announcements and a prayer by Rev. W. P. M. Currie, Presbytery adjourned until tomorrow.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 17

9:30 a. m. Presbytery observed a devotional period conducted by Rev. J. V. Axtell, based on Matt. 17:1-8.

The following members were enrolled: Rev. John D. MacLeod, and Ruling Elders C. O. Bollinger, Willard; E. S. Williams, Rockfish; E. A. Bender, Myrtle Grove.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

Rev. H. G. Bedinger, D.D., of Fayetteville Presbytery, was introduced to Presbytery and invited to sit as a visiting brother.

Rev. F. M. Bain, of the permanent committee on the Orphans' Home, made report as to that institution, which was received as information.

Rev. C. R. Gleason made motion that the Stated Clerk get in touch with the Rev. L. A. Watts, the state prison chaplain, to inquire how our Presbytery may best co-operate with him in making the most practicable arrangements for working for men in prison camps in our state, and to assure him of our whole-hearted support. The motion was adopted.

Rev. B. E. Dotson made report as to his attendance as commissioner on the General Assembly in May. Report was also received from Ruling Elder W. A. Smith, commissioner. Diligence of the commissioners was commended.

10:30 a. m. Rev. M. J. Murray, chairman of the permanent committee on Religious Education, presented the annual report of his committee; pending the consideration of which he introduced Miss Sarah Little, Sunday school extension worker for the Synod's committee, who delivered a helpful address as to the inviting possibilities for establishing new Sunday schools.

The report of the committee was adopted, and the Presbytery by standing vote expressed its appreciation of Miss Little's address.

The report is as follows:

Your committee of Religious Education, in making its annual report, would voice its gratitude to Almighty God for His blessing upon its work and would seek His guidance for better service in the field of Religious Education in the coming months. With the war now over many of the conditions that have hindered our work during the past years will be removed. The possibility for more effective service in Religious Education will be open to us now and we should push ahead in this important work with greater zeal and aggressiveness.

Two meetings of your committee have been held since the spring meeting of Presbytery. Both of these meetings were well attended and resulted in some worthwhile accomplishments that will be shown in the reports of the sub-committees. ,

Reports of the Sub-Committees follow:

CHILDREN'S DIVISION:—Rev. J. A. Boyd, chairman. Reports have been received from 34 churches holding vacation Bible schools during the summer of 1945. These schools report an attendance of 2094 children and 439 workers, making a total enrollment of 2533. There may have been other schools held which have not been reported. While these reports represent an increase in the number of schools held and enrollment over the past year, we note that at least 35 of our churches do not report having held a vacation Bible school this year. This means that over half of our churches did not have a vacation Bible school this year.

We are grateful to Synod's committee for supplying our Presbytery with two trained workers to help our churches in this important work.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S DIVISION:—Rev. M. C. MacQueen, chairman. A very fine and well attendend spring rally for our young people was held in the Westminster church at Whiteville on April 15, 1945. Well over two hundred young people and adult advisors were present. Instead of holding a fall rally, there will be held in the First church of Wilmington on the first week-end in November a meeting of the Presidents and Adult Advisors of all the local leagues for study and preparation for the new year's work.

An effective retreat was held at White Lake in September by the Young People's council of the Presbytery. Another meeting of the council will be held in December. Miss Mary Blue was nominated to succeed Miss Margaret Hopper as Adult Advisor of Presbytery's council.

The Young People's conference of the Presbytery was held at Peace college the week of July 9-14. 91 delegates and 21 faculty members and councillors were in attendance. The main feature of the conference was the unusually fine vesper addresses by Rev. William F. Junkin, Jr. As a result of these and the general influence of the conference, a number of young people declared their intention to become ministers, missionaries and Religious Education workers.

Under the splendid leadership of Rev. B. F. Ormand our Presbytery's first Pioneer camp was held at Lake Singletary the week of June 25-30. 89 Pioneers and 14 faculty members and councillors attended the camp. The results of the camp were so good that we hope to make this an annual part of the work of this division of the committee.

The financial statements of the Young People's conference and Pioneer camp will be shown at the end of the committee's report.

ADULT DIVISION:—Rev. D. L. Jones, chairman. We have no special report of this division. As Mr. Jones has left the Presbytery, we will have to appoint a new chairman for this sub-committee.

LEADERSHIP TRAINING DIVISION:—Rev. J. W. Miller, chairman. Permanent Leadership Training classes are being held at the present time in the Graves Memorial church, Clinton, and the First Presbyterian church of Wilmington. We hope to push this feature of our work more, now that the war is over and travel restrictions are being lifted.

ORGANIZATION AND EXTENSION DIVISION:—Rev. J. R. Kennedy, chairman. There are now 12 outpost Sunday schools being conducted in our Presbytery. As this is "Chapel Year" in our church, other churches are urged to establish new outposts.

BIBLE IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS DIVISION:—Rev. Wm. Crowe, Jr., chairman. The Bible is now being taught in a number of the public schools in our Presbytery. Our churches should strive to establish courses in Bible in the schools of other communities.

We recommend:

1. That all of the churches of our Presbytery join in the United Religious Education Advance and put the emphasis this year on reaching the community for Christ.

2. That Leadership Training schools or classes be held in the churches of our Presbytery.

3. That our churches seek out neglected communities and establish in them outpost Sunday schools. That the Presbytery accept a goal of 7 new outposts for the present church year.

4. That every church and Sunday school be urged to hold a Vacation Bible school next year.

5. That a Young People's conference and a Pioneer camp be held next summer.

6. That every church be urged to observe Young People's night on November 11, 1945.

Edward J. Humphrey, Scott York Pharr, Robert Willis Pope,
Jerry M. Newbold, James Albert Jerritt, John Aaron Bender, (6).

ADJOURNED MEETING

The Presbytery of Wilmington met in adjourned session, as ordered, in the First Presbyterian church, Wilmington, on Tuesday, November 6th, 1945, at 11 a. m., and was called to order by the Moderator, Rev. J. G. Morrison. An opening prayer was offered by Rev. J. S. Crowley.

After singing of the hymn "Blest Be the Tie That Binds," the meeting proceeded to business.

The following members were enrolled:

Ministers: A. J. Howell, C. C. Myers, J. W. Miller, J. S. Crowley, M. C. MacQueen, J. G. Morrison, J. R. Kennedy, M. J. Murray, B. F. Ormand, C. B. Craig, William Crowe, Jr., D.D., B. E. Dotson, N. P. Farrior, C. R. Gleason, L. F. Cowan, W. H. Allison, F. M. Thompson, E. D. Witherspoon, Th.D., (18); Ruling Elders: Melzar Pearsall, Pearsall Memorial; L. E. Hall, St. Andrews-Covenant; S. G. Withers, Cape Fear; A. D. Summey, Wilmington First; E. A. Bender, Myrtle Grove, (5).

A communication was read from Rev. L. A. Watts, Chaplain of State Prison Camps, in response to a letter from the Presbytery of October 17th; his letter suggesting several ways in which the ministers of the Presbytery may be of help in religious services for the prisoners. Upon motion, the matter was referred to a special committee, consisting of Rev. C. R. Gleason, Rev. B. F. Ormond, Rev. J. G. Morrison and Ruling Elder W. G. Prevatte, to take any desired steps toward the object desired.

Rev. L. A. Taylor, of Norfolk Presbytery, was introduced to the Presbytery and was accorded a rising vote of welcome to the meeting.

The Stated Clerk read a certificate in due form dismissing Mr. Taylor from the Presbytery of Norfolk to the Presbytery of Wilmington. The same was accepted by the Presbytery, pending the examination required by the Book of Church Order. He was thereupon examined on Experimental Religion by Rev. William Crowe, Jr., D.D., on Theology by Rev. Andrew J. Howell, and on Church Government by Rev. N. P. Farrior. These examinations, severally and as a whole, were approved by the Presbytery as satisfactory; and Mr. Taylor's name was ordered to be enrolled upon his signing the usual obligation.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

A letter of commendation was read by the Stated Clerk from Rev. W. W. Grover, Stated Clerk of Norfolk Presbytery, giving expression to the high esteem in which Mr. Taylor was held in his Presbytery.

By request, Dr. Crowe, of the special committee charged with securing an Executive Secretary, spoke with reference to the expected services of this office, to which Mr. Taylor had been called; making statement that the details of the proposed arrangement of activities had not been definitely concluded. Upon motion, the special committee was continued for the purpose of furthering the desired arrangement of duties.

Upon motion, it was directed that a formal call, through regular channels, be extended to Mr. Taylor for the office of Executive Secretary, and that he be installed in the office at the regular meeting of January 15th, 1946.

The minutes were read and approved; and, after a prayer by Rev. B. E. Dotson, the meeting adjourned.

J. W. MILLER, Permanent Clerk.

ANDREW J. HOWELL, Stated Clerk.

CALLED MEETING

The Presbytery of Wilmington met in called session in the Wallace Presbyterian church at 11 o'clock on Tuesday, December 18th, 1945.

The Moderator, Rev. J. G. Morrison, was in the chair, and the meeting opened with prayer by Rev. P. L. Clark.

The following members were enrolled:

Ministers: J. G. Morrison, J. R. Potts, P. L. Clark, F. M. Bain, W. P. M. Currie, M. J. Murray, L. A. Taylor, L. F. Cowan, A. J. Howell, (9); Ruling Elders: C. O. Bollinger, Willard; E. W. Faires, Wallace, (2).

The Moderator's call for the meeting, dated December 11th, was read as follows:

The constitutional requirements having been complied with, I hereby call a meeting of Wilmington Presbytery to be held in the Wallace Presbyterian church on Tuesday, December 18th, at 11 o'clock for the purpose of dissolving the pastoral relations between the Rev. M. J. Murray and the Wallace church; and of giving him a letter of dismission to Lexington Presbytery, together with any other matters that might grow out of this business.

(Signed) J. G. MORRISON, Moderator.

The call was found to be in order, except that the ten days notice required by the Book of Church Order was not fulfilled. Nevertheless, Presbytery voted to consider the business indicated without final action at this time.

Ruling Elder E. W. Faires was requested to act as temporary clerk.

Mr. Murray made statement that he had resigned his pastorate of the Wallace church on December 2nd, and requested that the Presbytery dissolve his pastoral relation and furnish him a certificate of dismission to the Presbytery of Lexington in order that he might enter upon the pastorate of the Buena Vista, Va., Presbyterian church, to which he had been called.

Ruling Elders John Powell and E. W. Faires and Roy Carter, Deacon, of the Wallace church, constituting a committee appointed, furnished information that the congregation of the church, with deep regret, and in accordance with the pastor's desire, voted to accept his resignation and concur with him in his request for the dissolution of the pastorate.

Remarks were also heard from Rev. Messrs. Potts, Clark, Bain, Taylor, Howell and Morrison, expressing a cordial commendation of the useful labors of Mr. Murray in his church and in the Presbytery, and prayerful wishes of the brethren in the Presbytery for him in his new field of service.

On account of the insufficient time for giving notice of the meeting, Presbytery voted to adjourn for a further meeting to take the required action; the adjourned session to be held in the St. Andrews-Covenant church, Wilmington, on Friday, December 21st, at 11 a. m.

The minutes thus far taken were read and approved, and the meeting closed with prayer by Rev. F. M. Bain.

E. W. FAIRES, Temporary Clerk.

ANDREW J. HOWELL, Stated Clerk.

ADJOURNED SESSION

The Presbytery met, according to adjournment on the 18th, in St. Andrews-Covenant church on Friday, December 21st, at 11 a. m. The Moderator, Rev. J. G. Morrison, presided, and prayer was offered by Rev. F. M. Thompson.

The following members were present:

Ministers: J. G. Morrison, E. D. Witherspoon, Th.D., L. A. Taylor, A. J. Howell, F. M. Thompson, (5); Ruling Elders: J. T. Barden, Winter Park; J. B. Huntington, St. Andrews-Covenant, (2).

The Stated Clerk read the minutes of the meeting of the 18th, and the Moderator opened the subject for which the meeting was called.

Motion was made that the pastoral relation between Rev. M. J. Murray and the Wallace Presbyterian church be dissolved, and that he be granted a certificate of dismission to the Presbytery of Lexington; pending the adoption of which further remarks were made by the brethren expressive of the sense of loss in the departure of Mr. Murray and of their good wishes for a happy service in his new field.

The motion prevailed, and the Stated Clerk was directed to furnish the desired certificate and write to the Presbytery of Lexington a letter of commendation of Mr. Murray for his fellowship in that Presbytery.

The minutes were read and approved, and, after prayer by Ruling Elder Huntington, the meeting adjourned.

ANDREW J. HOWELL, Stated Clerk.

The meeting was called to order by the Moderator, Rev. J. G. Morrison, and was constituted with prayer by Ruling Elder J. B. Huntington.

At the request of the Moderator, the opening sermon was delivered by Rev. J. R. Kennedy on the text Luke 6:38.

The pastor of the Mt. Olive church, Rev. B. E. Dotson, spoke words of welcome to the Presbytery and made announcements for the day.

The commission appointed by Presbytery to install Rev. E. D. Witherspoon, Th.D., as pastor of St. Andrews-Covenant church, Wilmington, met in the session room of the church on Sunday morning, November 18th, 1945, at 10:45. There were present: Rev. The meeting was opened with prayer by the chairman, Dr. Crowe, and Ruling Elder Pearsall was requested to act as clerk.

In accordance with the program arranged, the chairman presided in the exercises of worship, and announced to the congregation the installation service. A sermon was preached by Dr. J. W. Witherspoon on the subject of "The Eternal Flame," based on Leviticus 6:13.

The constitutional questions were propounded by the chairman, who also delivered a charge to the pastor. Dr. Fairly gave the charge to the congregation; and a prayer for God's blessing upon pastor and people was delivered by Dr. J. W. Witherspoon.

After the singing of a hymn and the benediction pronounced by Rev. E. D. Witherspoon, Th.D., the pastor, the public exercises closed.

The commission re-assembled, and the minutes were read and approved. The business of the commission concluded with the offering of a prayer by Dr. J. W. Witherspoon.

MELZAR PEARSALL, Clerk.

Two communications were read from the pastor and session of the First church of Wilmington with reference to the subject of the re-marriage of divorced persons, and the same were referred to the standing committee on Bills and Overtures.

A letter from the pastor of the same church, Dr. William Crowe, Jr., D.D., furnished information as to the intention of Candidate Edward J. Humphrey to resume his studies for the Gospel ministry. This information was conveyed to the permanent committee on Christian Education and Ministerial Relief.

The matter of the request of the General Assembly that Presbyteries express an opinion as to the subject of proposed Co-operation and Union with the Presbyterian church, U. S. A., was brought to the attention of the Presbytery; and a special committee was named to study the subject and bring in a report for consideration at the next regular meeting in April. The committee appointed is as follows: Rev. William Crowe, Jr., D.D., Rev. L. A. Taylor, Rev. E. D. Witherspoon, Th.D., Ruling Elders J. B. Huntington and G. Dudley Humphrey.

According to special order, Ruling Elder J. B. Huntington, chairman of the permanent committee on Evangelism, made report as to his subject and presented as a specially invited speaker, Dr. E. E. Gillespie, Superintendent of Home Missions for the Synod, who delivered a forceful address on the subject of "Visitation Evangelism." Upon motion, Presbytery approved the report of the chairman and expressed by standing vote its appreciation to Dr. Gillespie for his stirring words. Rev. M. C. MacQueen offered a prayer.

After prayer by Dr. Gillespie, recess was taken until 2:15 p. m.

2:15 P. M. The meeting resumed with the singing of a hymn, and was led in prayer by Rev. F. M. Bain.

The Presbytery noted the recent death of Rev. John R. Potts, and stood in honor of his memory. At the request of the Moderator, Rev. Andrew J. Howell offered an appropriate prayer.

The Stated Clerk read a brief sketch of the life of the departed brother, which was accepted for record as follows:

Rev. John Ralph Potts, esteemed member of Wilmington Presbytery, died in a hospital in Wilmington, N. C., on January 6th, 1946, in the seventy-eighth year of his age. He was born in Washington, N. C., on March 11th, 1868, the son of William Abner and Mrs. Josephine L. Potts.

He was ordained to the Gospel ministry rather late in life, by the Presbytery of Macon in 1924, after a period of private study under the tutelage of private instructors (Revs. J. T. Plunkett and S. A. Cartledge). Previously he had served as a telegraph operator, especially for the Associated Press; but he had shown special interest in religious work and ability as a preacher. After his ordination he served as pastor of churches in Columbus, Ga., and in Madison and Stoneville, North Carolina. He was then assigned to evangelistic work in the eastern section of North Carolina. He came to the Presbytery of Wilmington in 1937, and was stated supply of several groups, first in the Southport, New Hope and Sweet Home churches, then in the Rockfish and Willard churches, and more recently in the Chinquapin and Bethel group. His latest residence was in Wallace, N. C.

Mr. Potts was a very useful and energetic minister. His ability as a ready speaker remained with him until his end. His words were choice, and his sermons often bore the touch of oratory. He was at his best in evangelistic services, and was always glad to hold such meetings, even though his health was impaired in recent years. His crowning work was the establishment of a church at Penderlea, N. C., (a government settlement community), which was organized under his leadership. It was named the Potts Memorial Presbyterian church in his honor. When he learned of the name, his heart was filled with grateful joy.

He is survived by a daughter each in Savannah, Ga., and Raleigh, N. C., and a son in Syracuse, N. Y.

ANDREW J. HOWELL.

The Moderator announced the appointment of a standing committee on Bills and Overtures as follows: Revs. N. P. Farrior and P. L. Clark (members of committee serving at the last fall meeting), with Rev. C. B. Craig and Ruling Elder F. B. Johnson added. He also announced a committee on Resolution of Thanks, consisting of Rev. C. R. Gleason and Ruling Elder Paul E. Smith.

The exercises for the installation of Rev. L. A. Taylor as Executive Secretary of the Presbytery, docketed for the morning session, having been postponed, the same was now called up. Dr. William Crowe, Jr., chairman of the special committee which arranged for the engagement of Mr. Taylor, presided and presented a formal call for him, in accordance with the action taken at the meeting of November 6th, 1945. The call was duly accepted.

Dr. Crowe read the constitutional questions used for the installation of a pastor, adapted with wording for the new office; and received responses from the Secretary and the Presbytery. Upon request, Rev. Andrew J. Howell delivered a charge to the new officer, and Dr. Crowe delivered a charge to the Presbytery. The exercises closed with a prayer by Rev. M. C. MacQueen.

In the absence of the chairman of the permanent committee on Christian Education and Ministerial Relief, Rev. William Crowe, Jr., D.D., member of the committee, made a report which was accepted as information.

Rev. A. K. Dudley, chairman of the permanent committee on Orphans' Home, made a report giving information as to the Barium Springs home, which was accepted. By request, Rev. J. A. Boyd offered prayer for the children in the orphanage.

Rev. J. R. Kennedy, on behalf of the permanent committee on Stewardship, made announcement of stewardship conferences to be held in various parts of the Presbytery as follows: St. Andrews-Covenant, Wilmington, Feb. 19; Elizabethtown Feb. 20; Wallace Feb. 21, and Jacksonville Feb. 22.

Rev. L. A. Taylor, Executive Secretary, gave information relative to receipts and allotments of funds from the Home Mission Emergency fund of the General Assembly, with prospective use thereof.

Rev. M. C. MacQueen, chairman of the commission on the Minister and His Work, made report for the commission, including information relative to the calling of pastors for the Warsaw and Faison groups.

Rev. L. F. Cowan offered to the Presbytery his resignation as pastor of the Woodburn church and requested a certificate of dismissal to Mecklenburg Presbytery to enable him to accept a call to the Stanfield group of churches. Mr. M. F. Jones, of the Woodburn church, furnished information as to a congregational meeting which reluctantly voted concurrence in the pastor's request for dissolution of his pastorate. After several members spoke words of commendation of Mr. Cowan, and of reluctance to have him leave, Presbytery voted the dissolution, effective January 31st, and granted the request for the certificate of dismissal. The Stated Clerk was asked to write a letter expressing the appreciation of the faithful services of Mr. Cowan while in our midst.

Rev. N. P. Farrior, chairman of the committee on Bills and Overtures, made report for his committee, which was adopted as follows:

We recommend the approval and adoption of parts of the petition from the First church, Wilmington, as follows:

"Inasmuch as the evil of divorce threatens in the post-war era to be greatly increased over the alarming trend of the past generation, and inasmuch as the practice of our ministers in regard to the remarriage of divorced persons is often affected by differences of opinion among ministers and by local pressure, the session of the First Presbyterian church of Wilmington respectfully petitions the Presbytery of Wilmington to send an overture to the General Assembly", (requesting that churches) "Provide plans for the churches to keep prominently displayed in their vestibules a supply of the pamphlet 'Marriage and Divorce', prepared by the order of the General Assembly of 1942, or some other educational pamphlet on this theme that the Assembly would cause to be prepared."

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

We also recommend the adoption by the Presbytery of the following items in the second petition from the session of the First church, Wilmington, viz.:

"We respectfully petition the Presbytery to:

"1. Appoint an ad-interim committee to study the practice of the ministers of the Presbytery with regard to the re-marriage of divorced persons and to report to the next meeting of Presbytery.

"5. Request the sessions in the Presbytery to secure from the Assembly's committee on Religious Education a sufficient supply of the pamphlet entitled 'Marriage and Divorce' to keep in the vestibules of the churches for free distribution to worshipers. This pamphlet, prepared by Dr. Dunbar H. Ogden, is excellent for educational purposes."

We also present for consideration, without recommendation, the following items in the petition:

"2. Enlarge the present permanent committee on Divorce and Re-marriage so as to serve the various geographical areas of the Presbytery.

"3. Comply with the instructions of the General Assembly of 1938, namely, 'That each Presbytery urge all of its ministers to refrain from officiating in the marriage of any divorced persons until said committee shall have declared the proposed marriage to be within the law of the church.

"4. Delete the parenthetical description 'Advisory' from the name of this committee in the minutes of Presbytery, since all such committees are advisory, and since this description is harmful to the influence of the committee's work."

The following committee was named to study the practice of the ministers of the Presbytery in the matter of the re-marriage of divorced persons, as called for above: Revs. N. P. Farrior, A. K. Dudley and J. R. Kennedy.

Rev. L. A. Taylor made request for Rev. Ben L. Rose that he be granted a certificate of dismission to the Presbytery of Abingdon, that he might accept a call to the pastorate of the Central Presbyterian church of Bristol, Va. The same was granted.

Upon suggestion of the Stated Clerk, the Presbytery appointed a committee to revise the Manual of Presbytery published in October, 1925, with a suggested new draft to be presented to the Presbytery at the spring meeting. The follownig committee was named: Revs. Andrew J. Howell, L. A. Taylor and E. D. Witherspoon, Th.D.

Rev. J. R. Phipps, for the committee on Nominations, made the following report, which was adopted:

We recommend the following changes in the Directory of the Presbytery:

To replace Rev. M. J. Murray, dismissed to Lexington Presbytery—

As trustee of Flora Macdonald college (Exit 1948), Rev. J. G. Morrison.

The women of your church have provided for us a most delicious meal, which we have greatly enjoyed. As we are today holding a meeting of the Presbytery in your midst, we would offer up our earnest prayers for your usefulness as pastor and people in this community, that souls may be brought to Christ and be built up in the faith.

The Presbytery wishes to thank Dr. Gillespie for his splendid message on Evangelism.

CALLED MEETING

The Presbytery of Wilmington met in called session at the First Presbyterian church, Wilmington, on Tuesday, February 5, 1946, at 11 a. m. Rev. R. H. Poole, the Moderator, presided, and an opening prayer was offered by Rev. C. B. Craig.

The following members were enrolled:

Ministers: A. J. Howell, C. C. Myers, J. R. Phipps, J. W. Miller, R. H. Poole, J. G. Morrison, C. B. Craig, William Crowe, Jr., D.D., A. K. Dudley, F. M. Bain, C. R. Gleason, W. H. Allison, F. M. Thompson, E. D. Witherspoon, Th.D., L. A. Taylor, (15); Ruling Elders: R. P. Bender, Pollocksville; J. B. Huntington, St. Andrews-Covenant (2).

The Moderator's call for the meeting was read and found in order as follows:

Elizabethtown, N. C., January 24, 1946.

The constitutional requirements having been met, I hereby call the Presbytery of Wilmington to meet in the First Presbyterian church of Wilmington on Tuesday, February 5, 1946, at 11 a. m., to transact the following business:

1. To dissolve the pastoral relationship between Rev. J. R. Phipps and the Pollocksville and Croatan churches.
2. To dismiss Rev. Mr. Phipps to Granville Presbytery.
3. To transact any other business growing out of the above.

(Signed) ROBT. H. POOLE, Moderator.

Rev. J. R. Phipps informed the Presbytery that he had accepted a call to serve the Varina-Willow Springs group of churches in Granville Presbytery, and therefore offered his resignation to Wilmington Presbytery to enable him to accept the call. He also requested that the relationship between him and the Pollocksville and Croatan churches be accordingly dissolved.

Ruling Elders R. P. Bender and H. A. Parker, of the Pollocksville church, furnished information that their church, at a regularly called congregational meeting, had voted unanimously to decline to concur in their pastor's request for the dissolution of the pastorate. It was also stated that the Croatan church had taken similar action; and that the two churches had agreed to increase the pastor's salary to $2,000 a year; thus relieving the Home Missions committee of the Presbytery of the aid it has been supplying toward the salary.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

A motion was made that, since the way does not seem clear for dismissing Mr. Phipps, he be retained in his present charge. After much discussion, however, a substitute motion was made, and prevailed, that the requested dissolution be made, effective February 28th, and that Presbytery grant a certificate of dismissal for Mr. Phipps to Granville Presbytery as desired.

Appreciation was expressed for the worthy efforts made by his two churches to keep Mr. Phipps as pastor, and of his faithful service in them for about twenty-nine years. Upon motion, the Stated Clerk was instructed to send, along with the certificate of dismissal, a letter of commendation of him to Granville Presbytery.

Matters of general interest were brought to the attention of the Presbytery, without action taken.

The minutes were read and approved; and, upon motion, and after prayer by the Moderator, the meeting adjourned.

J. W. MILLER, Permanent Clerk.

ANDREW J. HOWELL, Stated Clerk.

1. To dissolve the pastoral relationship between Rev. J. A. Boyd, and the Black River and the Caswell group of churches.
2. To dismiss Rev. Mr. Boyd to Orange Presbytery.
3. To transact any other business growing out of the above.

(Signed) ROBT. H. POOLE, Moderator.

Mr. Boyd made request that Presbytery dissolve the pastoral relations between him and the Caswell, Black River, Harmony and South River churches, in order that he might accept a call extended to him by the Piedmont Presbyterian church, Burlington, N. C. The four ruling elders above mentioned made statement, respectively, that their congregations had held meetings, at which they reluctantly had voted to concur in their pastor's request to dissolve the pastorate.

Upon motion, the relations were dissolved, effective March 31, 1946. In connection therewith, several members expressed their regret to have Mr. Boyd leave the Presbytery and their sincere wish for his continued usefulness in his new pastorate.

A desired certificate of dismission to Orange Presbytery was authorized, and the Stated Clerk was requested to write a letter of commendation of Mr. Boyd to that Presbytery.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

Rev. O. V. Caudill, of Winston-Salem Presbytery, was introduced and invited to sit as a visiting brother. He spoke briefly with reference to his activities in connection with the Building and Planning committee of the Synod.

Rev. E. D. Witherspoon, Th.D., chairman of the permanent committee on Religious Education, presented the following report:

The annual report of your Committee of Religious Education having been made by the retiring Chairman at the fall meeting of Presbytery, your chairman feels that a full report is not only impossible to make, but unnecessary at this time. Your committee does seek to present a partial report, growing out of one full meeting of the committee, plus meetings of various sub-committees, in which plans for the summer work were made. This partial report comes to us from the sub-committees.

First: The Sub-Committee On Children's Work. The Reverend Mr. Boyd having left the Presbytery and a Sub-Chairman not having been appointed, I would simply call to your attention recommendations that we shall present at the end of this report having to do with Vacation Church School Work. Your Committee appreciates the splendid response to letters sent out requesting dates for schools throughout the Presbytery. Every effort is being made to secure workers to meet your need. You will be advised of our success within a short while.

Second: The Sub-Committee on Young People's Division. The Reverend M. C. MacQueen, Chairman. Synod's Leadership Conference for our young people will be held at Flora Macdonald college, Red Springs, N. C., June 11-17. Those eligible to attend this conference are all members of Synod's and Presbytery's young people's councils as well as all local presidents. The conference is designed primarily to be a leadership conference. In case the local president cannot attend some other officer in the local fellowship is eligible to come in his place. Every church in the Synod should be represented in this conference since its main purpose is to train leaders who can work in the local fellowships.

Among the outstanding leaders who will be there are Dr. E. T. Thompson, Bible teacher, Dr. A. L. Currie, Vesper leader, and Dr. Dwight Chalmers who will deliver the Sunday morning sermon. The Reverend J. M. McChesney, of Goldsboro, N. C., will be the General Director of the conference.

Presbytery's Conference for the Youth Fellowship will be held at Peace College, Raleigh, N. C., July 8-13. We hope all of our churches will send as many delegates as possible.

The leaders will be composed of members of the Presbytery and Presbyterial. The Foreign Mission teacher will be supplied by the Foreign Mission Executive Office, Nashville, Tennessee. The cost will be ten dollars per delegate. The first meal will be served Monday, July 8th, at six o'clock. The last meal will be served Saturday, July 13th, at breakfast. We hope delegates will arrive at Peace as early in the afternoon Monday as possible. The Reverend M. C. MacQueen, Clinton, N. C., is Director of this conference.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

The Pioneer Conference will be held at Lake Singletary, near Elizabethtown, June 3-8. Those eligible to attend this conference are those from twelve to fourteen years of age. The cost will be ten dollars per person. The conference begins Monday afternoon and closes Saturday morning after breakfast. The Reverend B. F. Ormand, Chadbourn, N. C., is Director of this conference.

Third: The Sub-Committee on Organization and Extension. The Reverend J. R. Kennedy, Chairman. There have been two new out-posts started in the Presbytery since our last report. It is encouraging to know that Miss Sara Little, Synod's Sunday School Extension Worker, will have an assistant beginning June 1st.

Your Committee in its meeting recommends:

1. The Presbytery set as its goal a Vacation Church School in every Church School in the Presbytery.
2. That an offering be received at each Vacation Church School which is held. This offering to be sent to the Treasurer of the Committee and to be used for the extension of Vacation Church School Work in the Presbytery.
3. That each Church School in the Presbytery be asked to set aside the Church School offering of May 17th, for Vacation Church School Work in the Presbytery. This offering is to underwrite the expenses of the current year and should be unnecessary in the future if the ministers of the Presbytery will support recommendation 2.
4. That the appointment of the Reverend L. A. Taylor, Executive Secretary of the Presbytery, be approved as the Treasurer of Presbytery's Committee of Religious Education.

The committee's report was duly adopted.

In connection therewith, announcements were repeated for projected conferences to be held during the coming summer as follows:

By Rev. B. F. Ormand for the Pioneers' conference to be held at Lake Singletary from June 3rd to 8th; by Rev. M. C. MacQueen for the Leadership Training conference to be held at Flora Macdonald college from June 11th to 17th, also by him for the Youth Fellowship conference to be held at Peace Junior college from July 8th to 15th.

Dr. Witherspoon, also as chairman of the permanent committee on Christian Education and Ministerial Relief, presented the following report, which was duly adopted:

Your committee, while not scheduled for this meeting, finds that there are two items of business which require the action of Presbytery, viz.;

First, the approval, or re-approval, of the applications for aid sent to Dr. W. H. Boggs, Secretary, for Rev. Eugene Black Carr, of Wallace, retired, and for Mrs. Josephine Wells, widow of Rev. Lucian E. Wells.

Second, the dropping from the roll of candidates for the ministry of our Presbytery, at his request, of the name of William C. McClammy, who has united with the Episcopal church.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

With the approval of the commission on the Minister and His Work, certificates of dismission to Wilmington Presbytery were presented for ministers called to serve in the Presbytery, as follows:

Rev. E. H. Clarke from Orange Presbytery,
Rev. J. Murphy Smith from East Hanover Presbytery,
Rev. B. F. Brown from Abingdon Presbytery,
Rev. W. B. Hood from North Alabama Presbytery.

The certificates were, upon motion, declared to be in order, and were accepted by the Presbytery, pending the examination required by the Book of Church Order. The ministers were examined, severally and together, on the subject of Experimental Religion by Rev. M. C. MacQueen, on Theology by Rev. Andrew J. Howell, and on Church Government and Sacraments by Rev. P. L. Clark. By vote, Presbytery accepted the examination as satisfactory, and ordered their names to be enrolled upon their signing the required obligation.

The chairman of the commission on the Minister and His Work, Rev. M. C. MacQueen, offered the following report:

Since the fall meeting of the Presbytery we have cooperated in every way possible with the pulpit committees of churches without pastors. We have assisted our Executive Secretary, as opportunity was presented, in contacting prospective ministers for our Presbytery. We have helped to the best of our ability in the matter of others that were brought to our attention.

We recommend to serve as stated supplies until the spring meeting, 1947, the following: Rev. C. B. Craig at Antioch, Rev. J. W. Miller at Brown Marsh and Mt. Horeb, Rev. C. C. Myers at McClure Memorial, Rev. B. F. Ormand at Bladenboro, Rev. J. R. Kennedy at Tabor City, Rev. N. P. Farrior at Hebron and Harper-Southerland, Rev. P. L. Clark at Maple Hill, Rev. J. V. Axtell at Webb Memorial and Wildwood, Rev. J. D. MacLeod at Myrtle Grove and Carolina Beach; and also the following temporary supplies: Rev. J. T. Armstrong at Rocky Point and Pike, and Rev. W. Paul Hollar (for one year) at Cape Fear.

We also recommend the assignment of Rev. E. H. Clarke at Warsaw and Bowden for a year. We have found his call for this pastorate to be in order. We have also found to be in order the calls for Rev. J. M. Smith from Faison, Calypso and Stanford; for Rev. W. B. Hood from Wallace; and for Rev. B. F. Brown from Rockfish, Willard and Potts Memorial. We recommend that Presbytery take favorable action on them.

The report of the commission was adopted.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

The commission also presented the calls for the new members as follows:

For Rev. E. H. Clarke from Warsaw and Bowden churches,

For Rev. J. M. Smith from Faison, Calypso and Stanford churches,

For Rev. B. F. Brown from Rockfish, Willard and Potts Memorial churches,

For Rev. W. B. Hood from Wallace church.

The calls were found to be in order and placed in their hands. Prayer in their behalf was offered by Rev. M. C. MacQueen.

Rev. W. Paul Hollar, of Cleveland Presbytery, U. S. A., was introduced to the Presbytery and invited to sit as a visiting brother.

Rev. J. D. MacLeod, chairman of the permanent committee on Assembly's Home Missions, presented report for his committee, which was received as information, and the following recommendations contained therein were adopted:

That the period from October 7th to November 3rd, 1946, be designated as a special season for Home Mission study, with Dr. R. A. Lapsley's "Home Mission Investments" as the recommended study book; and that this same period of time be given to promotion of the final drive in the Home Mission Emergency Fund campaign, with the intent to reach (and if possible to go beyond) the quotas set for each church; and that the period from October 27th to November 3rd be specially set aside as the Week of Prayer and Self-Denial for both of these causes.

The Moderator announced the appointment of the following standing committees:

Worship—Revs. A. J. Howell, C. R. Gleason and L. A. Taylor;

Bills and Overtures—Revs. R. H. Poole, J. Murphy Smith;

Judicial—Revs. J. R. Kennedy, B. F. Brown; Ruling Elder T. J. Corbett;

Leave of Absence—Rev. C. R. Gleason, Ruling Elder F. A. Newman;

Records of Presbytery—Rev. W. H. Allison;

Narrative—Revs. N. P. Farrior, E. H. Clarke, Ruling Elder R. C. Carson;

Time and Place of Next Meeting—Rev. J. G. Morrison, Ruling Elders G. H. Boughner, O. L. Browne, J. M. Wells; Resolution of Thanks—Rev. F. M. Thompson, Ruling Elder R. A. Thigpen.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

Rev. W. H. Allison, chairman of the permanent committee on Women's Work, presented Mrs. J. M. Gregg, President of the Presbyterian Auxiliary, who read to the Presbytery the following account of the activities of that organization for the past year:

"To enlist every woman for Christ," is the goal of the Woman's Auxiliary, and although we have not attained that goal, we are pressing on to the mark, and feel that we have made some progress toward it this year.

Wilmington Presbyterian is composed of fifty-five auxiliaries, five having been organized within the year. There are ninety General Circles and fifteen Business Women's Circles, with a total membership of 3,032, with total gifts of $29,752.20. This is an increase of 214 in membership and of $7,285.20 in gifts.

The auxiliaries have for the twelfth consecutive year been 100% in gifts to the Birthday Offering, which this year amounted to $1,160.70, an increase over last year of $225.58. $4,947.27 has been given to Barium.

Two memorials of $100.00 each have been given in the Historical Foundation and five Life memberships and two memorials in the Presbyterian.

Reports show that there are 532 Tithers, 612 Family Altars, 341 women subscribing to a Church paper, and 1,448 using "Day By Day."

The auxiliaries have been instrumental in putting Bible in sixteen public schools.

The women of Wilmington Presbyterian have always been Foreign Mission conscious, since the incentive for the organization of the Presbyterian was Kiangyin Hospital, China, which they established and have supported through the years, 26.2% of the Benevolences going to that cause.

Recognizing the need and in obedience to His command to "Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest that He would send forth labourers into His harvest," the women have been praying definitely that young people of superlative qualities would be called into full time Christian service. It is with deep gratitude that I am able to report that God has seen fit to call nine young people from the Presbytery, who have volunteered for foreign service.

From the lively interest evidenced in the many activities, increased gifts, prayer groups, inter-denominational and inter-racial work, I feel that the women are attaining a broader vision and a deeper spirituality.

It is with deep humility and sincere gratitude that I am able to make this report, and with a prayer that the women of Wilmington Presbyterian will continue to let their light so shine that all who see their good works may glorify our Father which is in heaven.

ANNE LYNN C. GREGG, President.

The Presbytery expressed its appreciation to Mrs.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

Gregg for her interesting report and for the valued work of the Presbyterial during the year.

There was also presented to the Presbytery a request from the Presbyterial for the creation of an "advisory committee, the purpose of which shall be to co-ordinate more closely the work of the Presbytery and the Women's Auxiliary of Wilmington Presbytery." Certain suggestions were made as to the membership of this committee. In response to this request, the Presbytery adopted the following recommendation:

That the permanent committee on Women's Work of the Presbytery be enlarged to include the Executive Secretary of the Presbytery and the President of the Presbyterial Auxiliary.

After prayer by Rev. L. A. Taylor, Presbytery took recess until the afternoon session.

2:30 p. m. Presbytery reconvened and prayer was offered by Rev. J. Murphy Smith.

Nominations were heard for commissioners to the General Assembly to meet at Montreat on May 23rd. Ballots were taken and the following commissioners were elected:

Ministers:

Principals:

R. H. Poole
William Crowe, Jr.
C. C. Myers

Alternate:

C. R. Gleason
J. M. Smith
J. D. MacLeod

Ruling Elders:

Principals:

P. S. Carr
J. M. Taylor
E. A. Bender

Alternate:

C. L. Braddy
C. O. Bollinger
E. L. Derrick

Rev. C. C. Myers, chairman, made report for the permanent committee on Synod's Home Missions, which was received as information.

Rev. N. P. Farrior, chairman of the special committee appointed at the January meeting to study the practice of the ministers of the Presbytery in regard to the remarriage of divorced persons, presented the following report which was received as information:

In response to a questionnaire sent out by our committee, 17 replies were received. One minister reports referring one case to the Presbytery's regular committee.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

A study of the answers in the questionnaire was interesting. Ten ministers stated that confidence in the moral support of the regular committee offers a satisfaction and is desirable. Three give a negative answer to this.

Other data, including annotations, are given.

Mr. Farrior made additional remarks on the subject of the questionnaire; following which Rev. B. F. Ormand presented timely facts concerning divorces—this as chairman of the permanent committee on Social and Moral Welfare.

Upon motion, the same committee on Divorce and Re-marriage was instructed "to continue its study of the subject and devise means of educating the ministers and sessions concerning the laws of the church governing this matter."

Rev. J. D. MacLeod, on behalf of the permanent committee on Divorce and Re-marriage, presented a report stating that the counsel of the committee was given in one case that was brought to its attention.

He also recommended the enlargement of the committee with divisions to serve the various geographical sections of the Presbytery, (as was also suggested in the meeting of January, 1946).

Rev. William Crowe, Jr., D.D., chairman of Presbytery's committee on Home Missions, presented the following report, which was adopted:

The Home Mission Committee is faced with responsibilities that are heavier and of a more extensive nature, perhaps, than ever in its history. During the war years there was a feeling that the tension in Home Mission needs would be eased immediately following the close of the war. This has not proved to be the case. The fact is that it now seems apparent that the opportunities we have are even greater than they were during the war years and, therefore, our responsibilities are greater. In the light of this fact the committee makes its report to the Presbytery and expresses the fear that it has not faced its obligations with as much vision and effectiveness as it should have.

Several developments of outstanding interest have taken place in the Presbytery during recent months and they are detailed briefly as follows:

The coming of the Reverend L. A. Taylor into our Presbytery as Executive Secretary in October has given new stimulus to our work. He has been very zealous about visiting the churches that come under the Home Mission Committee's care and among other churches besides. The Presbytery should indeed be grateful to him for the concern that he manifests for the churches that need outside financial assistance and spiritual leadership. He has discovered many opportunities for the strengthening of our work and has already begun the development of some of them. We look forward to progress of an unusual quality under his leadership.

The following pastorates have been dissolved since November 1, 1945: Reverend L. F. Cowan and Woodburn church; Reverend J. R. Phipps and the Pollocksville, Croatan churches; Reverend J. A. Boyd and Caswell, Black River, South River, Harmony.

The following Home Mission churches are now without ministers:

1. Southport, New Hope. These churches have suffered grievously for lack of leadership over a good many years except for one or two brief periods.
2. Lake Waccamaw, Ashwood, White Plains, Elkton, Acme.
3. Woodburn.
4. Pollocksville, Croatan.
5. South River, Caswell, Black River, Harmony.
6. Bethany.

The Webb Memorial and Wildwood churches are being served effectively by Reverend J. V. Axtell, whose relationship is that of Stated Supply.

The following Churches have had relations with ministers established since November 1:

1. Reverend Eugene Clarke and Warsaw, Bowden—Stated Supply.
2. Reverend John Murphy Smith, Faison, Calypso, Stanford.
3. Reverend Ben Brown, Rockfish, Willard, Penderlea.
4. Reverend W. Paul Hollar, Cape Fear.
5. Reverend James Garvin, Chinquapin group, effective Sept. 1, 1946. These ministers have been secured for the above named churches largely because of the guidance of the Executive Secretary.

Several proposals to re-group certain churches are before the Home Mission Committee but no definite notice will be given to the Presbytery at this time.

Several new manses should be built in the Presbytery among the Home Mission groups immediately and this matter is being studied by the Home Mission Committee and every effort will be made to bring about their construction. Not only are manses needed but certain of our fields are in great need of new buildings or additions to their buildings. Applications have been made to the Synod and to the General Assembly to help take care of these matters and the Presbytery has some funds that they have already allocated to these projects. The assistance that the Presbytery and Synod and Assembly can give to the construction projects that we now see may be needed will barely reach the surface of the cost of construction and the local communities will be unable to bear the rest of the responsibility. Recommendations will be made to this meeting of Presbytery with regard to including these causes in the Home Mission Emergency Fund campaign for next fall.

All of these problems are only indications of progress. It is the opinion of the Committee that if we only had the money and could get the men, our Presbytery could make sensational gains in the near future. The sad fact is that we are not even able to get the men.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

One of the most satisfying experiences that the Presbytery has had has been the reception into its membership of the church at Penderlea during the past year. It has been officially named the Potts Memorial Presbyterian church. The Home Mission Committee has been interested in making some arrangements on their behalf and is glad to report that some progress has been made toward securing a place of worship for them.

The Committee is moving forward with a study of the possibility of making an extensive use of motion pictures in the churches aided by the Committee.

Some weeks ago a building was purchased near Jacksonville for the sum of $300 to be used as an outpost of the Jacksonville church under the leadership of Reverend Carl B. Craig. The structure was an abandoned school house. Our Committee entered an agreement with the Synod's Home Mission Committee to pay the $300 for the purchase price, with the understanding that the Synod's Committee would supply the $300 necessary to repair it. It is our understanding that the building is now, or soon will be, in use. Our Presbytery has the use of it as long as it will be needed for our purposes.

The Harper-Southerland church has also been organized during the past year. A new church building is under construction for the Tabor City congregation and another for the Bladenboro congregation. Summer workers are being provided for both of the latter churches, largely supported by Home Mission funds.

Some weeks ago a group of representatives of the Committee inspected the buildings at Fort Fisher with a view to purchasing useful materials for our Home Mission needs. We made bids on several buildings. Two of these bids were successful and our Presbytery became the possessor of two chapel buildings with all of their equipment, including pews and pulpit furniture. The total cost of these two structures was $225.00. The buildings will be taken down and the material stored, and the furnishings put to immediate use.

The Committee has two recommendations to make to the Presbytery as follows:

1. That the work of conducting Vacation Church Schools for the summer be made a joint responsibility for this year of the Home Mission Committee and the Religious Education Committee. This seems advisable at the present time because the Religious Education Committee has no funds.
2. That the Ministers and Ruling Elders of the Presbytery recognize the great opportunity that has been only partly described in this report and talk about it among their people and encourage special gifts to be made to this cause.

Upon motion, Dr. Wm. Crowe, Jr., chairman, was authorized to execute, with the trustees of the Tabor City church, a note for $4,000 borrowed from the Synod's Home Missions committee to be used toward the construction of their new church.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

The official authorization for this transaction is as follows:

The Presbytery of Wilmington does hereby authorize Rev. William Crowe, Jr., D.D., chairman of the Home Missions committee of said Presbytery to sign a note on behalf of Wilmington Presbytery with the trustees of the Tabor City Presbyterian church for the amount of four thousand dollars ($4,000.00) in favor of the Home Missions committee of the Synod of North Carolina, in connection with the Presbyterian Church in the United States, Inc.

This note is secured by a First Deed of Trust on the property of the Tabor City Presbyterian church.

I hereby certify that the above is a correct copy of the action of Wilmington Presbytery in session April 16, 1946.

(Signed) ANDREW J. HOWELL,
Stated Clerk of Wilmington Presbytery.

The following recommendation was also adopted:

That the permanent committees on Presbytery's Home Missions and Stewardship be authorized to select a special committee to arrange a campaign to raise funds for outpost Sunday schools, chapels and manse; this campaign to be conducted in connection with the securing of subscriptions for the Home Mission Emergency plan in the fall.

Rev. E. D. Witherspoon, Th.D., offered his resignation as chairman of the permanent committee on Christian Education and Ministerial Relief. The same was accepted.

Rev. B. F. Ormand, chairman of the committee on Nominations, made the following report, which was adopted:

We recommend the following changes in committees:

Trustees of Flora Macdonald College, Rev. J. R. Kennedy, Rev. R. H. Poole, Mrs. J. E. Evans, F. B. Johnson, to replace, respectively, W. D. McCaig, Dr. William Crowe, Jr., D.D., Rev. J. A. Boyd (removed), B. B. Reynolds. H. McN. Johnson to succeed himself.

Nominations, Rev. B. F. Ormand to succeed himself, Rev.
P. L. Clark to replace Rev. J. R. Phipps; Rev. C. B. Craig and Dr. W. E. Miller to be added.

Rev. E. B. Carr, chairman, made report for the committee on Sessional Records, as follows:

Of the records of 44 churches we find no occasion for special criticism.

Three churches (Wildwood, Hallsville and Stanford) did not send their records to Presbytery.

There was no moderator named for the Rocky Point session; neither do we find in the record that any announcement was made of a congregational meeting.

No narrative is recorded for the Westminster church.

Hopewell session meeting not constituted with prayer.

Calls for congregational meetings at Calypso and Ashwood not recorded.

The report was adopted.

Rev. William Crowe, Jr., D.D., chairman of the special committee appointed at the January meeting to study the question of the proposed Co-operation and Union with the Presbyterian church, U. S. A., to aid the Presbytery in taking a stand in the matter, brought in a paper favoring the suggested plan of union. After a considerable discussion of the subject, a vote expressive of the opinion of the Presbytery was taken, resulting in 26 votes for the proposed plan and 24 opposed to it.

The paper presented by the committee is as follows:

Whereas, the evil nature of our world has asserted itself in such dismaying power in recent years, and

Whereas, the Kingdom of our Lord is the only power which can save mankind from both physical and spiritual self-destruction, and

Whereas, the Kingdom of our Lord is designed and destined to be one fold with one Shepherd, and

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

Whereas, His Kingdom is today so divided that it cannot present a united front against the mighty forces of unrighteousness and thereby loses much of the effectiveness it would have in greater unity, and

Whereas, many of the divisions in the Kingdom are caused by matters that pale into insignificance when compared to the chasm that exists between Christian movement in general on the one hand and the philosophy of the world on the other:

Therefore, be it resolved by the Presbytery of Wilmington of the Presbyterian Church in the United States that

1. We believe many communions of believers that are already close kin to each other in their government and doctrine could and should unite in order to fulfill Christ's prayer that His people be one and in order to present a stronger front to the world.

2. The Assemblies of the Presbyterian Church in the United States and the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, having the same background, almost an identical history, government and doctrine, are outstanding examples of those that can unite.

3. The differences that separate these two Assemblies are of such minor consequence that the spirit of tolerance and concern for the glory of Christ will dissolve them.

4. The plan of reunion submitted to the Churches is fair and practicable and leaves the Churches in the southern area practically in tact to rule their own affairs.

5. Recommends that the reunion be approved and the two Assemblies urged to pursue the matter until it becomes a reality.

This report is made by four of the five members of the Committee. One member of the Committee (Mr. J. B. Huntington) submits a minority report. The report is that everything in this majority report is agreed to with the exception of the last recommendation, and he agrees to that except that the present report suggests that the reunion should take place at an early date and he feels it should be postponed.

The Chairman of the Committee would suggest that we would profit by an opportunity to study this again more thoroughly and make another report to the Presbytery in July or in October.

The members of the committees are:

William Crowe, Jr., Chairman, E. D. Witherspoon, L. A. Taylor, G. Dudley Humphrey, J. B. Huntington.

Ministers called to serve in the Presbytery indicated their acceptance of the calls extended to them, and, upon motion, commissions were named to install them as follows:

Rev. Ben F. Brown, Rockfish, Willard and Potts Memorial, April 28th:

Ruling Elder E. W. Faires, chairman, Rev. W. P. M. Currie, Rev. R. H. Poole, Rev. J. G. Morrison, Rev. L. A. Taylor; any two ministers and one ruling elder to constitute a quorum.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

Hours of exercises and parts to be taken to be left to the pleasure of the commission.

Rev. William B. Hood, Wallace, 8 p. m., May 5th:

Dr. William Crowe, Jr., D.D., to preside and preach the sermon; Rev. M. C. MacQueen to charge the congregation; Ruling Elder C. O. Bollinger to charge the pastor. Alternates: Revs. W. P. M. Currie and B. F. Brown and Ruling Elder H. McN. Johnson.

Rev. J. Murphy Smith, Faison and Calypso, May 19th:

Rev. L. A. Taylor to preside and preach the sermon; Rev. F. M. Bain to charge the congregation; Rev. W. H. Allison to charge the pastor. Other members: Dr. Wilbert Jackson and alternates, Rev. M. C. MacQueen and another ruling elder from Clinton. Any two ministers and one ruling elder to constitute a quorum.

Upon motion, the report of the special committee to draft a revision of the Manual of Presbytery was deferred until the July meeting.

Rev. W. H. Allison, for the committee on the Records of Presbytery, reported that the last published minutes were found to be neatly and accurately compiled.

Rev. J. G. Morrison, for the committee on Time and Place of Next Meeting, called attention to the next regular meeting to be held at Mt. Zion church, Rose Hill, July 16th; the place for the fall meeting not yet selected.

Rev. C. R. Gleason, for the committee on Leave of Absence, reported leaves granted Ruling Elder L. A. Smith, Rev. J. W. Miller and Rev. A. K. Dudley after luncheon.

Upon motion, and upon suggestion of Rev. L. A. Taylor, the Presbytery's Home Missions committee was granted authority to name a committee to investigate the subject of Visual Education, referred to heretofore in the committee's report.

(Notes—Rev. F. M. Thompson, for the committee on Resolution of Thanks, gave a verbal expression of appreciation at the mid-day luncheon. Minutes of the afternoon were taken by Rev. J. R. Kennedy as temporary clerk).

The minutes of the day were read and approved; and, after the singing of a hymn and a prayer by the Moderator, the meeting adjourned.

Chadbourn, N. C., May 24, 1946.

The requirements of paragraph 78, Book of Church Order, having been complied with, I hereby call the Presbytery of Wilmington to meet at the St. Andrews-Covenant Presbyterian church (Kenan building) on the 10th day of June, 1946, at 2:30 p. m.

(Signed) B. F. Ormand, Moderator.

Rev. W. H. Allison, chairman of the permanent committee on Christian Education and Ministerial Relief, presented Candidate Bennett, with certificate of dismissal from the Presbytery of Macon. The certificate was found in order and Mr. Bennett was accepted by the Presbytery.

Mr. Bennett made application to be licensed by the Presbytery for the Gospel ministry; presenting evidence of his graduation with the B.A. degree from Emory University and from Union Theological Seminary with the degree of B.D. Presbytery accepted this as covering the required academic and theological studies. He was duly examined as to his experimental acquaintance with religion and his motives for seeking the ministry.

The Presbytery also submitted him to an extended examination on the subjects of theology, the sacraments and church government, and the English Bible; all of which was accepted as satisfactory.

Mr. Allison, chairman, stated that he had carefully examined a thesis and an exegesis offered by Mr. Bennett, and found them to be good in construction and sound in doctrine. Upon motion, these were sustained as acceptable parts of trial.

A sermon was also preached by the candidate on the passage, Matt. 6:19-34. Words of commendation were spoken by members of the Presbytery for the same, and Presbytery voted to approve the sermon, and also to sustain as satisfactory the examination as a whole.

The Moderator then propounded the constitutional questions for the licensure and offered prayer.

Upon Mr. Bennett's request for ordination, the Presbytery, upon motion, declared the examination given to be sufficient for that purpose, and named a commission to ordain him as an evangelist with the view to his serving as Assistant Pastor of St. Andrews-Covenant church, Wilmington, N. These were referred to the committee on Educational Institutions.

2. A statement from Dr. Bedinger relative to the affairs and plans of the college. Held for further consideration.

3. A request from the Myrtle Grove Presbyterian church that the Presbytery overture the General Assembly to readjust the periods of active service between furloughs for our foreign missionaries. Referred to the committee on Foreign Missions.

Reports of commissioners to the last General Assembly were heard from the following: Ruling Elders E. A. Bender, J. M. Taylor and P. S. Carr; also Revs. R. H. Poole, C. C. Myers and William Crowe, Jr., D.D. The reports were received as information and the diligence of the commissioners commended.

Rev. W. H. Allison, chairman, made report for the committee on Christian Education and Ministerial Relief, which was approved and the following paper accepted for record:

Wilmington Presbytery contributed to the cause of Christian Education and Ministerial Relief for the year ending March 31, 1946, $5,385.69, an increase over the previous year of $952.88. There was paid in also to the Accrued Liability fund of the Ministers' Annuity fund $233.00.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

There are now six candidates for the ministry on our roll. Five of these were still in military service as of March 31, 1946. Mr. Jerry Newbold took up his work at Union Theological Seminary again in January after a period of teaching. We also have two young ladies studying for mission service who have completed one year at the Assembly's Training school.

There are five homes receiving aid from funds of Ministerial Relief at the present time.

Invitations for the October meeting of Presbytery were heard from the Jacksonville and Pearsall Memorial churches. These were referred to the standing committee on Time and Place of Next Meeting, to be appointed.

The treasurer of Presbytery's contingent fund, Rev. A. J. Howell, furnished information as to the present and expected future increases in the assessments against the churches, on account of increased expenses.

Ruling Elder R. V. Wells, chairman of Presbytery's committee on Educational Institutions, made a report including a communication from Dr. W. C. Pressly, President of Peace college, as to the project of the college to raise its endowment during the present year to $100,000 and the efforts to be made to secure $125,000 for a gymnasium and $85,000 for additional dormitory facilities.

The committee also presented the following recommendation relating to the communication referred to it as to social diversions on the campus of Flora Macdonald college:

Your committee on Educational Institutions recommends that Presbytery approve the past actions of our trustees on the board of Flora Macdonald college, and that Presbytery commend our trustees for their faithfulness in voting their convictions on all matters that come before them for action.

The recommendation was adopted.

In connection with the committee's report, Dr. Bedinger, President, made reference to the recent celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the college, and furnished the following information:

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

Financially, the college has always been handicapped by inadequate support for an overflowing student body. The debt, which in 1931 was $110,000, was paid in 1945. The assets of the college are a campus of fifty-seven acres, with buildings and equipment adequate for three hundred and twenty-five students, and an endowment of $205,000. The college is fully accredited by the College Conference and the Department of Public Instruction in North Carolina, and occupies a place on the non-member list of colleges approved for teacher training by the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. Flora Macdonald college has faithfully followed the policy of its founders: "The best educational advantages and positive Christian training at moderate cost." This policy has attracted an unusually fine type of student, and has made possible alumnae of fine Christian character and excellent training, who have rendered a splendid service wherever they have lived.

Flora Macdonald faces her second half-century with an excellent record of service and unlimited possibilities for the future. Your trustees are men of vision, who are ready to carry on the work of the college to its greatest possibilities with the full support and co-operation of the Presbyteries of Fayetteville, Orange and Wilmington, which own and control it.

The Moderator announced the appointment of the following standing committees:

Time and Place of Next Meeting: Rev. F. M. Bain and Ruling Elder F. F. Newkirk.

Records of Presbytery: Rev. A. K. Dudley, Rev. C. R. Gleason and Ruling Elder A. H. Kerr.

Resolution of Thanks: Rev. E. H. Clarke, Rev. R. H. Poole, and Ruling Elder F. A. Newman.

Recess was taken for luncheon after prayer by the Moderator.

AFTERNOON

2:15 p. m. Presbytery re-assembled and was led in prayer by the Moderator. Rev. W. P. M. Currie was enrolled.

The committee on Time and Place of Next Meeting, through Rev. F. M. Bain, chairman, recommended the acceptance of the invitation of the Pearsall Memorial church for the regular meeting on October 15th, and also that the meeting on January 14, 1947, be held in the Jacksonville church, in acceptance of its invitation. The recommendation was adopted.

Rev. William Crowe, Jr., D.D., chairman of Presbytery's Home Missions committee, offered for his committee the following resolution:

That the old Lee's Chapel building near the Hallsville church be sold for $450, and the money turned over to the Hallsville church to be used in its building program. This recommendation is proposed to cancel the action of Presbytery (see minutes, Oct. 16-17, 1945), in which authority was given to dismantle the chapel to get material for use in the same building project.

The recommendation was adopted; and in connection therewith the Home Missions committee, through its chairman, recommended that the lot on which the chapel stands be sold for $50.00, and the money turned over to Presbytery's treasurer. This recommendation was also adopted.

The standing committee on the Records of Presbytery, through Rev. A. K. Dudley, chairman, presented the following report, which was adopted:

Your committee reports that the published minutes of Wilmington Presbytery are found to be in proper form and correct in their entirety.

We further heartily commend the Stated Clerk for his faithfulness and excellence in preparing the minutes and records.

Rev. N. P. Farrior, chairman of the special committee heretofore named to study the subject of divorce and re-marriage, for the guidance of the ministers of the Presbytery, made report commending a study of our church's standards on the subject, and also a consideration of the General Assembly's decisions and counsel as shown in its Digest. He also offered the following recommendations, which were adopted:

That Presbytery reiterate its request made at the Mt. Olive meeting that "sessions in the Presbytery secure from the Assembly's committee on Religious Education a sufficient supply of the pamphlet entitled MARRIAGE AND DIVORCE to keep in the vestibules of the churches for free distribution to worshippers."

That our educational program be directed especially toward the young people of our church.

Rev. B. F. Ormand, chairman of the permanent committee on Nominations, presented report recommending changes in the committees of Presbytery as follows.

Presbytery's Home Missions: Rev. William Crowe, Jr., D.D., to succeed himself as chairman.

Synod's Home Missions; Rev. J. M. Smith to replace Rev. C. C. Myers as chairman.

Foreign Missions: Rev. J. G. Morrison to replace Rev. B. F. Ormand as chairman.

Orphans' Home: Rev. F. M. Bain to succeed Rev. A. K. Dudley as chairman. Rev. B. F. Brown to replace Rev. A. K. Dudley on committee.

Sessional Records: Rev. J. D. MacLeod to replace Rev. E. B. Carr as chairman.

Divorce and Re-marriage; (in accordance with recommendations heretofore made), Rev. J. W. Miller to continue as chairman, with following allocations to cover the Presbytery:

- Area 1. Revs. J. W. Miller and B. F. Ormand.
- " 2. Revs. J. D. MacLeod and William Crowe, Jr., D.D.
- " 3. Revs. C. B. Craig and N. P. Farrior.
- " 4. Revs. P. L. Clark and W. B. Hood.

The report was adopted.

In furtherance of the action taken by Presbytery at the April meeting, 1946, Dr. S. C. Marks, chairman of the special committee named by the Home Missions committee to study the subject of Visual Education, addressed the Presbytery, with information as to provisions already made for the project and its availability for the churches of the Presbytery. He made mention of the fact that the men's Bible class of St. Andrews-Covenant church had made, through Rev. L. A. Taylor, a donation of $307.00 to aid in this work, and that the sessions of that church and of the First church, Wilmington, had voted to lend their movie projectors, upon request, when assured that reliable members of the churches will operate them.

Dr. Marks also stated that his committee recommends that the Home Missions committee underwrite the cost of the program of Visual Education for at least the first six months of the trial period and pay any deficits incurred during that time. He added that it is the judgment of the committee that at each showing a free-will offering should be received and sent to Mr. E. Norfleet, treasurer of the Home Missions committee, to help to defray necessary costs and expenses.

The Presbytery voted its approval of the report of Dr. Marks, chairman, and expressed its appreciation of the valuable services rendered by him and his committee in developing the project.

Rev. Andrew J. Howell, chairman of the committee appointed at the January meeting to prepare a revision of the Manual of Presbytery, presented a draft of a Manual, which was read and adopted, with authorization given for its publication.

Rev. L. A. Taylor, Executive Secretary, presented the following report relative to the action taken at the April meeting for the raising of special funds toward the construction of outpost chapels and manses:

In compliance with the recommendations of the Home Missions committee, which was subsequently approved by the Presbytery, (see minutes of spring meeting, 1946, page 30), the Home Missions committee and the Stewardship committee met in joint session and selected the personnel of the committee to arrange and prosecute a campaign to raise funds for outpost Sunday schools, chapels and manses; said campaign to be conducted in connection with the Home Mission Emergency fund this fall.

The personnel of the committee is as follows: A. E. Gibson, chairman, Fred E. Little, Wilbur D. Jones, Wilbur M. Boice, K. C. Council, J. H. Clark, J. B. Stroud, Earl W. Faires, Gardner Edwards and George Maultsby.

It is recommended that the Presbytery approve the appointment of the members of this committee.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

The Home Missions committee has a list of projects that have been approved by it. It is further recommended that the campaign committee, under the leadership of the chairman, Mr. Gibson, be authorized to study these projects and give them priority ratings, fixing the amount that each should receive; and that this committee be further authorized to organize and conduct the campaign during the Home Mission season in October and November.

It is the opinion of the Home Missions and Stewardship committees that Presbytery should accept the quota assigned by the Synod and the Assembly of $9,820.00, and that we add to this amount the sum of $10,180.00, making a total of $20,000.00, needed at this time to augment the Presbytery's Church and Manse fund. And it is so recommended to Presbytery.

In connection with this subject, Mr. A. E. Gibson, chairman of the special committee named in the report, addressed the Presbytery in anticipation of the zealous efforts to be made to promote the plan.

The report was duly adopted.

Also, upon suggestion of the Executive Secretary, Presbytery's committee of Religious Education was requested "to plan a program for a campaign of enlargement in the Sunday schools of the Presbytery, after the manner of the plan for the church loyalty campaign used by the churches in the spring."

Rev. E. H. Clarke, chairman of the committee on Resolution of Thanks, presented the following paper, which was adopted by a rising vote:

The Presbytery of Wilmington wishes to express to the pastor and people of the Mt. Zion Presbyterian church its sincere appreciation of their hospitality. We have enjoyed being in their midst during this meeting. The ladies have provided for us an excellent dinner, which was most graciously served and greatly enjoyed. We desire also to make special mention of the beautiful flowers in the church, and of our appreciation of the excellent services of the pianist in the worship periods.

As we go to our respective homes, we pray God's blessings to rest upon the pastor and the devoted members of the church.

Rev. Andrew J. Howell repeated his desire that he be relieved of his duties as Stated Clerk. In response, Presbytery expressed by a rising vote its appreciation of his services; and appointed a committee, consisting of Rev. William Crowe, Jr., D.D., Rev. E. D. Witherspoon,

Th.D., and Rev. L. A. Taylor, to confer with Mr. Howell as to his continuance in his office at an increased salary ($400 a year); or, if he continues in his wish to resign, to select a successor.

Rev. J. R. Kennedy, of Presbytery's Stewardship committee, explained that askings for the several churches were calculated on the basis of 28% of the quotas for benevolences. He also read the askings for the churches having representatives present. Upon motion, Presbytery approved the Stewardship committee's method of figuring the askings for the churches, and recommended to the churches the acceptance of the askings.

August 17, 1946

Ruling Elder J. B. Huntington, chairman of the permanent committee on Evangelism, presented a written report giving information as to facts gathered from seventeen responses received by him from letters addressed to the clerks of the church sessions as to evangelistic efforts put forth in the churches. Other clerks of the 74 churches of the Presbytery made no answer.

The chairman also furnished details of the activities of his committee during the past several months as follows:

1. Sent letters and literature twice to the pastors and clerks of the sessions calling their attention to the Assembly's plan of visitation and personal evangelism.

2. Conducted a special program on Evangelism at the January meeting of Presbytery with Dr. Gillespie as speaker.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

3. Put on and financed an all-day conference on visitation and personal evangelism. Rev. L. A. Taylor conducted the morning hour and Dr. H. H. Thompson, the afternoon hour.

4. Gave to pastors in the Presbytery, with the compliments of the Committee on Evangelism, copies of the very fine book by Dawson C. Bryan entitled "A Workable Plan of Evangelism."

5. Met with two men's dinner groups taking to them a message on the urgent need of personal evangelism.

6. Spoke on Evangelism in six of the churches in the Presbytery.

He also addressed the Presbytery regarding the great possibilities of "Visitation Evangelism", and urged the ministers and the 351 ruling elders of the Presbytery to a more active interest in the winning of souls for the Lord. Referring to the 383 additions to the churches on profession of faith last year, he made an appeal for a much larger endeavor to help to reach the goal set by the General Assembly of fifty thousand new members on profession of faith during this year.

The report was received and approved by the Presbytery.

In connection with this subject, and at the suggestion of Chairman Huntington, the following ministers of the Presbytery volunteered their services in conducting evangelistic meetings in the churches:

P. L. Clark, C. C. Myers, J. W. Miller, R. H. Poole, J. G. Morrison, A. K. Dudley, William Crowe, Jr., D.D., B. E. Dotson, N. P. Farrior, C. R. Gleason, W. H. Allison, E. D. Witherspoon, Th.D., J. M. Smith, B. F. Brown, L. A. Taylor.

A special order in the interest of Home Missions Emergency plans, as provided for in previous meetings of Presbytery, was observed. Ruling Elder A. E. Gibson, chairman of the committee named for promotion of the subject, delivered a stirring address urging the churches to give generously to meet the inviting opportunities for the enlargement of Christian work within our bounds. He sounded the note of privilege to work with the Lord in doing things in which we can share with him.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

Rev. M. C. MacQueen led in prayer for God's guidance in projecting the efforts to be made in furthering the objects contemplated.

Rev. L. A. Taylor, Executive Secretary, offered to the members of the Presbytery a brochure giving information as to the projects to be undertaken and their cost, and other pertinent facts.

Rev. Ben L. Rose, of Abingdon Presbytery, was introduced to the Presbytery and invited to sit as a visiting brother.

Candidates G. F. Miller, of Concord Presbytery, and J. F. Garvin, of Potomac Presbytery, were also introduced.

Rev. F. M. Bain, chairman of the permanent committee on the Orphans' home, made report, furnishing information especially in regard to the financial needs of the institution, and as to the contemplated increase in the "population" of the home to 300 within the next three months. His report presented the following recommendations:

1. That our Sunday schools send to the home one offering each month, or one taken on the fifth Sundays.
2. That our churches and Sunday schools stress the Thanksgiving offering; and, where no Thanksgiving service is held, to arrange that an offering be taken on the Sunday either before or after Thanksgiving.

The report of the committee was approved and the recommendations adopted.

Rev. C. B. Craig, chairman, made report on the Bible Cause, making statement that Bibles may be procured from the Division of Purchase and Contract, (U. S.), Raleigh, N. C. The report was received as information.

In anticipation of the special order fixing the time for a special report of the committee on Religious Education, Dr. E. D. Witherspoon, chairman, presented a paper which was read and adopted as follows:

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

Your committee of Religious Education appreciates the courtesy of Presbytery in permitting it time on the docket. This time was requested because there are certain matters which we deem of sufficient importance to make their presentation to Presbytery necessary at this time. First, your committee wishes to call attention to the class for Adult Advisors to be held in conjunction with our Young People's Rally. We urge you to take this thought to your congregation, and that you make every effort possible to secure the attendance on these classes of persons who might serve in your church as adult advisors to the young people.

In view of the proposed Manual which has been sent down to your Synod's committee of Religious Education and to your Presbytery's committee, dealing with the organization and function of our committees, we recommend:

- I. That the Manual be approved by Presbytery and that the organization of Presbytery's committee be set up in line with the Manual as follows:
 - (1) Ministers selected by the Presbytery.
 - (2) Elders selected by the Presbytery.
 - (3) Chairman of Sunday School Superintendents of the Presbytery.
 - (4) Chairman of Men's Council of the Presbytery.
 - (5) President of the Young People's Council of the Presbytery.
 - (6) Secretary of Religious Education in the Woman's Auxiliary of the Presbytery.
 - (7) President of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Presbytery.
 - (8) Woman advisor to the Presbytery Young People's Council
 - (9) Presbytery's Executive Secretary.
 - (10) Others as Presbytery may deem necessary.
- II. That Miss Elizabeth LaSalle be added to the committee to serve on the Sub-committee of Young People's Work.
- III. That, in view of the efforts to correlate the Adult Work of the Presbytery, the committee on Layman's hour be dismissed with thanks.
- IV. That Presbytery urge each church to adopt the new Young People's organization as soon as is practicable.
- V. That Presbytery approve the organization of the committee of Religious Education as follows:

Shown in Directory
- VI. That, pending the adoption of this report, Presbytery hear Miss Elizabeth LaSalle as she presents the new program for our young people.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

In connection with the report, Rev. M. C. MacQueen, chairman of the Young People's Division, made announcement of young people's rallies to be held as follows: Elizabethtown-Wilmington district in Immanuel church, Wilmington, at 2:30 p. m., October 27th, and Clinton-Warsaw district, in Warsaw, at 2:30 on November 3rd.

Upon motion, the hour for beginning the afternoon session was fixed at 2 o'clock.

Dr. S. C. Marks in behalf of the service for audio-visual education in the Presbytery, furnished information as to activities of himself and associates in Wilmington and Rev. J. M. Smith, of Faison, in furtherance of the project. Presbytery stood in an expression of appreciation of these gentlemen for the generous and valuable use of their time.

After an expression by Rev. Andrew J. Howell, pastor emeritus, of the pleasure of the congregation of the Pearsall Memorial church in the entertainment of Presbytery, and the making of announcements, Presbytery recessed for luncheon with a prayer by Rev. P. L. Clark.

AFTERNOON

Presbytery re-assembled at 2 o'clock, and was led in prayer by Rev. N. P. Farrior.

Dr. E. D. Witherspoon presented Miss Elizabeth LaSalle, who delivered an informing address on the newly organized work of the Youth Fellowship program of the church. An expression of appreciation of the address was given by a standing vote.

A certificate from the North River Presbytery (U.S.A) was read, dismissing Rev. Cameron D. L. Mosser to the Presbytery of Wilmington. In usual form, he was examined on subjects specified in the Book of Church Order; and the examination being declared to be satisfactory, Mr. Mosser was, upon motion, accepted as a member of Wilmington Presbytery to be enrolled upon his signing the required obligation.

Rev. M. C. MacQueen, chairman of the commission on the Minister and His Work, with the approval of the commission, presented calls for the pastoral services of Mr. Mosser in the Caswell, Harmony, Black River and South River churches. Upon motion, the same were declared to be in order, and they were placed in his hands. Upon his signifying his acceptance of them, and on his nomination, the following commission was appointed to install him in the several pastorates: Rev. P. L. Clark, Rev. W. B. Hood, Rev. M. C. MacQueen, Rev. R. H. Poole, Rev. J. W. Miller, Rev. B. F. Brown and Rev. L. A. Taylor; and Ruling Elders J. R. Powell, R. J. Murphy, J. H. Clark, G. E. Fisler and H. M. Corbett. The dates for the exercises and the parts to be taken were left to the pleasure of the commission; any two ministers and one ruling elder to constitute a quorum in each case.

Rev. M. C. MacQueen, chairman, also presented, with approval, a call from the Warsaw church for the pastoral services of Rev. E. H. Clarke. The same was declared to be in order and placed in his hands. Upon his signifying his acceptance of it, the following commission was named to install him on November 10th: Rev. E. D. Witherspoon, Th.D., to preside and preach the sermon, Rev. W. H. Allison to charge the pastor, (with Rev. M. C. MacQueen to be alternate to either), and Ruling Elder Dr. Wilbert Jackson to charge the congregation, (with Ruling Elder J. B. Stroud alternate).

Upon recommendation of the commission on the Minister and His Work, Presbytery, pending examination for licensure and ordination, granted permission to candidates to labor in fields as follows: G. F. Miller in the Pollocksville group, and J. F. Garvin in the Chinquapin group.

Rev. Jacob S. MacKorell, was also granted permission to labor in the Lake Waccamaw group.

Rev. J. W. Miller, who served as Stated Supply for the Brown Marsh church, spoke of its depleted membership, on account of its nearness to the Clarkton church, and asked the counsel of the Presbytery as to its continuance. The matter was referred to the Home Missions committee for investigation and advice.

Rev. W. H. Allison, chairman of the permanent committee on Christian Education and Ministerial Relief, presented Samuel Norman Thomas, a member of the Hallsville church, who desired to be received as a candidate for the ministry. Mr. Allison stated that he had given the required notice, and everything else was clear for his reception by the Presbytery. The young man was subjected to the examination required by the Book of Church Order, and vote was taken to receive him. The Moderator propounded the questions shown, and spoke words of counsel and encouragement to him. The exercises closed with a prayer by Rev. W. B. Hood.

Rev. L. A. Taylor, for a special committee appointed at the July meeting, stated that the committee had conferred with Rev. Andrew J. Howell, Stated Clerk, and had gained from him a willingness to continue in his office until the end of the present church year, March 31st, next, thus completing twenty years of service.

Invitations were heard for meetings of the Presbytery as follows: For the spring, 1947, from the Black River church, and for the following summer from the Rockfish church. The invitations were readily accepted.

The Moderator expressed in fitting phrases the appreciation of the Presbytery for the pleasant entertainment afforded at this meeting by the Pearsall Memorial church. The Presbytery joined in this expression by a rising vote.

The minutes of the day were read and approved.

After the singing of a hymn and a closing prayer by Rev. Andrew J. Howell, the Presbytery adjourned to meet in the Jacksonville church on Tuesday, January 14, 1947, at 10 a. m.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

After a recess of a few minutes, the Presbytery observed the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper with Revs. L. A. Taylor and E. H. Clarke presiding. The following ruling elders of the Presbytery served the elements: H. T. Wilson, Paul E. Smith, H. M. Loy and J. J. Grady.

Worth that a certificate of dismission be granted him, to the Presbytery of Fayetteville, that he might accept the pastorate of the Bethesda church of Aberdeen, N. C. The certificate was authorized. The Stated Clerk was requested to write a letter to Fayetteville Presbytery, expressing the great interest of Wilmington Presbytery in Mr. Worth, and especially its sincere appreciation of his services as a missionary in China for many years.

A certificate of dismission from the Presbytery of Potomac for Candidate James F. Garvin was received and duly accepted by the Presbytery; and Rev. W. H. Allison, chairman of the permanent committee on Christian Education and Ministerial Relief, presented Mr. Garvin as a candidate for licensure. The Presbytery thereupon entered into the required examination of him. Evidence of his graduation from college and seminary was accepted, and the chairman reported his examination and approval of the papers submitted by the candidate, viz., a thesis, an exegesis and a popular lecture. The opening sermon preached by him was also accepted by the Presbytery as a satisfactory part of the examination. He was also examined on the subjects of Experimental Religion, Theology and the Sacraments and Church Government, as required. The examination as a whole was approved as satisfactory.

Mr. Garvin presented a call for his pastoral services from the Chinquapin and Bethel churches. The same was read and declared to be in order. It was placed in his hands, and he signified his acceptance of it. In view of these circumstances, the Presbytery accepted his examination for licensure as sufficient for his ordination; and, upon his nomination, the following commission was named to ordain and install him in the two churches, viz., Revs. L. A. Taylor, J. D. MacLeod, W. B. Hood and W. C. Bennett, and Ruling Elders Joe Wood and W. B. Ward, the constitutional quorum to be observed. The time for the exercises and the parts to be taken were left to the pleasure of the commission.

Rev. W. H. Allison, chairman of the committee on Christian Education, presented Preston Cumming Oliver, a member of the St. Andrews-Covenant church, to be received as a candidate for the Gospel ministry, stating that all requirements in the case had been fulfilled. Mr. Oliver was examined as to his experience of religion and his motives for seeking the Gospel ministry. The examination was accepted as satisfactory, and the constitutional questions were propounded by the acting Moderator, Rev. W. B. Hood. Rev. B. F. Brown delivered a brief charge to the candidate, and the proceedings closed with prayer. Mr. Oliver's name was ordered to be enrolled on Presbytery's roll of candidates.

Dr. William Crowe, Jr., presented Herbert A. Codington, Jr., M. D., whose purpose is to become a medical missionary. The Presbytery rose in acknowledgment of his presence.

Rev. C. R. Gleason presented a petition signed by fifteen residents of the town of Brunswick, near Whiteville, requesting that they be organized into a Presbyterian church. He and Ruling Elder E. F. Davis spoke in commendation of the object, and furnished information that the session of the Westminster church, sponsoring the mission work at Brunswick, approved of the proposed organization; and Deacon W. M. Boice, who has served for a long time as superintendent of the Sunday school there, expressed his enthusiastic interest in the development of the work. The Presbytery, upon motion, accepted and approved the petition, and named the following commission to effect the organization: Revs. Andrew J. Howell, J. R. Kennedy, B. F. Ormand and C. R. Gleason, with Ruling Elders R. C. Carson, E. F. Davis and W. G. Prevatte. The time for the exercises and the parts to be taken were left to the pleasure of the commission. Presbytery stood in appreciation of the project, and a prayer for the proposed church was offered by Dr. William Crowe, Jr.

Rev. C. B. Craig, pastor of the Jacksonville church, announced a proposed arrangement for the members of the Presbytery to visit the great Marines Camp Lejeune; and, upon his suggestion, Presbytery changed the proposed recess for luncheon to be from 1 to 1:45 p. m., instead of the longer period shown on the docket.

After prayer, recess was taken for luncheon.

1:45 p. m. Presbytery re-assembled and was led in prayer by Rev. A. K. Dudley.

Announcement was made of the appointment by the Moderator of the following standing committees:

Leave of Absence—Revs. J. D. MacLeod and J. Murphy Smith, and Ruling Elder P. S. Carr.

Resolution of Thanks—Revs. B. E. Dotson and Cameron D. L. Mosser, and Ruling Elder P. S. Cromartie.

Minutes of Presbytery—Revs. William Crowe, Jr., D.D., and B. F. Brown, and Ruling Elder J. C. Southerland.

Deacon W. M. Boice, chairman of the permanent committee on Stewardship, offered the following report, covering recommendations and table of percentages for distribution of benevolent contributions to begin April 1st, 1947:

Gifts to Benevolences from our Presbytery for the year 1945-46 amounted to $87,879.00, making a per capita giving of $9.03. This compares favorably with the record for the previous year when total benevolences amounted to $79,047.00, a per capita average of $8.60.

The amount allotted to the Synod of North Carolina for Assembly's causes is $550,600.00, of which only $440,000.00 was accepted by the Synod. Even this represents an increase over the previous year of 10%. Added to this is the same amount, $440,000.00 for Synod's and Presbytery's causes, making a total Benevolent Budget for the Synod of $880,000.00 for the year 1947-48.

The Synod has allocated as our share in the above budget the sum of $78,518.00.

As chairman of Presbytery's committee on Religious Education, Dr. Witherspoon made announcement of Leadership Training schools to be held in the Presbytery during the month of February.

In behalf of the special committee appointed at the July meeting to consider arrangements for the office of Stated Clerk, in view of the resignation of Rev. Andrew J. Howell, Dr. Witherspoon offered the following paper, which was duly adopted:

Your committee appointed to confer with the Stated Clerk, relative to his resignation and to recommend a successor in case Mr. Howell felt that he should resign, begs leave to present the following report:

We have conferred with our Stated Clerk and find that he wishes to have his period of office terminate March 31. In view of this fact we recommend:

First: That Mr. Howell's resignation be accepted, and that we note, with gratitude, the continuous service of twenty years which he has rendered the Presbytery, and the splendid manner in which he has guided the affairs of Presbytery, and that Presbytery extend to him a rising vote of thanks.

Second: That as Presbytery offered increased salary in the event of his continuing in office, this be made retroactive to April 1, 1946.

Third: That our Executive Secretary, the Rev. L. A. Taylor, be appointed Stated Clerk, thus making this office a part of the duties of the Executive Secretary of the Presbytery, according to the original plan adopted by Presbytery.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

Fourth: That while your committee realizes full well that it was not appointed to bring in this further recommendation, it does so after prayerful and careful consideration because it believes that the adoption of this recommendation will clearly aid the Stated Clerk in his work. We recommend that the Permanent Clerk be located in the Wilmington area, and that the Rev. Wade H. Allison be asked to serve in this capacity.

Fifth: That Section III, division 3, paragraph C, of the Manual, which sets forth the duties of the Stated Clerk as follows, "To see that the rules of the Presbytery are observed, correct parliamentary procedure followed, reports of committees properly made, and, in general, to see that the entire business of the Presbytery is conducted according to law and order," be changed to paragraph 4a, division 4, under the duties of the Permanent Clerk, in order that the Stated Clerk, who is also our Executive Secretary, be not confined too much to his desk during the meeting of Presbytery.

Sixth: That in Section III, division 4, the word twenty-five be changed to fifty to make the concluding sentence read, "His salary shall be, until changed, fifty dollars a year."

Respectfully submitted,

E. D. WITHERSPOON,
WM. CROWE, JR.

Presbytery also appointed a special committee, consisting of Dr. William Crowe, Jr., Rev. J. G. Morrison and Dr. E. D. Witherspoon, to prepare a paper expressive of the appreciation of the Presbytery for the services of Rev. Andrew J. Howell, Stated Clerk for twenty years, the same to be presented for publication at the next regular meeting in April.

Notice was given by Rev. M. C. MacQueen, chairman of the Young People's division of the committee on Religious Education, of a Young People's Rally to be held in the Mt. Olive church on April 6th.

Rev. M. C. MacQueen, on behalf of the committee on Educational Institutions, and in consideration of the communication from Dr. H. G. Bedinger, President of Flora Macdonald college, referred to his committee, offered the following motion, which was adopted:

We recommend that Presbytery commend those who have faithfully worked for the raising of the $300,000.00 improvement and endowment fund of the college, and that the members of the Presbytery strive to raise their apportioned quotas for this important fund.

Rev. J. G. Morrison, chairman of the permanent committee on Foreign Missions, offered a very informative report in relation to the present status of the foreign mission undertakings of the church. His paper was accepted with appreciation; and the following recommendations presented by him were adopted:

1. That our pastors and sessions instruct their people concerning the need of missionary workers.
2. That a period of study be arranged in each local church, whereby three hours might be given to the study of India and two hours for the presentation of Dr. C. Darby Fulton's new book on missions, "Now Is The Time."
3. Pending the adoption of this report, we request that Presbytery be led in prayer, asking God's blessing upon this cause. (We desire that Rev. J. Murphy Smith lead us in this prayer.)

Upon motion, the Moderator was requested to appoint several deacons and elders to meet with the committee on Stewardship to consider subjects contemplated, prior to the proposed special order provided for the spring meeting for the subject of Stewardship.

Chaplain Philip Nicholas, of the Marine corps in Camp Lejeune, spoke with reference to the proposed journey through the camp after the close of the meeting. He extended a cordial invitation to the members of the Presbytery to visit the several points of interest.

In pursuance of the new rule today adopted, Rev. Carl B. Craig was, upon motion, nominated to serve as Moderator of the next regular meeting.

(Note: During the luncheon period, Rev. Cameron D. L. Mosser and Ruling Elder P. S. Cromartie, for the committee on Resolution of Thanks, voiced the appreciation of the Presbytery for the excellent food served by the ladies of the congregation, and of the pleasure of the Presbytery in meeting in the interesting church.)

Upon motion, and on account of the lateness of the hour, Presbytery ordered that the reading of the minutes and the final roll call be dispensed with; and the session adjourned after prayer by Rev. L. A. Taylor, to meet in regular session in the Black River church at Ivanhoe, N. C., on Tuesday, April 15, 1947.

Upon motion the Presbytery decided unanimously to resolve itself into a committee of the whole to examine the sessional records instead of burdening a few men and excluding them from the meeting of Presbytery.

Rev. W. H. Allison, chairman of the permanent committee on Women's Work, presented Mrs. J. M. Gregg, President of the Woman's Auxiliary of Wilmington Presbytery, who read to the Presbytery the following account of the activities of that organization for the past year:

PRESIDENT'S ANNUAL REPORT—1946-1947

Remembering the goal, "To Enlist Every Woman for Christ," and the three-fold objective, to develop the women along spiritual, educational and expressional lines, the auxiliaries have pressed on to the mark. They have supported the entire program of the church.

A membership of 3,126 represents 56 auxiliaries, divided into 130 General Circles, and 15 Business Women's Circles. Two auxiliaries, Woodburn and Bladenboro, have been disbanded during the year on account of the lack of leadership, and two, Harmony and Brunswick, have been newly organized.

Total gifts for the year amount to $36,824.00; $23,359.00 for Benevolences and $13,465.00 for gifts to local churches. This is a gain of $7,171.00 in gifts over the previous year and of 115 in membership.

For the thirteenth consecutive year, the auxiliaries have been 100% in gifts to the Birthday Offering, which offering this year amounted to $1,262.00, an increase of $116.00 over last year. $235.00 was given to the Historical Foundation; $2,340.00 to Barium Orphanage, and $799.00 contributed to the William Black Memorial Fund over the two year period.

There has been an increase in Tithers, Family Altars, users of "Day by Day," Bible readers, participants in prayer groups, and in subscribers to a church paper, there being 1,235 subscribers to church papers.

The women are keenly aware of the necessity for education, that "Piety without skill is not enough." Reports show that 234 of our young people are attending some college, which is 81 more than last year. 73 of these are attending one of our Christian colleges, 19 more than the previous year. One auxiliary is giving a scholarship to a young woman from their church, who expects to go into full time Christian work, to one of our Christian colleges; the Presbyterial gives annually a scholarship to Flora McDonald College, and has accepted the responsibility for the expenses of a splendid Christian young woman from this Presbytery, in her senior year at the Assembly's Training School, for 1947-1948.

Twenty-two auxiliaries have been instrumental in having Bible taught in their public schools; one auxiliary has raised $2,000.00 toward the salary of a Bible teacher in their schools for next year, and one is participating in a campaign for raising the funds for the salary of a Bible teacher in the grammar grades of their city, Bible already being taught in the High School. Many Bibles have been given, both to our own race and to the Negroes. Every member of one auxiliary gave a Bible to their public school.

Much interest has been manifested in the work among the Negroes. One Negro auxiliary was organized, a council of Negro women organized, composed of eight women from four churches; and three members from one auxiliary, together with the pastor and one other man from the church are members of the City Recreation Commission, the object of which is to help the Negroes provide the right kind of recreation for their young people. Many of the women have helped organize, and have taught in the Negro Daily Vacation Bible Schools.

Twenty-four auxiliaries report that their members participated in the Visitation Campaign and many of the women are teaching in Outpost Sunday Schools in their communities. Recognizing the need for Christian workers, the women of Wilmington Presbyterial continue to pray definitely that young people of superior qualities may be called into full time Christian service. It is with deep gratitude that I report that one young person has volunteered for foreign service, one young man has entered Union Theological Seminary to prepare himself for the ministry and three young women are in training at the Assembly's Training School.

To be deplored, is the small number reported doing personal evangelism, and it is believed that the pastors have a wonderful opportunity for leading the women in this, as well as in Outpost Sunday School work. However, the increased number participating in Bible Study, prayer groups, the deep concern and desire to give to others, both inside our denomination and out, the privilege of a knowledge of the Bible, the increased gifts, as well as an awakened interest in Missions, and the many activities reported, denote a definite spiritual growth.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

As we go forth into the new year the women will ever keep in mind these three commands of our Lord:

"Ye Shall be My Witnesses, both in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria and the uttermost parts of the earth." Acts 1:8.

"Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature." Matt. 28:16.

Rev. B. F. Brown presented a proposed overture to the General Assembly requesting appropriate action deploring the recent Supreme Court ruling in the matter of State aid to parochial schools. This was referred to the committee on Bills and Overtures.

Mr. W. M. Boice, chairman of the Stewardship Committee, presented four recommendations of this committee to Presbytery, which were taken up separately and adopted as read with the exception of No. 4, which was amended by adding the words "subject to Presbytery's approval" to the last line:

REPORT OF STEWARDSHIP COMMITTEE

The Stewardship Committee makes the following recommendations to Wilmington Presbytery:

1. That each pastor and church session be urged to make plain to the church membership the manner in which Presbytery's Benevolent Budget and the individual church askings are reached. i. e.: The askings of the General Assembly, the Synod and the Presbytery approved by the Presbytery and assigned to the churches on the basis of membership and previous record of giving.

2. That all churches be urged to meet its asking for Budget Benevolences in full, and that regular payments be made through the central treasurer—Rev. L. A. Taylor, 209 North 13th St., Wilmington, N. C. Further, that no special or self-denial offerings shall be counted as a part of church's quota for budget benevolences. These special offerings are of a self-denial and voluntary nature and are to be considered above and in addition to the quota for budget benevolences assigned by the Presbytery.

3. That, recognizing the need for a systematic, attractive, and persistent program of stewardship education for every local church, not merely as a means of raising money, but as a definite part of the Christian life, each pastor and church session be urged to develop a year-around program of stewardship education. The following methods are suggested:

- (a) At least four sermons covering all phases of stewardship during the year.
- (b) Use of Stewardship Study books.
- (c) Free literature from Assembly's Stewardship Committee.
- (d) Course in Stewardship at Young People's Conference.
- (e) Stewardship Essay Contest.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

(f) Stewardship Education a major emphasis in the work of Presbytery's Men's Organization during 1947-48.

(g) The appointment of Stewardship Education Committees in the local churches.

4. That no Presbytery-wide calls for special offerings be allowed to come to the churches, unless the appeal and the date for presenting that appeal are approved by the stewardship committee subject to Presbytery's approval.

W. M. Boice, Chairman;

The following Standing Committees were appointed by the Moderator:

Bills and Overtures: L. A. Taylor, J. M. Smith, E. H. Monroe.

Records of Presbytery: R. H. Poole, J. N. Council.

Resolutions of Thanks: N. P. Farrior, G. E. Maultsby.

Upon motion Presbytery decided to reassemble after lunch at 2 o'clock instead of at 2:30.

Recess was taken for luncheon.

AFTERNOON

2 p. m. Presbytery reassembled with the singing of the hymn, "Jesus Calls Us."

Dr. E. D. Witherspoon, chairman, presented the report of the Religious Education committee, and pending its adoption the chairmen of the various sub-committees were heard as follows: Rev. B. F. Brown made an appeal for Vacation Bible schools in all the churches; Rev. B. F. Ormand announced the plans for the Pioneer Camp at Lake Singletary June 9-14; Rev. M. C. MacQueen announced the plans for the Young People's rally at Mt. Olive April 20, and the Young People's conference at Peace college June 23-28; Rev. J. G. Morrison reported on the progress and plans for Men's Work in the Presbytery. The report of the committee was adopted as follows:

Your Committee of Religious Education comes to present its report to Presbytery with deep gratitude to God for the manner in which He has blessed our efforts, and with sincere appreciation to the Presbytery for its fine support of the programs which have been projected. Your Committee wishes to give a brief review of its work since last spring, to present its programs for the summer, and to have Presbytery hear the Rev. Joe Morrison speak briefly on the program of Men's Work in our Presbytery.

First, the review. Last summer 42 Vacation Church Schools were held in the Presbytery with a total enrollment of 2,715 pupils and 320 workers. While we did not reach our goal of a Vacation Church School in each Church School in the Presbytery, we rejoice that these figures show a marked increase over the previous year. We pray that this year, under the leadership of the Rev. Ben Brown, we shall approximate our goal of last year.

Conferences were held at Lake Singletary and Peace college for our Pioneers and Young People, and Presbytery was well represented at Synod's Conference held at Flora Macdonald college. Rallies in the Presbytery have been well and enthusiastically attended. 378 were present for the fall rally.

Three Leadership Training Schools were held, in Whiteville, Warsaw, and Wilmington. Splendid work was done by an outstanding faculty. Those enrolled numbered 376, with a total of 129 credits earned. Thirty-seven churches participated in these schools.

A Presbytery-wide Men's Rally was held in Wilmington March 3. Two hundred men of our Presbytery were present to hear Mr. S. J. Patterson, Jr., and to have a part in setting up a Men's Council for Wilmington Presbytery. This work promises great things for our Presbytery. So much for our past activities.

We consider now some immediate projects and ask your undivided attention as they are presented by the Sub-Chairman in charge of this particular phase of our work.

First, Vacation Church Schools, the Rev. Ben F. Brown.

Second, Pioneer Conference, the Rev. Ben F. Ormand.

Third, Young People's Conferences, the Rev. M. C. MacQueen.

Fourth, Men's Work, the Rev. Joe Morrison.

In closing our report we offer no recommendations. We do call your attention to, and urge that you bear in mind, these following things:

The Leadership Conference at Montreat, July 8-17.

The Young Adult Conference at Montreat, August 7-10.

Christian Family Week, May 4-11.

(See material "What Makes A Family Christian," $4 per 100)

Religious Education Week, September 28-October 5.

Rally Day, September 28.

The new literature available for Junior, Pioneer, and Youth Fellowship programs.

The offering to be received in our Church Schools May 17, for the work of Vacation Church Schools. This is a Synod-wide offering. We urge your support in this very important work.

Respectfully submitted,

E. D. WITHERSPOON, Chairman.

Rev. J. D. MacLeod, chairman, gave a report on Assembly's Home missions, which was approved and its recommendation adopted as follows:

That the Presbytery approve a Program of Advance in Home missions, and that the period October 6-November 2 be designated as a special season for Home Mission emphasis, and that the week of October 26-November 2, be particularly set aside as a week of Prayer and Preaching in regard to the Home Mission enterprise.

Rev. J. Murphy Smith, chairman, made report for the permanent committee on Synod's Home missions, which was approved and received as information.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

Queen made the report for this committee, which report was adopted as follows:

The past year's work in the Home Mission responsibility of the Presbytery under the leadership of our executive secretary, the Reverend L. A. Taylor has been unusually gratifying. A brief review of our situation reveals an indication of gracious blessings from the Lord. We are deeply grateful for them and we face the new year with hope.

Among the matters of outstanding interest we note:

1. Five capable and consecrated pastors have accepted pastorates in our Home Mission fields during the year. In addition to these, two men have accepted pastorates as Stated Supplies. The coming of these men has added much strength to our forces. Mr. James Marrow, member of the senior class at Union Training Seminary, has accepted calls from Rocky Point, Pike and Currie, and expects to begin work June 1. This leaves only one vacancy, that of Tabor City, and steps will be taken in their behalf.

2. A beautiful church and educational building has been completed at Tabor City. The Sunday School, recently organized, is making splendid progress. This church expects to have one-half time service of a pastor after June 1.

3. A chapel has been constructed at Potts Memorial church, with seating capacity of one hundred fifty, and class room accommodations for a Sunday School of one hundred fifty persons.

4. Manses have been acquired for our pastors at Carolina Beach and Southport.

5. A new church has been organized at Brunswick and is off to a good start.

6. Two new outpost Sunday Schools have been organized; one at South Whiteville, sponsored by the First Church of Whiteville, the other in Princess Place, a residential section of Wilmington, sponsored by the St. Andrews-Covenant church.

7. A program of Visual Education has made the best religious films available to all the churches of the Presbytery at very low cost.

8. A Vacation Bible School was held in nearly every church and outpost of the Presbytery.

9. Salary supplements were made to twelve pastors and one full-time lay worker, who served a total of thirty-four churches and five outposts. Allowances were made monthly to three additional pastors for automobile expenses in serving four outposts and preaching points.

10. Four Daily Vacation Bible School workers, and two student workers were employed for the summer months.

11. Marked progress was made toward the goal of a minimum salary of $2,400.00 and manse for all pastors.

12. Progress toward self-support made by our Home Mission churches is most gratifying. We call attention to the following churches that have increased the amounts paid toward pastors' salaries, and thereby reduced the askings from the funds of the Home Mission Committee:

- (1) The Pink Hill field, served by the Reverend N. P. Farrior, has reduced its asking by the amount of $437.00. Particular mention should be made of the progress in the Pink Hill church. Last year the church paid $450.00, this year they agree to pay $800.00, and thereby become self-supporting.

- (2) The Rockfish, Willard, Penderlea field, served by the Reverend Ben F. Brown, has reduced its asking by the amount of $480.00.
- (3) The Bethel church, served by the Reverend James M. Garvin, has reduced its askings by the amount of $200.00.
- (4) The Webb Memorial church, served by the Reverend J. V. Axtell, has reduced the askings by the amount of $200.00.
- (5) The Carolina Beach and Myrtle Grove churches, served by the Reverend John D. MacLeod, have reduced the askings by the amount of $50.00.

These figures represent a total reduction in askings of $1,367.00.

13. Our committee regrets to report that a disastrous fire destroyed almost entirely the two units of the Sunday School quarters of our Cape Fear church. The fire was caused from burning trash some distance from the building on April 7, and a high wind blew burning papers under the structure. One unit was originally a building used at Maffitt Village which was bought at a salvage price and moved to the church site at a cost to the Presbytery of approximately $1,200.00, and arranged for use by volunteer labor. Had the building been constructed by us it would have cost at least $3,000.00 in 1943. The other unit was erected in 1944-1945 at a cost of $4,200.00, paid by the Presbytery and congregation. However, a great proportion of the materials were donated by the North Carolina Shipbuilding Company, and much of the labor was free. The total value of the original investment was approximately $11,000.00, and present replacement cost would be much greater. The committee has had no opportunity to decide what should be done about reconstruction.

The contributions made to the Home Mission Emergency Fund now total approximately $13,000.00. Of this amount approximately $7,500.00 has come into the treasury of the Home Mission Committee and is to be appropriated to the projects described in the literature used in the promotion of the campaign.

The Belk-Williams Company made an offering of $2,000.00 to the support of Home Missions in the Presbytery, and has given us the promise of an additional $2,000.00 for the year 1947-'48.

Plans Made For The New Church Year

Our plans for the next church year include the following projects:

1. An additional pastor in Duplin County who will live in Beula-ville and serve the Beulaville church and two other churches. We expect thereby to reduce the heavy burdens being carried by two of our pastors and at the same time open up new work in that area.
2. The organization of a Sunday School and preaching point near the Marine Air Base at Cherry Point.
3. To assist in the construction of a new church and educational building at Bladenboro, new educational buildings at Woodburn and Smith, and a Chapel at Page's Mill.
4. To acquire at least two additional manses.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

5. To continue the emphasis on Evangelism, Stewardship and Religious Education through the year.
6. To employ two Seminary undergraduates for work during the summer vacation, namely, Mr. Jon Conyers in the Chinquapin Field, and Mr. Preston Oliver in the Jacksonville Field.

Dr. Wm. Crowe, Jr., chairman of a special committee to prepare a statement of appreciation of the services of our retiring Stated Clerk, asked Dr. E. D. Witherspoon to make this report, which was adopted by rising vote.

The committee on preparing a statement of appreciation of our retiring Stated Clerk makes the following report:

1. A brief expression of appreciation has been prepared by the committee and is submitted herewith.

An appreciation by the Presbytery of Wilmington of the Reverend Andrew J. Howell on the occasion of his retirement as Stated Clerk April 15, 1947 having served since 1927.

Ambition imposes upon men a yearning for position that they may be placed upon a pedestal and honored. The ideal of the Christian reverses that process. "Not to be ministered unto but to minister" are the Master's words which give to His followers a goal that is strange to the world. A Christian magnifies not himself but his office.

For 20 years the Presbytery of Wilmington has been witnessing a great Christian ideal working itself out at an important task, the office of the Stated Clerk. The duties of this office can be used to give prominence and publicity to a man. They can also be turned into a mechanical, soul-less process of filling out reports and juggling statistics, of computing the standing of the Kingdom of God by charts; or they may give place to a heart warming experience under the influence of Jesus. That experience has been ours as the Master has spoken to us during these years through the personality of our Stated Clerk.

He has shown us that numerals may be people redeemed and growing as they walk the paths of Christ. He has insisted that we see in struggling Churches, unprofitable as the world judges profit, communities of light through which grace may abound. In patience and fairness, with a watchful eye on the honor of God's work and on the orderliness with which it should be done, in firmness and sympathy and generosity, our Stated Clerk has been an overseer of sacred things. He has preferred obscurity to publicity and has elevated the records of divine institutions out of the realm of monotony to a place of charm.

We are grateful that our Stated Clerk has had the soul of a poet who could see beauty in the incidental and simple things, the vision of a prophet who could discern the truth in beclouded issues, the integrity of a historian who could interpret yesterday for tomorrow's needs. We regret that advancing years require him to give up his task and we record these words that he may know of our esteem and gratitude. We desire that our Churches, our neighbors and other generations may observe that we know a man who deserves honor while he lives, yet sought no honor, and that we and they may allow his spirit to draw us to the God he serves.

MINUTES OF WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

This statement was prepared at the request of The Presbytery by WILLIAM CROWE, JR., EUGENE D. WITHERSPOON, J. G. MORRISON.

2. The committee felt it would be desirable to have the statement printed in a leaflet in sufficient quantity to permit the churches to place them on their literature tables, because our Stated Clerk is known by many of our laymen who will wish to have copies.

3. The committee requests that the small cost of printing the leaflet be borne by the Presbytery's treasury.

4. The committee requests that copies of this "Appreciation" be given by the sessions to newspapers published in the communities.

5. The committee suggests that the Presbytery elect the retiring Stated Clerk as its treasurer and that a stipend of $120.00 per year be paid him in monthly installments.

WILLIAM CROWE, Jr.,
E. D. WITHERSPOON,
J. G. MORRISON.

Presbytery noted the death of Rev. A. S. Maxwell, for many years a member of Wilmington Presbytery. Rev. A. J. Howell and Rev. C. C. Myers were appointed to draw up a biographical sketch of the life of Rev. Mr. Maxwell.

The committee prepared the following memorial:

Albert Sidney Maxwell, beloved minister and foreign missionary, was born near Warsaw, North Carolina, on April 21, 1882. His parents were William Houston and Lucy Ann Chamberlain Maxwell. He died, full of labors and devotion to his Lord, in Clinton, South Carolina, on February 22, 1947.

Mr. Maxwell graduated from Davidson college in 1909, with the B.A. degree, and entered Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, in that fall. He remained there nearly two years; after which he engaged in home missionary work in Colorado and Texas until 1912, when he re-entered Union Seminary to graduate in 1914 with the B.D. degree. He was licensed and ordained to the Gospel ministry by Wilmington Presbytery in the same year, 1914. Meantime, he was called to serve as a home missionary in Brunswick county, in the New Hope, Southport and Sweet Home churches. In that extensive field he worked diligently and successfully for about two years. Not having an automobile available for his use, he purchased a bicycle and on it toured the country roads between his churches.

Moved, however, by an intense desire to be a missionary in the Lord's service abroad, he looked to the far-off land of Brazil for his future work. This he regarded as a land of unlimited opportunities for Protestant missionary efforts. At that time, though, the executive committee of Foreign Missions did not feel financially able to open up any new stations or work there; but he gave up his work in the home-land and went at his own charges to Brazil in 1916. He located in Lavras, retaining his membership in Wilmington Presbytery. He spent in Lavras a life of constant labors in educational and evangelistic efforts, for sixteen years. At Lavras, in December, 1923, he married Miss Mabel Davis, of the Charlotte Kemper school. For many years thereafter they were to share their prayers and activities. In 1932 Mr. Maxwell changed his location to Dourados, Matto Grosso, so that he could better try to realize a great venture he had cherished to carry the Gospel to the Indians in the vast interior of the country. Thither he finally went, preaching and locating suitable points for establishing missionary centres. When he returned from his explorations, he endeavored to enlist recruits for the proposed missions. In these efforts he met with a pleasing success. His became the ventures and hardship of the pioneer; and the accounts of his journeys of hundreds of miles on horseback and in carts were always read with interest in the home country.

His physical strength had been greatly spent when he returned to the states in 1941; and his constant regret was that the medical authorities of the Foreign Missions committee could not see their way clear to approve of his going back to Brazil, where his heart was centred. At every opportunity he was eager to tell of the promising work that awaited new missionaries and supporters in developing the great central Indian country for the preaching of the Gospel. In the meantime he worked as a home missionary in fields in Louisiana, Texas and Kentucky, spending much time especially in Blackey, Kentucky. During the past year, on account of the educational advantages he desired for his children, he moved to Clinton, S. C., where he was engaged in teaching Spanish in the Presbyterian College of South Carolina, and also as assistant pastor for Dr. A. M. Macdonald, of the orphanage church.

Mr. Maxwell was an unusually earnest and energetic man, strong in the Lord and always ready to engage in any work, small or large, in which he felt the Lord could use him. He knew how to practice the grace of self-denial when he thought the Lord could use him.

The Presbytery of Wilmington expresses its thanksgiving to God that such a noble servant of His was associated with it, to stimulate its missionary interest and provide for it a living connection with the fruitful missionary work in Brazil, as well as in home missionary work in our own land.

ANDREW J. HOWELL,
C. C. MYERS, Committee.

A certificate of transfer for Mr. G. F. Miller, candidate for the ministry under care of Concord Presbytery, was presented, and upon motion Mr. Miller was received under care of Wilmington Presbytery.

Rev. N. P. Farrior, chairman of the standing committee on Resolution of Thanks made the report for this committee. It was adopted by rising vote.

COMMITTEE OF THANKS

We wish to express most heartily to the congregation of Black River church our thanks for their generous hospitality entertaining the Presbytery.

We wish to mention in particular some of the things that have contributed to the pleasure of the occasion: First of all the ministry of the ladies in preparing and serving a bountiful and delicious dinner, which so well satisfied not only our hunger but our feeling of welcome.

Next we mention the privilege of assembly in the historic atmosphere of this beautiful old church. We have felt that we could almost sense the presence of those who have labored and done so much to keep the vitality of this church a continuous entity from the colonial days to the present.

Last, and most important the privilege of meeting and enjoying the fellowship of the present members of the church.

For all these we thank you.

N. P. FARRIOR, Chm.

Rev. J. Murphy Smith, chairman of the standing committee on Bills and Overtures, made report. The committee recommended the adoption of both overtures.

The Wilmington Presbytery, in session at the Black River church, Ivanhoe, N. C., respectfully overtures the General Assembly to take appropriate action deploring the recent Supreme Court ruling in the matter of state aid to Parochial Schools.

The Wilmington Presbytery, in session at the Black River church, Ivanhoe, N. The report of the Central Treasurer, Rev. L. A. Taylor, was received as information.

Rev. J. D. MacLeod made the report for the committee on Sessional Records, which was adopted:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SESSIONAL RECORDS

The records of forty churches are approved without exception.

The following churches did not send records to Presbytery: Bethany, Bowden, Burgaw, Cape Fear, Currie, Maple Hill, New Hope, Pike, Southport, Webb Memorial, a total of ten churches. Your committee is unpleasantly astounded at the large number not sending in their records.

Your committee notes that several of the churches brought their statistical report blanks to Presbytery. It would greatly facilitate the work of the Stated Clerk if these reports were sent in at least ten days before the spring meeting of Presbytery.

The following exceptions were noted:

Acme—Insufficient meetings.

Ashwood—Insufficient meetings.

Beth Car—Insufficient meetings. No records were sent to Presbytery for five years preceding this meeting.

Bethel—Insufficient meetings. No representatives elected to attend Presbytery.

Brown Marsh—Only one session meeting during the year.

Calypso—Business was transacted at joint meetings which was properly the province of the session—Oct. 29, 1946, June 16, 1946, May 2, 1946, June 7, 1946.

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN EDUCATION AND MINISTERIAL RELIEF

This has been another year of great activity in attempting to strengthen our Christian Education Institutions. Some are meeting with encouraging results in improving their financial positions. Some are still in a critical position, due to an inadequate support and lack of enough capital funds. All pastors and sessions are urged to cooperate fully with the efforts of the institutions supported by our Synod and Presbytery to meet their financial requirements.

There are now 519 Candidates for the Ministry on roll. But there is still a need for a further increase in the number of Candidates. In addition to the 519 Candidates for the Ministry, there are 10 young men and 1 young woman studying to become medical missionaries, and 27 young women studying for mission service. Wilmington Presbytery now has 10 Candidates under its care. Of this number, J. A. Jerrett and R. W. Pope are still in military service; E. J. Humphrey, J. M. Newbold, Jr., and P. C. Oliver are students at Union Theological Seminary in Richmond, Va.; S. Y. Pharr, Jr., and S. N. Thomas are students at Presbyterian Junior College; J. A. Bender is a student at the University of North Carolina; J. F. Fisler graduated from State College in Raleigh and expects to enter the Seminary this fall; and G. F. Miller has finished his work at Union Seminary and comes before Presbytery for licensure at this meeting. Two young ladies from our Presbytery were graduated from the Assembly's Training School this year and two others are students there.

The number of homes receiving aid from Ministerial Relief is beginning to decline due to the operation of the Ministers' Annuity been offered by the adjuster for the fire insurance companies. According to the terms Presbytery will receive $10,893.39 in settlement for damages to the building, and $1,350.00 for damages done to the furnishings of the building. The request was granted and the trustees were so authorized.

The Nominating Committee, through the Chairman, Rev. B. F. Ormand, submitted the following recommendations: that Rev. J. R. Kennedy replace Rev. M. C. MacQueen as Chairman of the sub-committee on Young People's Work of the Committee of Religious Education; that Rev. W. H. Allison be appointed general chairman of the committee on examinations. The recommendations were adopted. Mr. MacQueen was highly commended for his splendid and long services to the Young People of the Presbytery.

necessary before a subsequent Assembly can enact them. The amendments are as follows:

1. Amending Par. 96 (1945 revised edition) (p. 103, 1947 Minutes.)

After the first sentence, amend by substituting for all that follows to (1):

"This Commission shall have dual functions:

"As a Commission. The Commission functions as a Commission only under conditions prescribed under subhead (4)."

That subhead (7) be amended by the insertion of the words: "When functioning as a Commission," following the second word.

The first section of Par. 96 will then read:

"A Commission shall be appointed by each Presbytery, to be known as Presbytery's Commission on the Minister and His Work. This Commission shall have dual functions:

"1. As a Committee. The Commission functions only as an advisory committee when consulting with committees of churches seeking pastors, described under subheads (1), (2) and (3).

"2. As a Commission. The Commission functions as a Commission only under the conditions prescribed under subhead (4).

"7. This Commission, when functioning as a Commission, in accordance with the definition of a Commission in Paragraph 92 . . . "

2. Amending Par. 156, (p. 52, 1947 Minutes):

"If any particular church, by a majority vote at a congregational meeting shall prefer to elect either Ruling Elders or Deacons or both for a limited term in the exercise of their functions, this may be done; provided that the time of such active services be not less than three years, except to fill vacancies in either class, and that the Session and the Board of Deacons be made to consist of not less than three classes, one of which classes shall be elected at regular intervals stipulated by the congregation . . . "

The Presbytery of Wilmington met in called session in the Burgaw Presbyterian Church on Monday, August 4th, 1947 at 3 o'clock p. m. The Moderator, Ruling Elder H. M. Corbett, presided, and Rev. P. L. Clark was requested to serve as temporary clerk, in the absence of the Stated Clerk and Permanent Clerk.

The Moderator's call for the meeting was read and found in order, as follows:

Burgaw, N. C., July 22nd, 1947.

The constitutional requirements having been met, I hereby call a meeting of Wilmington Presbytery to convene in the Burgaw Presbyterian Church on August 4th at 3 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of naming a commission to ordain and install Rev. James A. Marrow as pastor of Rocky Point, Pike and Currie Presbyterian churches, and to transact any business arising out of the above.

(Signed) H. M. CORBETT, Moderator.

Information was furnished by the Moderator that Mr. Marrow was examined by the Presbytery for licensure, in every required detail, at its meeting on July 15th, and that the examination was approved as satisfactory and accepted as sufficient for ordination as authorized by Par. 113 of the Book of Church Order.
